

800 WILL RECEIVE DEGREES AT COMMENCEMENT

Press Conference Opens Today

Players, Thespians Top Houseparty Festivities

IOLA D. MURRAY '39

Hollywood Farce 'Boy Meets Girl' Plays Saturday Night

Plenty of boys will meet plenty of girls houseparty week-end and they will have loads of fun, but they will not have Robert Law (Edward T. Binn '38) and J. Carlyle Benson (Herbert S. Yanofsky '40) to fix things up for them.

These two wisecrackers and "needlers" of one C. F. (Mr. Friday, the producer—Harry M. Reed '38), who call themselves scenario writers in the Penn State Players' Saturday, June 5, presentation of "Boy Meets Girl," will provide the play with its fast-moving fun.

The girl, Susie (Iola D. Murray '39), is a "beautiful but dumb" waitress who, because she has a baby, gives the great team of Law and Benson an idea for a new sure-fire plot for the handsome cowboy idol, Larry Toms (Randolph M. Graham '40).

Authors Law and Benson see the money-making potentialities of the baby, Happy, and before he is born the two have placed him under contract through an agreement with his blonde mother, Susie (whose dreams of success are all tied up with acquiring a high school education).

But at the first opportunity, Rosetti (F. Graham Luckenbill '39), manager of Larry Toms, grabs up the contract of Happy, and talks Larry into making love to Susie, in order to marry her and gain full control of the successful-baby star.

Susie, in the meantime, has fallen in love with Rodney Bevan (Richard F. Collins '37), an English extra, who she has met by chance. But she almost falls for the conniving cowboy, except that Law and Benson, who have been cheated out of the baby's contract, do a little cheating of their own (as after these two would be able to do).

And after boy meets girl, boy loses girl—boy gets girl (a plot which Law and Benson would never use in their best Hollywood scripts—but of course, find out that you can't get away from).

As George Abbott, who produced this Broadway success, says: "It is the real thing. It is the best play that has yet appeared about Hollywood."

You meet all the characters of a great producing office, and others—Green and Slade (Morton D. Wohl '39 and Stanton R. Rubin '40), song writers; the producer's secretary, Miss Crews (Hilda L. Hanson '37); studio officer (William C. Westberg '37); film cutter (Robert W. Cowden '39); chauffeur (C. Allan Tappan '39); and nurses (Dorothy A. Clarke '38 and Jane C. Eames '40).

Philotes Holds Picnic

Philotes will hold a picnic at Fairmount park tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock. Edna G. Albert '38 is chairman of the affair. Girls wishing to sign up for the picnic should attend the Philotes meeting in its room in Old Main Friday at 1 o'clock.

'Pardon My Glove' In Final Showing On Friday Night

When the curtains fall next Friday night on "Pardon My Glove" it will be the final showing of one of the best musicals ever staged in Schwab auditorium.

Thompson and Ulerich's production received one-half column of praise from E. M. S. of the Reading Times when the Thespians played at the Orpheum theater in Reading on May 13. The Times' critic is one who harbors the theory that college shows are all right for collegians but a wash-out for the hot-polit. However, after seeing "Pardon My Glove," the writer took the opportunity to say that "if all college shows are like the Thespians,' they're o.k."

E. M. S. apparently could not quite grasp the fact that a college production could be so long and yet lack dull moments to break the swift tempo and gay mood as occurs in this Thespian show. Said the critic, "Of songs—singable, catchy songs—there was more than a generous share, and pretty first rate stuff it was. Of quips and cracks and funny business, there was a prodigality" (profuse liberality).

Summing up the show as a whole, the writer put the production at least three songs, two comedians, and a sorority houseful of co-eds better than most of its ilk."

To insure the same performance as that which aroused the Times' critic, J. Ewing "Sock" Kennedy will have the same players in the same roles. J. Lloyd Larkins '37 and John O. Chambers '39 will again invade the campus as ex-cons. Lucille Z. Giles '39 and Charles W. Tilden '37 again have the juvenile leads, while William Marlin '39 and Paul E. Dean '40 remain as the comic dance team.

