Strong Tiger Matmen Seek 16th Victory

By SAL SALA
The wrestling Tigers from the Princeton campus will seek their 16th consecutive dual meet victory at the expense of Coach Charlie Speidel's Lions tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Rec hall. The meet will inaugurate Penn State's 30th season of intercollegiate wrestling and the 12th under the regime of Speidel.

While the Statemen were grappling for class honors last week, Princeton made a loud and impressive debut against Rutgers by overwhelming them 32-0 to add another notch in their string of 15 straight wins. A glance at the summaries reveals a well-balanced and experienced squad that made the shellacking no fluke or plain luck. With the exception of one, Fields in the 135-pound class, all representatives have had at least one year of intercollegiate competition.

The lineup also boasts of two Eastern intercollegiate champs and one former title-holder. Dick Harding, who captured the 118-pound crown last March, put on weight and will grapple with the 126-pounder, Chuck Powers, who was awarded the coaches' cup for the most finished wrestler of the tournament after he defeated Dick Bishop, see Lehigh wrestler and 1936 155-pound champion, will again strive for superiority in the 155-pound field.

Emory to Make Comeback
Captain "Mouse" Emory, who lost his 165-pound title to State's Joe Krupa last year, will make a comeback in that weight to regain the crown.

Meanwhile, Speidel awaits tomorrow to see what his hacked squad, clipped by the graduation axe, will do against the team favored by eastern sports writers to take the 1933 intercollegiate tournament.

With the exception of his Eastern champions, Al Zazzi and Captain Ross Shaffer, Speidel has to contend with "question marks" and "ifs." As Charlie says, "I have confidence in my boys, but they lack experience."

2 Sophs in Lineup
Sophomore Carl King, 118-pound interclass champion, will enter his first varsity college competition as will Ernie Bartz, also a sophomore, in the heavyweight class. John Craighead or Ray Brooks will wrestle in the 126-pound division and the winner of the Steve Priolo-Vic Gentilman elimination bout will meet up with Powers in the 155-pound class.

The probable lineups for tomorrow's meet are:
118-lb.—Addy Foshay, Princeton, vs. King; 126-lb.—Harding, Princeton, vs. Craighead; 135-lb.—Fields, Princeton, vs. Reynolds; 145-lb.—Fred Capers, Princeton, vs. Zazzi; 155-lb.—Powers, Princeton, vs. Priolo; 165-lb.—Emory, Princeton, vs. Don Bachman; 175-lb.—Bob Smith, Princeton, vs. Shaffer; Unlimited—Charles Toll, Princeton, vs. Bartz.

Public Can Obtain Tickets Early

For the convenience of the general public, tickets for athletic events in Recreation hall will be on sale at the Athletic Association ticket office in Old Main each Saturday morning from 8 to 12 o'clock. Harold R. Gilbert, assistant to the graduate manager of athletics announced yesterday.

Gilbert also stated that when there are varsity events in the afternoon and evening, as tomorrow, tickets for the evening will be available at Recreation hall in the afternoon.

Mermen To Face Strong Tartans

A pepped-up team of Lion swimmers will go into their first meet of the year tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in Glennland Pool against a strong Carnegie Tech outfit that has already emerged the victor in their first meet of the season with Slippery Rock.

The Glennland splashers, called by Coach Bob Galbreath the best and most evenly balanced team he has yet had, will probably line up for the swim as follows:

- 200-yard medley—Mark Vinzant (backstroke), Bob Hancock (breaststroke), and Bobby Brown (freestyle).
- 50-yard free style—Chuck Welsh and Bob Dewalt.
- 100-yard free style—Ed Woods and Art Lehman.
- 220 yards—Ken Bunk and Ed Zwick.
- Diving—John Parks and either Guy McLaughlin, Bill Ipp, or Martin Hart.
- Breaststroke—Ray Johnson and Morris Shaffner.
- Backstroke—Mark Vinzant and Don Newberry.
- Relay—Bobby Brown, John Crook.

IM Handball, Bowling, Swimming Under Way

Intramurals got off to a slow start Wednesday afternoon as only two handball games and one swimming meet took place.

In the handball tournaments, Bob Sherman '39, Independent, defeated Sam Watts '39, Sigma Nu, in two games, 24-4 and 21-7. Jerry Howarth '40, D. U., forfeited to Bob Robinson '41, Phi Sigma Delta.

The only swimming meet of the day gave Sigma Nu a decisive victory over Delta Upsilon. The Sigma Nu mermen out-splashed last year's champs by a 30-28 score, conceding only the relay event and a tie in the 50-yard freestyle race.

