

Lion Booters Will Meet Navy

By ROY NICHOLS

To meet a Navy team that has lost only one game, 17 Lion booters will leave for Annapolis this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Coach Bill Jeffrey will send his regular lineup against the Middies tomorrow afternoon.

Navy, after dropping its opener to Haverford, took over Yale by the same score that State defeated the Elis—2-0. Their most impressive victory was a 6-0 win over Lafayette, a perennial strong team of scrappers. The same Gettysburg team that the Jeffreymen trounced 5-0, put up a stubborn fight against the Middies, conceding a slight 2-1 win to them.

In 12 contests with Navy, State has taken all but two. All of these except the 7-1 game in 1932 have been close. Last year's 3-0 victory for the Lions was the biggest margin by which the Statemen won since then.

A previously undefeated Cub soccer team found it too difficult to overcome a two-point margin garnered by Millheim high school in the first half, and bowed 2-1 to the school boys, victors in 16 consecutive contests.

The yearlings started out poorly with inaccurate and blind passing. But the team pepped up in the second half and presented an entirely different array. Although Millheim had found no trouble in sifting through the Cub defense in the first half, they had difficulty in hanging on to the ball in the later period. Outplayed during the entire second period, Millheim waged a defensive battle to protect its one-point lead after Chuck Taylor scored for the yearlings.

Captain Van Hartman and Gazzy Green, forwards, along with Bill Davidson, goalie, and Sid Miller, center halfback, played good second-half soccer for the Cubs. Mike Auman, center for Millheim, scored his 37th goal this season when he sent the ball into the State cords in the first quarter. The other Millheim score came early in the second quarter when Rossman, inside right, converted on a pass from Bohm, inside left.

The University of Maryland athletic teams get the name of Terrapins from the fact that not so many years ago the Diamondback terrapin was one of the state's leading products.

Lions Won Battle With Md. During Wartime, 57-0

In the war-conscious days of 1917 a great State eleven which had dropped three close games, turned the Maryland Terrapins over on their heels to the tune of a 57-0 count.

In this, the only meeting before tomorrow's, between the Lion gridders and the College Park school, which was then known as Maryland State College, the victors were paced by the inimitable Charle Way, who scored on spectacular runs of 75, 55, and 45 yards.

Captain Conover's team of that year also piled up huge 99-0 and 80-0 scores over St. Bonaventure's and Gettysburg, respectively. Bob Higgins, originally slated for a regular berth, was missing from this lineup, as he had left school to sign up with the AEF.

Nittany Harriers Seek IC4-A Title

The Lion harriers will pit their strength against a field of 31 teams entered from the collegiate world in the annual I.C.-4A. meet on Monday at Van Cortlandt Park, N. Y.

The twice defeated and twice victorious State runners, Capt. Pete Olexy, Frank Maule, Norm Gordon, Herb Hazard, and the remainder to be chosen from Charles Pierce, Herb Nipson, Graham Miller, and Jim Hostetter, will face such runners on Monday as Waite and Frey of Michigan State, and Marjority of Manhattan. Last year the Lions copped fourth place from an aggregation of 26 teams.

Four teams each have four legs on the I.C.-4A. cup which will go to the first team to get the fifth leg. The cup has been fought for over 20 years. The teams needing only one more victory in the annual classic are Penn State, Syracuse, Cornell, or Michigan. Syracuse has already beaten the Nittany hares by a wide margin this year.

The same unpredictable and erratic freshman team that lost to Pitt last week will meet the same group plus others from the East and the Middle West in the freshman I.C.-4A. at the same day and place as the varsity competition.

Yearlings End Season With Navy Tomorrow

The freshman football team shoved off early this morning for Annapolis where they will face the Navy Plebes tomorrow afternoon. Coach Marty McAndrews sent 26 of his yearlings to Navy in the game that will end the Cubs' season.

Except for Tom Smith and Wally Kniaz, the Lions will be at full strength. Both Smith and Kniaz received leg injuries that kept them from the Syracuse battle and which have not yet healed sufficiently to see action. Woodward will fill in at guard for Kniaz while Wolfe will plug the hole left by Smith.

The probable starting lineup will be: Vargo, Parsons, ends; Platt, tackles; Smith, Woodward, guards; Karlin at center; and Peters, Boehm, Patrick and White in the backfield.

Kappa Sigs, PiKA's Move Into IM Football Finals

Ringling up their fifth straight victories, Pi Kappa Alpha and Kappa Sigma barged into the final round of the intramural football tournament Wednesday night.

Knotted at 6-all, the PiKA's edged DTD by a 3-2 margin in first downs.

Both tallied in the last period as Pick Little pegged 30 yards to Ned King for the DTD score, while Stowe passed 10 yards to Cramer just before the game ended to tie the score.

Stemming a furious last-period drive on its own four-yard line, Kappa Sigma whipped Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 6-0. Swivel-hipped Bill Neal sparked the winners' attack, climaxing an air-raid drive with a two-yard end sweep for the lone score.
