BEWARE OF LENTINUS LEPIDEUS!

IT looks harmless, but this fungus destroys poles. So telephone research men wage war on it.

In the Bell Telephone Laboratories, they study many woods, concoct many preservatives. In Mississippi, Colorado and New Jersey—where conditions vary widely—they've set out whole armies of treated test poles. Their continuous experiments yield many a weird but valuable fact about destructive fungi and insects.

Since the Bell System each year uses over 500,000 poles for replacements and new lines, lengthening pole life is most important. It's one more way to make telephone service still more dependable.

Cagers, Boxers Meet Pitt, Army In Final Doubleheader at Rec Hall Tomorrow Night at Seven O'clock

Matmen Wind Up Dual Meet Season at Ithaca; Defeat of Georgetown, 34-to-24, Places Courtmen Third

Penn State's boxing and basketball teams will perform in the final winter sports doubleheader of the season in Recreation hall tomorrow night. Army will present the last barrier to an undefeated season to the Nittany boxers at 7 o'clock. The Lion five will attempt to avenge its defeat at the hands of the strong Pitt Panthers at 8:30 o'clock.

Basketball:

By defeating the Georgetown cagers, 34-to-24, on Wednesday night, the Lion courtmen stepped into third place in the Eastern Conference standing. It was the second defeat for the Hoyas this week, the team having lost to Pitt the night before and so dropped into fourth place. Jack Reichenbach led the scoring with six field goals and one foul shot while Mike Petrosky paced the Hoyas with eleven points. Sol Michoff and Jay McWilliams each sank three baskets and two foul shots to place second for the Lions.

The Nittany five held a 13-to-3 lead before Ed Kurtyka scored the first field goal for Georgetown after ten minutes of play. The score was 23-to-13 at the half with Reichenbach receiving credit for eleven points. When the closing period was half over, the Lions held a 31-to-14 lead which the Hoyas cut to 34-to-24 by the final whistle.

When the Panthers, with their six Conference victories and two defeats, play here tomorrow night, the Lions will end their home schedule, leaving only games at Georgetown and Yale remaining on the roster.

The Panthers handed the State five their first Conference defeat of the season when they beat them 36-to-28 at Pittsburgh. Attempting to avenge this, trimming, Coach John Lawther will send Michoff or Charley Prosser, Joe Proksa, McWilliams, Max Corbin, and Reichenbach, on to the court.

Boxing:

Two undefeated teams will clash when the Army comes here for their twelfth meet. Seeking their seventh straight win, the Lions will be after their second victory since the series began in 1922. Four of the matches have resulted in ties, the score of the last two years being 4 to 4.

A bruised knuckle on his left hand may keep Nestor Kocubinsky, Lion sophomore light-heavyweight, out of the lineup. Heber Lessig, rugged intramural champion, will face Cadet James Luper, Army veteran strong-boy, if Kocubinsky is unable to fight. The bout should be one of the highlights of the evening.

Sopchak Meets Bess
Alex Sopchak will attempt to erase a defeat which he suffered at the gloves of Cadet Clarence Bess last year. Cadet Battle (that's his name) Barksdale will oppose Allan Tapman at 125 pounds. Barksdale has scored many knockouts this season. Cadet Bert Harrison, star of the Army team last season, returns to the wars for the Lion meet, facing Captain Lou Ritzke at 165 pounds. National champion Frankie Goodman will be on the spot again as he meets Cadet Tom Shanley, also billed as a tough knockout-specialist.

Sammy Donato, welterweight titleholder, faces a hard boy in Cadet Richard Negley. Billy Soose, Lion sophomore KO artist, battles Cadet Lukas Hoska at 155 pounds, and in the wind-up bout, Eastern champ Izzy Richter faces Jim Isbell, captain-elect of the Army grid-team.

Swimming:

Penn State will complete its swimming schedule for this season when the Lions meet Cornell at the Glennland pool tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

Coach Bob Galbraith will use the same line-up which defeated Carnegie Tech last week, in an effort to repeat last year's victory over the Ithacans.

The final score of the unique telegraphic meet with Oberlin was Penn State 44, Oberlin 22. State lost only the medley relay and breast-stroke.

Wrestling:

The Lion wrestling team ends its season in a trip to Ithaca, N. Y., where they meet the Big Red of Cornell tomorrow.

Coach Charlie Speidel may use a few replacements in the different weights as some of the boys need to develop confidence in themselves. Cornell has dropped matches to Lehigh and Syracuse, both teams having been defeated by State.

Freddy Stegmaier, 118, will meet Morton Ward, newcomer to the Cornell squad. Either Frank or John Craighead will take the mat against Captain Charlie Mosher at 126 pounds.

Al Zazzi meets another highly-rated opponent in Paul Hartzel, veteran of the Big Red squad. Jack Light will meet Alf Kuehler at 145 pounds. John Calvin, 155, re-enters the lineup in meeting Frederick Reimers, holder of Cornell's all-college championship, at 155. Joseph Krupa or Don Bachman will take the mat against Harry Smith, Cornellian from Argentina.

Ross Shaffer will meet Harold Se-gall in the 175-pound tussle, while Captain Joe O'Dowd meets John Manning in the unlimited class.

BETWEEN THE LIONS

By BOB GRUBB

Basketball and boxing make their last stands before home audiences in Rec Hall tomorrow night. . . Grapplers and mermen likewise wind up their seasons. . . Seems strange and sort of a letdown to have only dual meets climax the winter sports season, Rec Hall having been the site of either boxing or wrestling tournaments for the past six years at the end of each season.

In 1931, Penn State was host to the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association for the third time since the tournaments were started. In 1932, the National tournament and Olympic tryouts were held here and the Eastern tournament was brought back here in 1933. Wrestling's big show, the Eastern Intercollegiate tournament, was put on here in 1934 and then the Eastern boxing tournaments were held here in 1935 and 1936.

So, with no home attraction for the first time in six years, Penn State fans will either journey to Bethlehem for the wrestling tournament or to Syracuse for the boxing next week-end. . . Telegraphic meets for rifle teams have been going on around here for several years, but the practice was used in a swimming meet for the first time here last Saturday. . . Coach Galbraith's tanksters conducted a telegraphic meet with Oberlin at the same time they were meeting Carnegie Tech in a dual meet.

Credit Major "Tommy" Thompson in part for Allie Tapman's recent ring victories. . . After the Syracuse meet the band leaders told Tapman he would have to get out of the sophomore R. O. T. C. band if he lost any more fights. . . Contrast in wrestling coaches: Lehigh's Billy Sheridan, calm and immobile; State's Charlie Speidel, a one-man match in himself.

Werner Holds IC4-A Try-outs Tomorrow

Final try-outs for the Penn State team which will enter the sixteenth annual indoor I.C.4-A track meet to be held at Madison Square Garden on Saturday, March 13, will be conducted tomorrow afternoon.

Two men have been definitely selected to make the trip to New York. They are Bernie Kaimanowicz, sophomore sprinter who showed up exceptionally well in the recent intra-college meets, and Mike Brown, college shot-put record holder.

Coach Chick Werner hopes to be able to pick a medley relay team from the freshmen who competed in the all-college and interclass meets. It was Coach Werner's two-mile relay team that last year scored an upset at the I.C.4-A meet when it nosed out Boston College and Manhattan University to take the championship.
