Snapping out of the doldrums, State's batsmen came out of their trenches to craefa out 11 hits and bomb the Army, 7-3, on the West Point battlefield Wednesday. Benny 7 Simoncelli, who did all his work on the firing line, failed to garner a safety. Simoncelli yielded a half dozen official hits in his six-inning stay, although no one knows where four of the total came from. Co-captian Frank Smith, replaced the Lion southpaw as a pinch hitter in the sevenith, gave one hit in the final three innings and received credit for the victory.

The Lions dented the plate twice in the third frame on a home run by Johnny Waters, Harry Harrison's walk, and a double by Don Crossin, who supplanted Ray Brake in right field. Army, however, went into the lead in the fifth, scoring three runs on a pair of walks, two hits, a fielder's choice, two errors by Windy. Wear and another by Harrison.

And so it went until Cadet Lipcomb, Army's best shooter, took the hill in the eighth. Then the Lion attack began to click. Crossin walked. Big Chief Kornick singled. Sol Michoff missed fire with a roller to the hox, but Mel Vonarx walked to load the sacks. George Slabodian rapped out a single to chase in Crossin and Kornick. Waters bounded out, but Smith punched out another single, scoring Vonarx and Slabodian.
