Golfers Win 1 Of 3 Tilts

Team Wins From Princeton 6-3, Loses Play to Penn 6-3, Georgetown 5-4

In the first golf meet of the season on Friday and Saturday the varsity golf team met three tough opponents on Kenwood course in Washington, D. C.; polished off the first one, Princeton; and found that it had bitten off a little more than it could chew in the following matches with Penn and Georgetown.

In the match won from Princeton 6-3 on Friday afternoon, the Tigers' Denmark coked out a victory over Jay Albery one up on the last hole. Johnnie Bennett, Albery's partner in the foursome, retaliated for the loss by coking out a similar victory over Princeton's Maxwell, although the bout had to be extended over two extra holes to do it. State got best ball point.

In the second foursome the only point for Penn State was won by Bernie Burkett, who beat Konoye 3 and 2. His partner, Bob Siegler, was clipped by the Tigers' Clark 6 and 4, best ball this time going to Princeton. The Lions in the third group copped all three points for their play; Bill Gross, who shot the lowest score

I.M. Track Meet Will Take Place Thursday

Postponed from last week, the intramural track meet will be held on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Ernest T. Kinkead '37, manager, announced today. Coach Chick Werner, seeking material for his track team, will be on hand.

Lack of entries, which total only eight thus far, forced postponement of the meet, Kinkead said. The deadline for entries has been extended to 4 o'clock this afternoon, when all names must be registered in Miss Kellar's office at Recreation hall. The entrance fee is 25 cents per person. Individuals will be limited to three events. The winning team, as usual, will receive a trophy.

and best game of the meet, defeating Marks of Princeton 9 and 8; and Joe Stevenson defeating his rival divotter, Parker, 3 and 2, with best ball point going to State.

In the match with Penn on Saturday morning, won 6-3 by the Red and Blue and played mostly in a down-pour, Williams of Penn took over Jack Mahaffey one up, and Johnnie Bennett beat Moppeth 2 and 1, also winning the Lions the best ball point. Augustburger won from Siegler 5 and 4, and Burkett won from Peel 4 and 3 with best ball going to Penn. All points went to Penn in the last foursome. Moore and Sitwell defeated Gross and Stevenson one up apiece, winning best ball.
