Gymsters In Match

Victoricus in the initial meet of the season, Coach Bischoff's varsity gymsters will clash with an unpre-dictable Western Reserve team in Rec hall tomorrow at 1 o'clock, Stan Haigh, out with a sprained ankle, is the only member of last week's vic-torious squad who will be unable to don't believe that the houses make their sophomores go out for man-agers of the various sports. Furthernore, I can't see that part about payng the managers money."

William G. Thomas '38, forme nanager of soccer:

"Financial compensation for man-agers is obviously impractical be-cause of the great difference in the mount of work connected with the different sports. However, the re-moval of managers from the 'comp' list for dances was an outright sign of ingratitude for the work they do." Paul V. Jones '38, co-manager o

"I can't agree with the major par of the letter."

Robert S. Mechling '38, manager o

"I do agree somewhat with the writer of the letter. It is a known fact that the managers have had to dish money out of their own pocket for telegrams and tips. For those who don't "make out" but stay out, I write the managers he given them agree with the author on the whole Compensation is not enough to war rant anyone going out for a sport. Minor sports, especially, do not war-rant anyone trying out as the time put on them is not worth it. Nothing is done to encourage men to try out for managerships. It is pitiful to watch beys come out who won't make out, and the boys who do don't get anything. However, I don't believe in monetary compensation.'

Merlin W. Troy '38, ex-manager ross-country:

"Statements were without a doubt true. A manager works hard for what he gets, and the main result of my managerial work may be counted
