

Lion Matmen Will Wrestle At Michigan

The Lion wrestling team showed off for Ann Arbor yesterday afternoon to tangle with the grapplers of Michigan U. tomorrow. The Michigan outfit was runner-up in the Big Ten Tournament last year, trailing the champion Illinois team by the slim margin of five points.

Coach Charlie Spedel sent his charges through a brisk workout during the week in order to prepare for the tough assignment in handling the western matmen. Taking a brief practice drill and exercise just before they left town yesterday, Spedel will put the Nittany Lions through their final paces this afternoon in the Michigan gym.

The lineup for State against the Wolverines will probably be the same as in the Princeton meet with Carl King in the 118-pound weight; Frank Craighead at 128 pounds; Bob Reynolds, 135 pounds; Al Zazzi, 145 pounds; Steve Priolo, 155 pounds; Don Echnian, 165 pounds; Capt. Ross Shaffer, 175 pounds; and Ernie Bortz in the unlimited class.

Face Veteran Squad

Again the Lions face a veteran team. The Michigan squad with the exception of one, is the same as last year's runner-up team. Their only loss was Capt. Frank Russell, who copped the Big Ten 155-pound conference title.

To date, Michigan has had two meets in which they broke even. In their first meet, the Wolverines met up with a strong Indiana squad who eked out a 19-14 victory. Last week, Michigan evened the count by defeating Michigan State.

John Speicher, co-captain of the squad, will square off with King in the lightweight division and Paul Cameron will face Craighead in the 126-pound class. Co-capt. Earl Thomas and Bob Reynolds will wrestle it out in the 135-pound. Speicher, Cameron and Thomas are all seniors and double letterwinners in wrestling.

Zazzi will meet Harold Nichols in the 145-pound weight while Danner, replacing the graduated Bissell, will face Priolo. Frank Morgan and "Big-shouldered" Don will settle the 165-pound dispute with Don Nichols scrapping with Shaffer and Ernie Bortz with Uthane Hird. Bortz, after his tussle with Toll last week, should find a much easier task tomorrow against the Wolverine's six-foot heavyweight.

Only two names, that of the two heavyweight classes, Nichols and Hird, are not lettermen. Not securing his letter, Nichols went into the state A. A. U. tourney last year and came out with the 175-pound crown.

Frosh Courtmen Play First Game Tomorrow

Emerging from a practice period of approximately five weeks, Penn State's freshman quintet will inaugurate its season against Dickinson Seminary in Rec hall tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

From half-court sessions and zone defense drills, Coach Nick Thiel has selected a starting combination that will consist of Ed Sapp and Johnny Moffatt at the forward positions, John Barry and Kermit Christian at the guards, and Joel Herr at center.

Bolstered by reserves that include Ray Edgar, Bob Crowell, Tom Vargo, Jim Richardson, Don Leyden, Van Hartman, and Norm Racusin, the frosh courtmen seem individually strong. According to Coach Thiel, the uncertainty lies in their performance as a team.

Varsity Fencing Team Meets Penn Tomorrow

Nine swordsmen will compose the varsity fencing squad which opens its intercollegiate competition against Pennsylvania in Philadelphia tomorrow. Capt. Spence Potter is the only senior included in the group of five juniors and three sophomores.

Coached by the nationally known fencing master, Leonardo Terrone, the Penn outfit is one of the most skillful in the East, boasting a finalist in a recent New York invitation contest. The Krutter clan lost its co-captains by graduation, but the three sophomores were of varsity caliber last year.

Dean Foltz and Scotty Rankin, juniors, and Vic Shaukles and Sam Rubin, sophomores, are the competing foilsmen. The epee team consists of four third year men, John Lipecky, Roger Kirk, Earl Strunk, and Foltz, with Potter, Lipecky, and sophomore Paul Fiehiger dueling in the sabre class.

HE SELLS TOBACCO TO THEM ALL

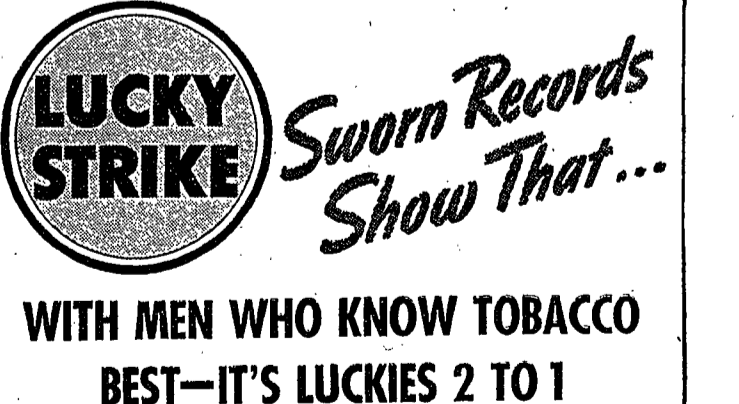

But Branch Bobbitt, like so many other independent experts, prefers Luckies . . .

"AT AUCTIONS in my warehouse in Farmville, North Carolina," says Mr. Branch Bobbitt, "the higher the tobacco sells for, the better my profits. So I'm always glad to see Lucky Strike buyers in there bidding. They know what they want and they'll keep bidding right up until they get it."

"Well—in a cigarette—it's the tobacco that counts. I know tobacco and I know what tobacco is in what cigarettes. So that's one reason I've smoked Luckies for 5 or 6 years."

Mr. Bobbitt represents the "aristocracy" of tobacco experts. He judges the tobacco that the growers grow. He's impartial, not connected with any cigarette manufacturer.

Many other experts agree with Mr. Bobbitt. Sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.
