

'41 Gridders To Face Cornell Frosh At Home

Marty McAndrews' frosh gridders waded through a week of muck and mire in order to prepare for the Cornell tilt tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. If the grounds are not dry at game time, the game will be played on the center practice field beyond the East stands.

P. S. Club Tickets

Penn State club members who wish to sit in the club's section at the Maryland game must submit their A. A. coupons in the clubroom during the week beginning Monday between 4 and 5 o'clock.

Student Council Votes Plan For Reorganization

trochem Refining, Physics, Pre-Medical, and Science.

Nomination of members to the various school student councils may be made by anyone in that school by presenting his matriculation card to the officer in charge of nominations.

The members of the Student Council who will supervise the elections November 3 are: Engineering, James M. Apple '38; Liberal Arts, John S. Meeler '38 and Adolf H. Marcus '38; Mineral Industries, Frank C. Anderson '40 and Robert L. McCormick '38; Education, Russell G. Gohn '38; Agriculture, Clarence E. Trotter '38; Chemistry and Physics, David S. Weddell '38 and Morton Nieman '40.

The amendment can be petitioned by 50 students if done so within two weeks after the plan is announced in the Collegian. If that is done, then the amendment must come up for approval in the regular spring elections. An election committee, composed of members of the Student Board and Student Council will supervise the final election.

Lion Booters Oppose Syracuse Tomorrow

record. Opening the season with a victory over Cornell, the Orangemen dropped the next two games to Army and Springfield by close scores. Last week they defeated Lehigh.

Records show that the Lions have met Syracuse every year since 1926, with the Orangemen taking only one game of the 18 contests played. The Lions won 12, and five ended in ties.

Lineup Given

The State lineup will be: Haag, goalie; Schuler, right fullback; Borda, left fullback; Mandel, right halfback; Painter, center halfback; Spyster, left halfback; Wacker, outside right; Taylor, inside right; Megrail, center forward; Micholf, inside left; and outside left is open.

The Last Word is never spoken at Western Electric

The urge to "make it better" is always there

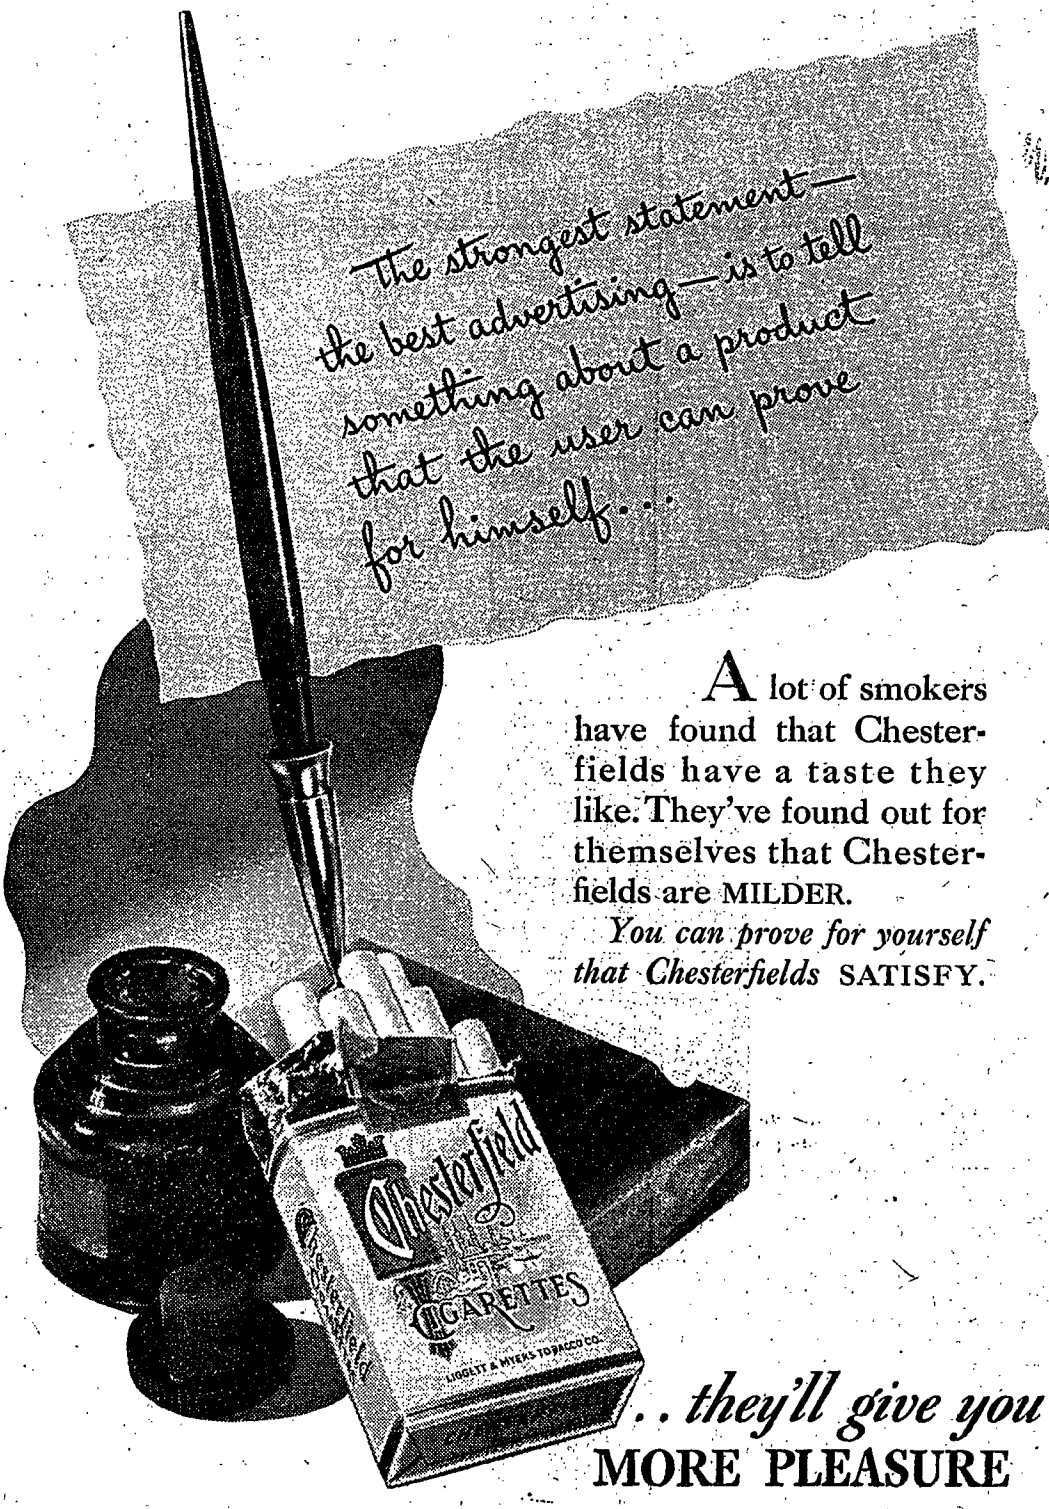

WHEN you approach old problems with a fresh viewpoint, you often get outstanding improvements.

For example: wires for telephone cable had long been insulated by a spiral wrapping of paper ribbon.

Refusing to accept this as the "last word," a Western Electric engineer mixed a wood pulp solution in a milk bottle—poured it on a wire—the pulp stuck. The systematic development of this idea resulted in a new and more economical insulating process—making an insulating covering of paper right on the wire!

Such originality leads to improved manufacturing processes and better telephone apparatus for the Bell System.