460 To Compete In PIAA Meet

Trials Start At 10 Tomorrow; Finals Will Be Conducted At 2 O'clock

Approximately 460 high school students from eleven districts throughout the state will compete in the third annual P. I. A. A. track meet here tomorrow. The trials will take place from 10 to 12 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the finals will be held starting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Both Class A and Class B entrants will compete in the meet. This year there will be no team championship. Instead the performances of the individuals will be stressed.

Barney Ewell, winner of four events in the meet during the past two years, and runner-up in two others, will face an opponent with an equally good record.

Terpko, of Sayre high school, won the 100-yard dash in 9.6 seconds and the 220-yard dash in 21.4 seconds in his district meet last week. Ewell turned in the same time for the 100-yard dash, and bettered Terpko's time by a tenth of a second in the longer race.

NYA Job-Holders Asked To Deposit Addresses

Students with N. Y. A. jobs who expect to leave here early next week have been asked to deposit a self-addressed, stamped envelope at the Bursar's office so that the final N. Y. A. check of the year may be forwarded to them without delay.

Meanwhile, applications for student N. Y. A. jobs next year will be available at the Registrar's office, beginning today. Students are urged not to return the applications to the College until after August 10.

Collegian To Suspend Publication Until Fall

With this issue, the Collegian suspends publication until the annual mail issue early next September. The first campus issue next semester will appear Tuesday, September 7.

The weekly summer Collegian will start publication with the beginning of the summer session next month. Woodrow W. Bierly '38 and Jerome Weinstein '38 will be the co-editors, while Alan L. Smith '37 and John G. Sabella '38 will be co-business managers.

Board Approves 1937-38 Budget

Grants $25 Remuneration To Its Members, Committee On Interclass Finance

Student Board approved $25 a year remunerations to its members and members of the Interclass Finance Committee at a meeting this week. John D. Kennon '38, chairman of the board, announced.

Effective next fall, the remunerations will be given to the members of the two organizations because it was thought they deserved consideration for the work they perform, Kennon said.

The three class presidents on Student Board will not receive this remuneration, because they receive sums from other student government sources, he asserted.

Approve 1937-38 Budget

This action amended the Interclass Finance Committee's budget for 1937-38 and is expected to be reapproved by the Finance Committee. The remainder of the budget was approved in full. The money for the remunerations was secured from $600 that was previously budgeted each year to inter-class athletics. The fund will be taken care of in the Athletic Association budget, Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics, indicated.

At the same meeting, the Board approved the admittance of David B. Ludwig '38 and John S. Moeller '38. Ludwig is the student representative to State College Council, and Moeller is the Interfraternity Council president. Both are admitted to Student Board upon three-fourths confirmation. Ludwig was then elected secretary of the Board for the coming year.

Senior Announcements, Invitations Now Ready

Invitations and announcements are now available at the Student Union desk for graduation.

Caps and gowns can be secured by presentation of receipts at the Athletic Store on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday.

Ritenour Completes Twenty Years Of Service at College

"Angel's Retreat," "Devil's Den," "Track House," "Pest House," "Old DeVictor," and memories galore; ending in 1901 as an undergraduate, and starting again in 1917 with continuous service to his alma mater, is a slight glance at the 20-year record of Dr. Joseph P. Ritenour.

From a couple of shanties in 1917, he has been instrumental in fostering the College Health Service's growth to the modern infirmary and dispensary.

When he took over the position here in July, 1917, at the request of President Sparks, to succeed the College's first doctor, Warren Forsythe, Dr. Ritenour found the Health Service housed in what is now the English Comp building. Besides this frame structure, the building used for isolation cases was located on the site of the new water tower.

Old Health Service records show that the first "Pest House" cases were six in number on January 15, 1915. They were all cases of measles!

The first Infirmary (English Comp building) patient was one W. E. Deitz with a case of tonsillitis on February

120 Register For Two Day Meeting Here

PNPA, Journalism Dept Sponsor 3rd Annual State Conclave

Noted Newspapermen To Feature Program

The third annual Pennsylvania Press Conference which opens this morning at 9:15 o'clock with a general session in the assembly room of the Nittany Lion Inn has already drawn an unusually large advance registration of over 120 from all papers within 100 miles of State College and many throughout the state, indicating that this one will be larger than either of its predecessors.

