remi State was on to a successing to begin this start in winter sports activities.

Even the defeat in wrestling failed to dampen Lion spirits in forecasting another banner year in athletics.

Peering beneath the 16-12 sebback for the sport of the second from Princeton, hopes are high for the maintaining of eastern supremacy by the Lion grapplers.

Charlie Speidel has the makings of another well-balanced, skillful wrestl-ing team which indicates that chances for retaining the eastern diadem are exceedingly bright.

Captain Ross Shaffer, Bobby Rey-nolds, Frank Craighead, and Don Bachman, veteran wrestlers, delivered creditable performances. The work of Carl King, sophomore 118-pounder, showed skill, cleverness, and strength unusual for a first year man. The expected nervousness wasn't noticable

Swordsmen Outpoint

Striving to mould a formidable outlit to face Pennsylvania next Sat-orday, Coach II. M. Krutter sent a large group of swordsmen against the Wilkes-Barre Y. M. C. A. last Saturday in an exhibition meet. The Lion foilsmen took five of their nine matches, the sabermen wen three out of four, and the epec wielders split even in four matches, to give State a winning margin of 10.7.

A group of inexperienced foilsmen tested their skill in the opening duels with Sam Rubin, Scotty Rankin, Vic Shaukles, Don Lerch, and Carl Ernst

recording the five victories.

Capt. Spence Potter, John Lipe-ezky, and Paul Fiebiger overwhelmed the opposing sabermen for three more triumphs. The remaining points and Paul Jackson in the epee division, Roger Kirk and Lipeczky bowing in the other two matches.
