LAWTHER SILENT ON SEASON'S PROSPECTS

Court Candidates Total 17: Team Will Begin Campaign With Only One Regular Out

keep yelling." -Thus, with a reassuring nod, var sity basketball coach John D. Lawther dismisses all queries, hazards no predictions, doggedly picks up where he left off last year, determined to fill the one vacancy and smooth the weaknesses of the crack array that stunned the Eastern Intercollegiate Conference last season by skyrock-eting from the league's doormat to within one game of first place.

Replacing Spike Leske last year at the helm of a team which had not won a single conference tilt and amassed a record of only, six victories in 17 starts, Lawther injected a shifting zone defense, sprinkled, with speed, craftiness, and grit, to mould a combination feared in Eastern court circles.

ates to 17 early this week was shifty, diminutive Sol Michoff, star three-sport man who just captained Bill Jeffrey's booters through another undefeated campaign.

Michoff Seen As Starter

Rusted by inaction on the court Michoff is expected to round into form soon and retain his starting forward post together with fighting Joe Prokat, another returning regular. Michoff paced State's scorers last season and finished sixth in the Eastern Conference standings.

With the climination of the center tip calling for a continued supply of speed and stamina, Lawther is aiming to mould two crack combinations, which would be substituted interhangeably as separate units, thus discarding the single-substitute notice. In this way Lawther hopes to maintain an organized combination at all times.
