

ESTABLISHED 1904

Henn State Collegian

COMPLETE CAMPUS COVERAGE

Volume 33—No. 52

STATE COLLEGE, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1937

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Rev. Rockel Will Discuss ROTC Issue

Peace Council To Open Drive for Optional Course Here

Students To Vote on Question at Election

"It is important that every student who believes in democracy and the principles of Americanism should attend tonight's mass meeting to register his protest against compulsory ROTC."

Rev. Charles D. Rockel, D. D., of Altoona, will be the principal speaker of the evening and will outline the situation as regards R. O. T. C. on this campus and point out what can be done to secure an optional course.

Alpha Epsilon Phi Installs Chapter

Former Astriad Club Becomes New Member of National Women's Group

Alpha Zeta chapter of Alpha Epsilon Phi was installed Saturday night by Mrs. Charles Cohen, Mrs. Mervin O. Symons, and Mildred A. Spore '37. The ceremonies were followed by a formal dinner at the Nittany Lion.

Miller '35 Wins Award

Berwyn L. Miller '35 has been awarded one of the ten scholarships to the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University.

'Bury the Dead' Chosen for Entertainment, Social Value

It took over two years for Director Frank S. Neusbaum to find a play to satisfy his desires in entertainment, coupled with a social theme. That play is "Bury the Dead," which will be presented by the Penn State Players April 23 and 24.

18 Attend Model Pa. Legislature

Penn State was represented among 300 "collegiate sportsmen" from thirty different Pennsylvania colleges in a model unicameral legislature at Harrisburg last week-end.

Delay in Wagner Ruling Hindered Government

By E. TOWNSEND SWALM. Pro-New Deal newspapers throughout the country have been accusing the Supreme Court of indulging in a "sit down" strike because of the delay in handing down a decision on the Wagner Labor Relations Act.

Artist Series Will Close at 8 Tomorrow

Orchestral Association Of N. Y. To Close '36-'37 Series

The National Orchestral Association of New York will play in Schwab Auditorium, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, as the concluding number in the Artists Course series. Admission is by the invitation that was issued to all subscribers.

Thespians Foster Escaped Convicts

A satire on college life in general with specific references to popular Penn State foibles will feature the spring Thespian show, "Pardon My Glove," in Schwab Auditorium at 7:15 o'clock Saturday night.

100 Students Attend Salesmanship Classes

Approximately 100 students attended the first of a series of training classes which were begun yesterday by the College Department of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills, Inc., of Indianapolis.

Artist Series Will Close at 8 Tomorrow

The National Orchestral Association of New York will play in Schwab Auditorium, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, as the concluding number in the Artists Course series. Admission is by the invitation that was issued to all subscribers.

Thespians Foster Escaped Convicts

A satire on college life in general with specific references to popular Penn State foibles will feature the spring Thespian show, "Pardon My Glove," in Schwab Auditorium at 7:15 o'clock Saturday night.

100 Students Attend Salesmanship Classes

Approximately 100 students attended the first of a series of training classes which were begun yesterday by the College Department of the Real Silk Hosiery Mills, Inc., of Indianapolis.

1st Party Platforms in College History Announced; Candidates Also Named by 3 Major Cliques

Political Groups Draft Programs; Favor Blanket Fee

Also Advocate Drastic Slash in 'Comp' Lists

For the first time in Penn State history, party platforms totaling nine in number, were released by the three cliques today.

Sale of Senior Coats To Begin

Sale of Lion's Coats, worn traditionally every spring by graduating seniors, will start sometime before the end of the month, Robert E. Morini '37, committee chairman, announced today.

Council Approves Blue-White Dink

The Student Council officially approved the new freshman dink when it met last Friday afternoon in room 305, Old Main.

Handbook Candidates Will Report Tomorrow

Sophomore candidates for the editorial and business staffs of the 1937 Student Handbook will report to Room 118, Old Main, at 4:10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Student Board Rejects Blanket Fee Proposal

The Student Board yesterday refused a petition presented by John M. Jaqueth '38 to insert on the ballot a blanket fee proposal which would cover extra-curricular activities, according to an announcement made today by Frank A. Osterland '37.

Jones' Funeral Set for Today

Funeral services for Benjamin F. Jones, who died Saturday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock from the fractured skull he sustained in a car crash north of Williamsport Wednesday, will be held in Blossburg at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Student Died Saturday; Collins Bigham Improving From Accident Injuries

Robert N. Collins '37 is still in serious condition in the hospital, but he has gained steadily since Thursday and is expected to recover. He sustained a triple skull fracture. He regained full consciousness Friday morning and smoked a cigarette, Saturday.

Kennon, Heyl, Moore Seek Leadership Of '38 Class

John D. Kennon, Campus; Richard E. Heyl, Independent, and Thomas H. Moore, Locust Lane, will oppose each other for the presidency of next year's senior class. Elections will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26, 27, and 28 in the first floor lounge of Old Main.

Handbook Candidates Will Report Tomorrow

Sophomore candidates for the editorial and business staffs of the 1937 Student Handbook will report to Room 118, Old Main, at 4:10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Kennon, Heyl, Moore Seek Leadership Of '38 Class

John D. Kennon, Campus; Richard E. Heyl, Independent, and Thomas H. Moore, Locust Lane, will oppose each other for the presidency of next year's senior class. Elections will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26, 27, and 28 in the first floor lounge of Old Main.

Student Died Saturday; Collins Bigham Improving From Accident Injuries

Robert N. Collins '37 is still in serious condition in the hospital, but he has gained steadily since Thursday and is expected to recover. He sustained a triple skull fracture. He regained full consciousness Friday morning and smoked a cigarette, Saturday.

Traffic School Opens April 26

Training of the motorist, upon whom depends the success of traffic accident prevention programs, will be considered as part of the traffic officers' training school, which will open here April 26 and continue for a two-week period.

Handbook Candidates Will Report Tomorrow

Sophomore candidates for the editorial and business staffs of the 1937 Student Handbook will report to Room 118, Old Main, at 4:10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.