Wisconsin's Badgers convincingly displayed the fighting spirit that has made them champions of college boxing west of the Alleghenies. All stuck to their guns to the final bell and even Welterweight Harman was willing to finish his fight after going through the ropes. It was the second loss in four years for the Wisconsin boys. The spectators were no little surprised when they saw Coach Johnny Walsh enter the ring as a second. While this may not be cricket, theoretically it was O.K. because Walsh is a law student. In order to cut down expenses on the many long trips the Badgers take during a season, the Wisconsin authorities asked Houch's permission to let the coach act as one of the seconds.

The Badgers didn't forget Whitney Rhoda's commendable showing at Madison last year. The entire team and their coach went to Bellefonte to pay him a visit, but didn't get to see the former Lion boxer because of a hospital quarantine.

Coach Johnny is a brother of the twins, Art and Jim (who boxed in the 115 and 125-pound classes. Ray Gadsby, Villanova boxing coach and his favorite pupil, Tony Sala, were at the ringside, scouting Wisconsin for their dual meet with the Badgers several weeks hence. Harry Stuhldreher, former Villanova grid coach who is now athletic director at Wisconsin, arranged the meet which will be held at Madison.

The score was identical with last year's... but the other way... the Lion ringmen haven't dropped more than two bouts in any meet this season. The short wave transmitter was used by architectural students, who "flashed" blow-by-blow descriptions to their less fortunate brethren working on a problem in the drawing room. Wrestling Manager Bob Siegler is endeavoring to get up a student party to attend the eastern intercollegiate at Lehigh and will attempt to charter a bus if enough students can be secured. Advance reservations indicate that a goodly number will make the Syracuse boxing pilgrimage via special bus.

Spectators were quick to condemn Referee Jack Walton for his decision in the Ritzie-Schiro fight and there are many who are still trying to figure it out. In the fight previous, he had mixed up the slips and given the decision to Snee's opponent, but the error was rectified before it was announced. Granted it was a mistake, Walton had the courage to stick by his decision even though it cost him the popularity of the crowd. When cornered by irate fans after the fight, he explained that he gave the first two rounds to Schiro because of better boxing ability. Besides working with a sprained ankle, Walton had one of the most difficult jobs ever given to a third man here, with every bout calling for the utmost skill in officiating.

Lion Quintet Faces Hoyas In Loop Tilt

Game Scheduled at 7 Tomorrow Night In Rec Hall

By WOODROW W. BIERLY

The Lion cagers and Georgetown will fight it out for third place in the Conference standing when the two teams clash in Recreation hall at 7 o'clock tomorrow night. State will be out for her third victory over the Hoyas in the seventh game of the series that started in 1909.

Coach John Lawther has not definitely decided upon the opening line-

Conference Standing

Temple	7	2	.778
Pitt	5	2	.714
Georgetown	3	4	.429
Penn State	3	4	.429
Carnegie Tech	4	6	.400
West Virginia	2	6	.250

up but the usual five, Sol Michoff, Joe Proksa, Jay McWilliams, Max Corbin, and Jack Reichenbach are expected to start the ball rolling. Bill Stopper's fine defensive play in the tilts last week may enable the six-foot-six sophomore to crash into the center position.

Won 3 Games

Georgetown, the only Conference team that the Lions have not yet met this season, comes here with victories over Pitt, Temple, and West Virginia. They also dropped games to the Mountaineers, the Owls, and two to Carnegie Tech.

Leading spark-plugs in the Hoyas defense are Harry Bassin, all-conference forward last year, and Don Gibson. Henry Bertrand, six-foot, three-inch center, will probably start at center, while Budd Nau and Tom Nolan, veterans of last year, will be the guards.

The score in the Tech game was tied three times during the early part of the battle and then the Lions gained a 22-10 lead that dwindled to 22-16 at the half. During the final period the Tartans threatened to overtake the Nittany five whose scoring consisted of a field goal by Charley Prosser and three foul goals.

McWilliams was the star of the game scoring five baskets while Reichenbach rated third with six points.

