Lions Seek 35th Victory From Strong Army Team At West Point Tomorrow

Miehoff, Taylor Account For State's Tallies As Trani, Varley Shine For Orange; Heavy Winds Hinder Play

By ROY NICHOLS.

With Saturday's 2-0 victory over Syracuse still clinging to their shoes, the Jeffreymen will be out for their 35th consecutive win when they meet Army at West Point tomorrow afternoon.

A strong wind made long shots inaccurate, as the Lions went scoreless until the second quarter when Sol Miehoff tallied after taking a centering shot from Carl Wacker. Sol's kick hit the goal-post and bounced into the net.

Taylor Scores

Playing his usual bang-up game, Miehoff figured in the Lion's other marker. Sol passed to Taylor who picked up a few yards on a dribble and rolled the ball into the cords just out of Varley's reach. Taylor also sparkled on the line, and the defensive backs took much of Haag's work out of his hands.

Syracuse was most active in the second and last periods when the Orangemen had the wind to their backs. For Syracuse, Fred Trani fairly radiated with heads-up soccer and admirable sportsmanship. Trani was undoubtedly the outstanding individual opponent that has played on Beaver field this year.

Varley Good at Goal

Bill Varley, Syracuse goalie, also turned in a good game. Bill put himself between the net and the ball on three successive shots by McGrail and Miehoff in the first quarter. And again in the last period, he stubbornly refused to allow the Lions another point.

Coach Bill Jeffrey will send the same lineup against Army tomorrow. The West Pointers have suffered but one defeat this season, winning from Syracuse, Brown (first defeat in two years), and Lehigh. The Cadets dropped a 3-2 game to Williams.

If the going gets tough in the Army game, Jeffrey intends to move Bob Schuler into a halfback position. He will use George Merwin at Schuler's right fullback post.

State Yearlings Vanquished By Strong Cornell Cubs, 31-6

By SAL SALA

Cornell's freshman football team scored two touchdowns in the first six minutes of play and then went on to completely humiliate Penn State's yearling gridgers, 31-6, on New Beaver field Saturday afternoon.

The loss of Chuck Peters, State's shifty back, paralyzed the strong offensive drive that marked the freshmen's previous games. A spark of the powerful push that bowled over Kiski and Bucknell was ignited late in the first quarter and in the second period when the Lions marched 66 yards in six plays to prevent a whitewash.

The defensive wall that yielded but six first downs in three tilts was shattered by the absence of Wally Kniaz when substitutions failed to plug the hole left by the injured tackle. Cornell tore through the line at will for substantial gains but in the third period, the Lions entrenched themselves on their four-yard stripe and repulsed four plunges to gain the ball on downs.

Wind Balks State

White's punt into a strong wind traveled five yards to his 44 and paved the way for the Big Red's first score. Quarterback Ruddy, Cornell captain, charged over the line into the secondary and raced 29 yards before he was hit by White on the 15. Murphy skirted right end to the six and Ruddy bucked to the five for a first down. With only four minutes gone, Ruddy whipped through center for the tally.

Cornell scored two minutes later when White, standing on his 31, was again forced to punt against the wind. Rushed, White kicked straight overhead and the wind floated the ball behind the kicker where it was downed on State's 19-yard line. Failing to gain on a plunge, Murphy snapped a pass to Borhman over the goal for their second score. Ruddy plunged through center for the extra point.

Recovering from the sudden Cornell line plays placed the pigskin on State's 15. Here Singh whipped the ball to Marvil on the six on the left flank in the clear, from where Marvil scampered over for the tying marker. Barantovich hurt his knee on this play and was carried off the field.

After an exchange of punts State had the ball on its own 22-yard stripe. Wear faded back to pass, and the State line leaked badly to allow almost the whole Orange line to seep through. Windy was rushed back almost to the goal line, and in a desperate attempt, heaved the ball to what turned out to be three ineffectual Lion receivers.

These three, not realizing the ball was intended for them, let it go—and that was the end. Sidat-Singh charged in, grabbed the ball on the 25, and was off unmolested for the winning tally. A last-minute flurry of passes was to no avail and the game ended—Syracuse 19, Penn State 13.

Touchdowns—Skemp, Wear, Ruth 2, Sidat-Singh. Points after touchdowns—Pollock, Bruett (placement).

Windy tried two more passes that were incomplete, and then on fourth down with seven yards to go the Rabbit scooted around left end to the enemy nine-yard stripe. Three plays, last two yards. On fourth down, and now eleven yards to go, Windy faded back and threw a pass intended for Joe Adessa in the end zone.

Just as Joe was about to grab the ball he was interfered with by the game's hero, Sidat-Singh. The ball was given to State on the one-yard line from where Dick Skemp pushed it over. Ben Pollock's placement try was wide; the first conversion he has missed this season.

The second score came early in the second quarter as a result of a kick blocked by Danny DeMarino, seeing action for the first time since the Cornell game, and recovered by Tor Toretti on the Syracuse 27. Wear hit left tackle for two yards on the next play.