Prominent speakers at the conference, under the joint sponsorship of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association and the department of Journalism, will be Stanley Walker, assistant managing editor of the New York Herald-Tribune; Arthur Krock, Washington correspondent of the New York Times; Lyle Wilson, chief of staff of the United Press Washington correspondents; D. O. Bridge, advertising director of the New York Times; and Earle Pearson, general manager of the Advertising Federation of America.

Schedule Announced
The conference will follow the first general session on advertising and its problems with a luncheon in the main dining room of the Inn at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon, which in turn is followed by a closed meeting of the P. N. P. A. in the assembly room. Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be musical entertainment under the direction of Jack E. Platt '37 at the Inn followed by an address by Florence Fisher Parry, author of the column, "I Dare Say," in the Pittsburgh Press.

Alumni Organize
At the banquet Prof. Franklin C. Banner, of the department of Journalism, will act in the capacity of toastmaster. Awards will be made to two Pennsylvania newspaper men for their long and meritorious service, and Arthur Krock, Washington correspondent of the New York Times, will make an address. Tommy Richardson, well-known Irish humorist, will follow with a talk entitled "Personalities."

The Penn State Journalism graduates are planning over the week-end to organize into an Alumni Club with the following purposes: to establish a placement bureau here, to promote social functions and get-togethers, and to issue a regular news bulletin describing activities of members. The meeting of the group will take place in the Old Main Sandwich Shop at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

To Be Honored

William E. Lindenmuth '38, manager-elect of the varsity football team, will be feted at a test-mentia, dinner to be given by the Penn State Alumni club of Schuylkill county at Hotel Ferguson, Shenandoah, on Thursday, June 10. Lindenmuth is the first Schuylkill county resident to receive such an honor.

College Adopts New Fee System

Parents Must File Applications For Deferred Payments By September 1

A new system of deferred fee payments will go into effect next September, it was announced yesterday.

Under the new system, applications for deferment of fees will have to be filed with the Bursar by the student's parent or guardian before September 1.

In line with the new registration procedure, the deferred fee payments will be made in three installments. At least one-third of the estimated amount will have to be paid within two weeks after registration, with the balance to be paid in two further installments on October 15 and November 15.

No special forms will be provided by the College next semester, but applications will be made on standard 8 1/2 x 11 sheets. Deferments granted to present students will be predicated on the college record of the applicant's established credit responsibility.

Student Board Elects 2 Additional Members

At the last meeting of the Student Board, David B. Ludwig, Jr., '38 and John P. Moeller '38 were elected to that body. Ludwig is borough council representative and Moeller is president of the Interfraternity Council. Ludwig was also chosen secretary of the Board.

Neil M. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics, explained the budget of the Interclass Finance committee to the Board. Dean Arthur R. Warnock spoke to the group on its duties as a governing body.

The appointment of a student control board was deferred to the fall. This body acts on complaints brought before it by the Campus Patrol regarding automobile violations on the campus.

Memorial Day Recess Starts At 5 O'Clock

Memorial Day recess will begin this afternoon at 5 o'clock and end at 8 o'clock Monday morning, when final examination week will officially get under way.

Due to the presence on the campus of many high school students for the P. I. A. A. championships, the following offices in Old Main will be open until noon tomorrow: Registrar, Dean of Men, Dean of Women, Student Union, and Alumni.

Dr. Poteate To Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon On June 6 At 11 O'clock

Seniors Will Gather At Assembling Places At 10:30, Monday Morning, June 7; Will Then March To Rec Hall

NEW PROGRAM TO MARK GRADUATION

Exactly 800 seniors will gather at their respective assembling places at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, June 7, from where they will proceed in the academic procession to Recreation hall to receive their degrees in the College's 77th annual commencement exercises.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be given by Dr. Edwin McNeill Poteate, Jr., of Raleigh, N. C., when the service is held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, June 6. The service will be held as a chapel service in Recreation hall. There will be no academic procession for this occasion.

Geneva C. Ziegler '37 and John W. Angstadt '37 will give the valedictory and salutatory addresses, respectively, at the annual Class Day exercises to be held this year on Sunday, June 6. At this time the traditional class honor men and women will be announced, and the class gift will be presented.

