With the attitude that half a loaf is better than none, W.S.G.A. accepted John Kennon's proposition to appoint an honorary member to Senior Ball. Although the women realize that their representative will serve only as a figurehead, they believe that this is preferable to having no member on the committee at all.

The fact that Carolyn Tyson was appointed by Senate instead of the committee of men, was a step towards more inclusive representation. Acting in an honorary capacity, Carolyn will not receive a ticket to the dance because Senior Board cut the comp list last year.

To prevent this in the future W. S. G. A. is considering a plan to contribute dues to the dance next year to entitle the women to proportional representation.

When Panhellenic changed the weekly rushing allowance to a lump sum of $20, to be spent during the problem of sororities having to serve bread and butter sandwiches to rushes because they had spent their weekly budget for a carton of tea.

Freshman customs will soon be entirely removed to the relief of about 400 women who have become tired of wearing name cards.

Lion Gridders Close Season Against Pitt

est outfit since he started coaching here in 1929.

From Pittsburgh is heard this statement from Dr. Jock Sutherland, Panther mentor: "I know we're due for a letdown after two hard games with Notre Dame and Nebraska. And I know that Penn State is tricky. It's their game of the season, and it's their most successful season in a number of years. About all I can do is hope that our letdown isn't too great, and that the Nittany Lions aren't too tricky."

Enders

Lion fans say: "Don't make us laugh, but we sure hope you're right, Doctor. We know that our scrappy team will be doing their best. A victory seems highly improbable, but nothing is impossible." And that is the sentiment of the Lion eleven: "nothing is impossible."

Here are the starters who will "shoot the works": Alex Barantovich and Spike Alter.

Adessa ends; Ellwood and T. Nemeth, tackles; Economos and Joe Peel, guards; Enders, center; and Tony Giannantonio, Lloyd Tekes, Dick Skemp, and Steve Rollins, backs. This, with the exception of the tackles, is the same aggregation that started against Maryland with Wear, Donato, and Harry Harrison sure to play an important part in the course of the afternoon's events.

State last beat Pitt in 1919, when Bob Higgins was making Lion gridiron history with his all-American exploits at end. The 30-game series, which began in 1893, has resulted in 13 wins for the Nittanymen, 21 losses, and two ties.