Then, just as he had fooled Cornell in the first game, Windy faked a reverse and gave a superb exhibition of broken-field running. He was hit by Syracuseans at least six different times as he dodged 24 yards for a touchdown. This time Pollock converted. The remainder of the half found Skemp, Lloyd Ickes, and Wear carrying the ball to within scoring distance twice.

Within 11 plays after the start of the third quarter Singh passed to Ruth and Bruett converted the extra point try to make the score 13-7. With Ruth, Marvil, and Singh monopolizing the play, the ball was put in position for another Orange tally just after the final period began.

2-0 Win Preserves Clean Slate; Taylor, Bradford Shine

Matching the Lion varsity booters with a 2-0 score the Cub soccermen announced an All-Star high school eleven picked from 18 schools of the Central Pennsylvania conference on the wind-swept golf course field to stay undefeated in all five games of the season.

Approximately 250 saw diminutive Charley Taylor, Cub center forward pace the freshman booters scoring both goals.

Cubs Score in First
The first score came early in the first period when Taylor slipped a fast one into the cords from scrimmage directly in front of the goal. Shortly after the second half began Taylor again tallied when an acute corner shot bounced into the net. Both goals were scored with the wind.

An impenetrable All-Star defense kept the Cub forwards who sent shot after shot at the goal well in check most of the afternoon but, lacking offensive power, the high schoolers missed numerous chances to score.

Besides Taylor, Doty Bradford, stocky outside right, played brilliant ball for the freshmen. Benfer, Mifflinburg center halfback, Spaide, Beavertown fullback, and Keister, Lewisburg center forward, stood out for the losers.

During the late summer and early fall, one woman, and eight men including Carl Snively, head football coach of Cornell, completed their master's work in the School of Physical Education and Athletics.

During the late summer and early fall, one woman, and eight men including Carl Snively, head football coach of Cornell, completed their master's work in the School of Physical Education and Athletics.

Pastuck intercepted Beahm's pass in midfield and was brought down on State's 44-yard line. Failing to gain, McCullough, aided by the wind, dropped a punt out of bounds on State's one-yard line. Crowell, standing deep in the end zone, got off a kick that curved out on his five. McCullough, faking a line buck, shoved a lateral to Hershey who went over for the score.

State Holds on 3-Yard Line

Cornell staged the longest drive of the game in the scoreless third period. After Crowell punted over Cornell's goal from State's 34, the Big Red team staged a relentless 78-yard attack that ended on State's three-yard stripe.

Ruddy, smashing center for a first down, featured the drive when he broke loose and galloped 41 yards before being tackled from behind by Covey. Murphy circled right end for a first down on State's four-yard line.

But here the State yearlings suddenly welded together and took the ball on their three-yard stripe. White's punt to Cornell's 45 was returned to the 43-yard line in State territory and the Big Red's offensive machine brought the ball back to State's six at the close of the period.

One goal by Gene Giddings made senior hockeyists victors over a scoreless sophomore team in their second game.

Seniors led at first, freezing the ball effectively. A quick reversal brought it near the sophomore goal, but the seniors recovered with clever scooping and a hefty drive. Winnie Watson made a long drive with which Ollie Evans quickly interfered. Watson and Evans parried until Watson drove again for the sophomore goal.

Regaining the ball, the seniors rushed it toward their goal. The sophomore supplied splendid interference, but not enough to prevent a skillful goal by Giddings.

The freshman hockey team offered energetic though unscientific resistance to an aggressive senior team and lost, 1-0.

Weak and disorganized at first, the seniors didn't start to click until the last half when their lone goal was made by Gene Giddings.

The freshman girls played a loose-jointed game, but a senior onslaught was frustrated in the last minute by goalie Marjorie Harwick. Harwick did outstanding work in holding down senior scoring. Ruth Kistler's dependable playing at fullback also was brilliant.

OVER 5,000,000 Frank MEDICO PIPE SMOKERS AGREE WITH DR. MILLING, M.D.
Feb. 10, 1937
S. W. Frank & Co., Inc., New York, N. Y.
Gentlemen:
About eighteen months ago I was forced to quit smoking a pipe because the tarry products in the bowl kept me chronically nauseated. Too bad, but it couldn't be helped. No use feeling miserable every time I fired up. So I stayed off tobacco for over a year.
Then one day I saw a few Frank's Medicos in a druggist's showcase, and half-heartedly decided to try one. So many patented filter systems on the market, but I'd risk a dollar on one anyhow, just in hopes.
For six happy months, now I've been smoking that Frank's. This afternoon I bought my second one, and have it sending up incense as I write. I want to tell you—in case you don't already know it—that you're one of the benefactors of society. Lol the poor Indian! Lol Sir Walter Raleigh! Lol everybody who died before you brought out a filter that really works. I'm telling my friends by the dozen, but not fast enough.
You may use my name if you care to, and add that this letter is absolutely unsolicited on your part.
Very cordially yours,
Chas. J. Milling, M.D.
