of the season to the second place Delta Theta Sigma team Wednesday, 21-8. Ray Bartholmew, Ol' Squier each got two homers for the victors. Phi Lambda Theta beat Phi Sigma Kappa, 14-13, Tuesday. In the last half of the seventh, Joe Leone singled, driving Stew Krumrine in from second with the winning run.
Bob Morini's air-tight pitching has enabled the D. U.'s to keep within half a game of Phi Kappa Sigma, leaders of the Beer league. D. U. beat Kappa Sigma, on Wednesday, 3-2. Joe Robb's stellar game at third base has been a big factor in Phi Kappa Sigma victories. His bat was also effective in their 5-2 conquest of Kappa Sigma Tuesday.

Tennis

Phi Delta Theta entered the semi-final round of the intramural tennis tournament by winning a hard fought match from Alpha Chi Sigma, 3-6, 6-1, 6-3. Phi Delta's players were Charlie Prosser and Ken Appleby; A.C.S.'s representatives were Svend Holmstrup and Pete Neidig.
Other results: George Faber and Ted Winkler, Delta Chi, defeated Bob Wharton and Jack Manning, Kappa Delta Rho, 6-4, 6-4. Bill Potter and Bob Casselberry, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, lost to Bill Walker and Stu Mertz, Chi Phi, 6-1, 6-2.
Walt Painter and Sam James, Sigma Phi Alpha, won from John VanNatta and Jim Olevine, Delta Upsilon, 6-2, 6-1. Lloyd Albright and Rus Gotwals, Alpha Chi Rho, beat Wayne Bortz and John Mallory, Pi Kappa Alpha, 6-2, 6-3.
Jack Sartz and Otto, Unit 4, defeated Bob Kirby and Mar Corin, Beta Theta Pi, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5. Holmstrup and Neidig licked Frank Heron and Bob Gilchrist, Independent, 6-3, 1-6, 6-1.

Soccer

The Delta Theta Sigma booters entered the finals of the intramural soccer tournament by virtue of their semi-final victory over Pi Kappa Alpha Tuesday, 1-8. Five minutes after the game got under way, Rube Hixson dribbled the ball half-way down the field and scored the only goal of the game. The aggressive attack of the winner's forward line kept the ball in Pi Kappa Alpha territory through-

Tennis Team Wins 8-1; Meets Pitt Tomorrow

Competing with wind and dust, Penn State's tennis team trounced Carnegie Tech Wednesday afternoon, 8-1, for its second victory in six matches. The netmen will meet a strong Pitt outfit tomorrow afternoon on the varsity courts.
Capt. Paul Massey, after winning his first set against Bill Miller, sprained his ankle but insisted on playing and ran out the match against the Tech number one man, 6-1, 6-3. Paul then went on again, and with Dick Campman, shut out the Plaid's first doubles pair, 6-0, 6-0.

Rutherford To Make Shift In Golf Line-up

A radical shift of players on the golf team for the meets here with Pitt's Panthers and the Big Red machine of Cornell this afternoon and tomorrow morning will go into effect this week-end, according to Coach Bob Rutherford.
Motivated partly by the showing of the Lions at Washington last week against Penn and Georgetown and partly by the desire to give the non-graduating golfers a chance to gain actual experience in meet competition, Coach Rutherford will put four new players in the varsity ranks. Just who they will be has not yet been determined.

Small Town Men Predominate In Fraternities

Approximately 65 per cent of the Penn State fraternity men, and more than 85 per cent of the sorority women come from small towns or rural homes, according to address records on the Greek Letter society members enrolled in college this year.
These percentages have been compiled by J. P. Cochrane, manager of the local office of the Stewart Howe Alumni Service, who also finds that nine per cent of the fraternity men and four per cent of the sorority women live out of the state. This compares with figures from the College registrar's office which show that seven and a half per cent of the total men students and eight and a half per cent of the women students on the campus this year are from out of the state.

Also interesting are his statistics on the occupations of the fathers of the fraternity and sorority students. The fathers of the fraternity men include: 3 per cent, farmers; 7 per cent, salesmen; 9 per cent, executives or managers; 18 per cent, professional men; 24 per cent, engineers or contractors. A much larger percentage of the fathers of the sorority women are farmers or salesmen.

THE HOFBRAU

Gee, Bill, I'm sweltering, but you seem as cool as a cucumber

My Palm Beach is as cool as no clothes at all

THAT NICE NUDE FEELING... PLUS STYLE

- You feel as cool as nude. Yet others see you smartly dressed. That's the way Palm Beach adds up.
- There are no other summer clothes in which you can look so trimly tailored and so shipshape, yet feel so unhampered, so breeze-blown, so utterly glad-to-be-alive.
- The real big sensational news about this year is the assortment of rich, darker-tone mixtures which look like imported worsteds—Bradford stripes, Harlequin or two-color stripes, pin-point mixtures and handsome solid shades. Get yours now while selections are at top form. Enjoy their smartness and economy today as well as later.

PALM BEACH
