

Pi Kappa Phi Wins '37 IM Debating Contest

In the finals of the Intramural Discussion Contest held on Thursday, Pi Kappa Phi defeated Beta Sigma Rho to win the two cups offered by the Forensic Council and Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating fraternity.

The contest, under the managership of Robert A. Gans '37, is held each year to stimulate interest in forensics and debating. The topic of this discussion was, "Should Alcoholic Beverages in Addition to Beer Be Sold in State College," the negative of which was defended by the winning team.

Members of the winning team were Guy C. Close, jr. '37, Charles C. Conklin '38, and Lewis B. Grube '38. The judge was Prof. Joseph F. O'Brien, of the department of English composition, and the chairman was Lester M. Benjamin '37.

yeoman's job at end on the Lion eleven.

And so, as Mr. Arbutnot would say, it is with mingled feeling of joy and sorrow, that we turn over this pillar and the supervision of this page to our successor. To him falls the job of chronicling the sports of the Nittany Lions; it remains for him to alternately flay, laud, censure, praise, commend, vilify the Lion eleven, harriers, booters, cagers, muggers, mitmen, foilsman, batsmen, linkmen, netmen, mermen, etc., etc. Take it away, Jerry.

tainier right-hander, who gave only three hits all afternoon, two by Sol Michoff. A brace of errors in both the seventh and ninth stanzas, however, took the sting out of Rubrecht's performance.

The Nittanymen tallied a pair of runs in the seventh with the aid of a lone hit. Mel Vonarx galloped all the way to second on Scalli's wild heave, took third on Michoff's looping single into left, and dashed home when center fielder Carpenter dropped Nick Wassel's fly. Michoff scurried to third for big league pleasure...

Chesterfield Wins

Today's the day

Wow!
...says Al Schacht
... the Clown Prince of Baseball whoops it up for the grand opening of the 1937 baseball season.

"Come on" the bleachers roar... "Swat 'em out!"
As the big leaguers swing into action watch those Chesterfield packages pop out of the pockets.
There's big league pleasure for you... everything you want in a cigarette.
A homer if there ever was one... all the way 'round the circuit for mildness and better taste... with an aroma and flavor that connects every time.