New Mitmen Hold Key To Ring Success

By TOM ROAL

"I'll make no predictions," Leo Houck.

Penn State's 1933 boxing team became an unknown quantity after graduation and eligibility rules removed five stellar performers in the lighted square. Opening with Western Maryland here tomorrow, State will go into the ring with a large question mark on their possibilities.

The five gaps which ripped the team at the beginning of the year will probably be filled by Roy Hanna, 135 pounds, a young, smart boxer who has come a long way since the intramurals. Taking Bill Soose's place will be Captain Sam Donato, while Frank Silvestri, a last year numeral man will fight at 145 pounds.

Tapman at Old Weight
Al Tapman, who improved in every fight last year, will take his old stand at 125 pounds. This year with experience and bad breaks behind him, Al will be in every fight to the last bell. Another unknown quantity is Heber Lessig, who takes Lou Ritzie's place in the middleweight.

Soapy Sopchak will enter the ring for the 115-pound fight against Western Maryland's Bill Osteen. Al Bolder, another newcomer, will square off against 175-pound veteran Captain Tony Orzenti, who took third place in the intercollegiate held last March.

In the heavyweight division either Nate Handler or Dave Nemeth will put on the gloves with Joe O'Leary, another of Western Maryland's 1932 lettermen.

place Tuesday night when they defeated Tau Kappa Epsilon 6-2. Tau Phi Delta dropped Phi Kappa by the same score. With only four teams yet to roll for the first half title, Theta Chi seems to have the lead clinched. However, Delta Sigma Phi, runner-up, is scheduled to meet Alpha Chi Rho late this week. Alpha Gamma Rho also must bowl Alpha Phi Delta to finish the half.

Victorious Over Tech, Lion Cagers Face West Virginia

By JOHN A. TROANOVITCH

GRRR!
Their appetites whetted by a stunning 39-33 triumph over Carnegie Tech's high-riding Tartans, Penn State's growling Lions will endeavor to maintain their grip on the Eastern Conference leadership when they tangle with West Virginia's troublesome Mountaineers in the windup of a double-header attraction in Recreation hall tomorrow night.

Thriving for victory after a last-minute loss to Carnegie Tech in the conference opener last Saturday, West Virginia, always a Lion nemesis, will be doubly hard to whip. Although absent from the lineup, eagle-eyed Jack Goeke, who romped off with the league's scoring honors last year, will be back to plague State—from the sidelines. He's assistant coach now.

Meanwhile, the Lions will be out not only to maintain the conference leadership but also to extend a five-game winning streak that has reared up from the ashes of an opening game 29-19 fiasco at Akron.

A package of dynamite from the very beginning, John Lawther's six-footers, sparred by diminutive Sol Miehoff, exploded with a bang at Pittsburgh Tuesday night, toppling Carnegie from the loop lead, and catapulting into a deadlock with George town's mighty five that wrecked Temple's all-conquering Owls Monday night, 39-22.

State was slow in getting started, hanging on to an 11-7 count midway in the first half. Miehoff hit the fuse.

Gymnasts Meet First Opponent Tomorrow

Out to break a consistent losing streak of several years in varsity gymnastics, Coach Gene Bischoff's 1933 edition will open the season tomorrow against West Chester Teachers College. The dual meet is scheduled for 1 p. m. in Rec hall.

Only four lettermen will be in uniform to face the troublesome normal school group, but the addition of several promising sophomores will give the gymsters a chance to come out of the doldrums. Capt. Sam Beck, Ray Runkle, Al Kligman, and Julian Parlon are the returning veterans who will carry the hopes for victory.

STILL "TOPS" ... after 31 Years As a Tobacco Auctioneer

Veteran Jim Edwards tells why tobacco experts prefer Luckies 2 to 1...

"I recently sold 489,000 pounds of tobacco in one 6 1/2 hour day," says Mr. J. N. Edwards of Farmville, North Carolina.
"There was a buyer, naturally, for every one of those 489,000 pounds... But there was as much difference between the best grades and the inferior, as between a pretty girl and a homely one."
"At auction after auction, I've seen Lucky Strike go after the prettiest lots of tobacco. It's no wonder Luckies taste so good. I've smoked them since 1917."
"And another thing... even after yelling out tobacco bids all during a seven hour day, Luckies are still just as easy as ever on my throat."
Only Lucky Strike offers you the finest tobacco plus the throat-protection of the exclusive process "It's Toasted". This process takes out certain irritants found in all tobacco—even the finest.
Men who know tobacco from A to Z—experts like Mr. Edwards—are surely good judges of cigarettes... Sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.