More than 2200 saw Syracuse defeat the Lions on Saturday night with a 39-26 score. The Orange held a 23-13 lead at the half which State cut to six points before the second period was half over. The Orange, not taking any chances, staged a late rally to gain the thirteen point lead before the final whistle.

Swimmers Top Carnegie Tech To Register Season's 1st Win

Penn State's swimming team limited Carnegie Tech to one first and two seconds Saturday to register its first victory of the season, 59-10-16.

Leading the Nittany Lion parade of seven triumphs was Koff Bunk, sophomore distance swimmer, who captured a pair of five-pointers. Bunk led the field in the 220 and 440 yard freestyle events, winning the latter by over seventy-five yards.

Dick Geiger and Captain Jim Cumming, maintained their winning streak in the 150 yard backstroke event as they again swept the first two positions. Gil Bureigh, breast-stroke veteran, won his specialty at 200 yards.

Lehman Wins

Considered one of the most improved sophomores on the team, Art Lehman came through to win the 50 yard free-style event. Making his first appearance in the century, Bob Dewalt, veteran distance man, took first place.

Penn State's two relay teams had little trouble downing the Tartans. The 150 yard medley trio was composed of Geiger, Bureigh, and Cumming. The 400 yard freestyle event was captured by Cumming, Lehman, Dewalt, and Charlie Welsh.

Second place winners for State included Welsh in the 220, Marty Hart in the fancy dive, Bobby Brown in the 100 and Bob Holdren in the 440. Third places were captured by Cobb in the fifty and Warren Oliver in the breast-stroke.

See Pitt, Temple Tie

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh newspapers predict that the Temple and Pitt basketball teams will win every coming game, end in a tie, and play off the Eastern Conference championship in Philadelphia.

'39 Trackmen Lead In Interclass Meet

Sophomore trackmen hold a five point lead in the interclass meet after last Wednesday's competition. In six events the class of '39 piled up a total of thirty-five points against the thirty points of freshmen runners, their closest opponents. Senior trackmen have third place with sixteen points, and the juniors follow with eight.

Weather permitting, the remaining events in the meet will be run off today at 4:15 o'clock. They are: 220-yard dash, 880-yard run, two-mile run, 35-pound weight throw, and the 60-yard high hurdles.

Results of the first events in the interclass meet are: 60-yard dash—Kalmannowicz '39. Kaufman '40 second, Bauer '38. third. Time—0:6.5;

Nittany Skiers Place 7th in Championships

440-yard dash—Downey '37, Markowitz '37 second, Kaufman '40 third. Time—0:52.4.

Mile run—Aikman '39, Henderson '39 second, Gordon '40 third. Time—4:28.6.

High jump—Sandham '39, Smith '40 second, Redmond '38 third. Height—5:10.

Pole vault—Clark '39, Jackson '39 second, Kennedy '40 third. Height—17.

Shot put—Brown '37, Vukmanic '40 second, Miller '39 third. Distance—40:8.

Competing against college teams from United States, Canada, and Switzerland, Penn State's ski team placed seventh in a field of eleven in the Intercollegiate Ski Union championships held at St. Margaret, Quebec, last week-end.

The Dartmouth team made a clean sweep of the events to cop the title. Captain Paul Massey stood out for the Lion skiers, who showed up creditably despite their lack of practice previous to this, their first meet.

U. S. Senator Reynolds

says: "Luckies are considerate of my throat"

"Two Southern traditions are oratory — and good tobacco. Lucky Strike shows me how to indulge in both. For this light smoke not only pleases my taste but leaves my throat in condition. Last fall in North Carolina—when I made over 100 speeches—I visited the Lucky Strike factory. I believe I discovered, in the Lucky Strike 'Toasting' process, the secret of what makes this cigarette so considerate of my throat. I have been more than ever an advocate of a light smoke since seeing the extra care and expense devoted to making Luckies easy on the throat."

In a recent independent survey, an overwhelming majority of lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc., who said they smoked cigarettes, expressed their personal preference for a light smoke.

Senator Reynolds' statement verifies the wisdom of this preference and so do leading artists of radio, stage, screen and opera, whose voices are their fortunes, and who choose Luckies, a light smoke. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on your throat.