The School of the Liberal Arts graduates 240, the largest number of students. The number being graduated from the other Schools are as follows: School of Education, 154; School of Agriculture, 145; School of Engineering, 118; School of Chemistry and Physics, 75; School of Physical Education and Athletics, 37; and School of Mineral Industries, 31. There are 304 candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree and 496 candidates for the Bachelor of Science degree.

A new program has been arranged for this year's June commencement. Formerly, the Class Day exercises were held on the morning of graduation. This year, these exercises have been shifted forward to Sunday evening, and have been combined with the Blue Band concert. The commencement exercises have been moved up to Monday morning, which allows students to leave for their homes in the early afternoon.

The annual Alumni Day will be held Saturday, June 5. The day's program calls for an alumni golf tournament, luncheon, parade, alumni meeting, baseball game, class reunion dinners, and the Players' show, "Boy Meets Girl." The election of Alumni trustees closes on this date.

The assembling places at which the candidates will gather, according to their schools, for the academic procession, are as follows:

- School of the Liberal Arts—In front of the N. L. A. building.
- School of Education—In front of the Education building.
- School of Agriculture—In front of the Agricultural building.
- School of Chemistry and Physics—On west side of Pond laboratory.
- School of Engineering—In front of Main Engineering building.
- School of Mineral Industries—In front of Mineral Industries building.
- School of Physical Education—In front of Recreation hall.
- Graduate School—On north side of Buckhout laboratory.

$1500 Fellowship Won By Willgoos

Will Study In Europe Next Fall; 48 Architects Competed For Drawing Prize

The $1500 John Stewardson Memorial Fellowship in Architecture for travel and study was won Tuesday by Robert A. Willgoos '36, a student in the department of architectural engineering.

Eliminating all rivals from schools across the state, Willgoos' drawing of a Union Railroad Station came out far ahead of the other 48 competitors. Willgoos, the first Penn State to win the award, plans to sail for Europe in the fall.

The competition for the prize was open to all persons who have studied or practiced architecture in the state for a period of at least a year preceding the award. Candidates must not be less than 22 and not over 30 years old.

Another State student, Joseph F. Ballis '36 was also chosen as final competitor, but was forced to resign because the competition was given concurrently with the Pavis Prize, valued at $5000, for which he is also a final competitor and for which he chose to take his chance. He was recently declared winner of the second place in competition for the Rome prize.

Alumni Day Vote To Pick Trustees

4 Nominees Vie For Membership On Board; Program For June 5 Released

Three of the four candidates for the College board of trustees will be elected at the meeting of the delegates at the Nittany Lion Inn next Friday previous to the class reunions and special program of Alumni day, June 5.

Those who are up for re-election are John T. Harris '37 of Harrisburg, J. H. M. Andrews '38 of Philadelphia, and George H. Deike '38 of Pittsburgh. Nominated as alternate is William J. Dorworth '34 of Philadelphia.

Program Listed
The program for Alumni day begins with the Alumni golf tournament at 8:30 o'clock. Following this are: the annual meeting of the Alumni Council in the Home Economics building at 10 o'clock; the close of the election of Alumni trustees at 11 o'clock; the Alumni luncheon in McAllister hall at 12:30 o'clock; and the meeting of the board of trustees at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The remainder of the afternoon and evening will be taken up with the Alumni parade at 2:15 o'clock; the Penn State-Syracuse University baseball game at 2:30 o'clock; the Alumni meeting in the Women's building at 2:30 o'clock; the class reunion dinners at 6 o'clock; and the dinner of the non-union classes in the Sandwich Shop at the same time; the Players' presentation of "Boy Meets Girl" in the Auditorium at 7:30 o'clock; and the fraternity dances at 9:30 o'clock.

New A. S. U. Petition Delayed Until Autumn

The re-petition of the American Student Union will not be considered until the new Senate Committee on Student Welfare meets in the fall, Dean Arthur R. Warnock has announced. When the committee refused to grant them recognition on the campus, the Union rewrote its application.

The Committee will be unable to hold another meeting this semester, and it was decided to allow the new body in the fall to act on the American Student Union's re-petition.

The recognition of the Union was not granted because of the "inconsistent" policy with established College policy. Another one of the reasons given was that "it seeks to organize students on immediate local and national issues."