

Collegian.

FRESCO Base For Murals Urged. Page 4.

Volume 34-No. 35

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4. 1938

Z658 PRICE FIVE CENTS

POLICE NAIL STUDENT CHARGED

Rec Hall Site NYAChecksAvailable Of Launching Building Work

Weather Uncertainty Causes Change In Program Scene

Earle, Guffey Listed To Attend Ceremony

The ground-breaking ceremonies that will launch the fivemillion dollar building program here February 26, will be held in Recreation hall instead of outdoors as originally planned, committee in charge and approved at a recent meeting of the College Board of Trustees in Harrisburg.

year, and rather than to take a chance on having snow or extreme cold hamper the ceremony, it was moved indoors. A definite program has not yet been decided upon, but it is expected that this will be amounced within a week.

Guffey to Attend

Hesides the fact that Gov. George H. Earle will attend the ceremonies, as was previously announced, it was learned that U.S. Senator Joseph F. Guffey also will be here for the event.

Others who are expected to attend are Auditor General Warren R. Rob-erts, Secretary of Internal Affairs erts, Secretary of Internal Affairs
Thomas A. Logue, Public Assistance
Secretary Arthur W. Howe, State
Treasurer F. Clair Ross, President of the State Senate Harvey Huffman,
Speaker of the State House of Representatives Roy E. Furman, Appropriations Chairman Herbert B. Cohen,
Secretary of Properties and Supplies
Arthur Colegrove, Executive Director
Col. Augustine S. Janeway, and Austin E. MecGlough, all members of tin E. McCollough, all members of the board of the General State Au-thority.

Debaters Meet Four Opponents

Seton Hill, Geneva, Allegheny St. Francis Teams Listed For Next Week's Tour

Featuring its annual Western Penn-sylvania circuit trip, Penn State's varsity debate team will engage in four meets next week.

Upholding the negative side of the topic "Resolved that the NLRB should be empowered to enforce arbitration of all industrial disputes," D. Kahle Mong '39 and Dennis Weaver '39 will meet the Selon Hill College team at Greensburg on Wednesdanight.

night.

They will oppose Geneva College a Beaver Falls Thursday afternoon an Allegheny College at Meadville Fri

ing, will accompany the team. David Colon '40 and Thomas Con-way '40 will meet the St. Francis de-bate team Tuesday night at Loretta, Pa., also upholding the negative side of the same topic.

Student Union Slates Valentine Ball Feb. 12

The annual Valentine dance, sponsored by the Student Union, will be held in the Armory Saturday night, February 12. Booth Watmough will

No stags will be permitted to the dance, which will be held as a semi-formal affair. Co-chairmen Carolyn Tyson 38 and John Kennon 38 and Tyson 38 and John Kennon 38 and John Kennon beautiful to the dance of the semi-formation of the semi-form dance, which will be held as a semiformal affair, Co-chairmen Carolyn Tyson '38 and John Kennon '38 announced yesterday.

Other members of the committee are Jay H. Daniels, Russell G. Gohn,
Daniel R. Grandy, Amy F. McClelland, John Mceller, Julian Parton, Joseph P. Proksa, Jack P. Sartz, and Charles M. Wheeler, Jr., all seniors.

Until Tuesday

Students must call personally for their N.Y.A. checks at the Bursar's office before 4:30 o'clock Tuesday

In accordance with the recent ruling of the National Youth Adninistration, the College must re turn within 10 days all checks not called for personally.

PSCA Arranges Fireside Confabs

Living Centers Pledge Support; Marriage and Sex Problem Topics Are Asked

With many fraternities and dormi ories as yet unheard from, 41 living it was decided by the College centers have already signified their intentions to the Christian association fireside committee to conduct a program of fireside sessions from February 14 to March 12.

Harrisburg.

The change was made mainly because of the uncertainty in each of the living centers indicated that they would run their own weather conditions at this time of veer, and rather than to take a while the remaining 31 decided to accept a program organized by the C.A. fireside committee

Marriage Question Tops

"What Are the Problems Involved in Marriage?" is the topic desired for discussion by most groups. Other prominent topics are "How to Solve Sex Problems," "What Can We Do to Achieve World Peace?", and "What Are the Best Methods of Improving Fraternities?"

Approximately 55 faculty men and several townspeople have volun-eered to lead fireside sessions in the annual program conducted under the auspices of the Christian association.

To Speak In 5 States

lion and psychology, has been appointed by Dr. John Studebaker, commissioner of education, Department of Interior, to make a five-state tour under the sponsorship of the Federal Forum project for the purpose of adult education.

Dr. Champlain, who is on leave of absence for the semester, will visit Virginia, South Carolina, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. Topics of Dr. Champlain's rectures will be based upon problems of education, propaganda, and international problems.

. Wyand To Speak

Newly-Formed Hockey Team Seeks Meets, Players, Coach

Icers Contact Altoona Group For Prospective First Match Over Week-End-All Must Be Played Away

A definite step toward realization of a College-sanctioned ice hockey cam was taken Tuesday night with the completion of initial arrangements or formation of an "independent" team by eight members of the Sigma Pi

The group will attempt to persuade Ray M. Conger, School of Physical The group win account to the high school flash, and Carl W. De-

Meanwhile, negotiations were under way for a game with the Altoona W. P. A. team to be played in Altoona Sunday afternoon. Until College recognition is extended, the team will be forced to play all games away from home, inasmuch as no local facilities are available.

cilities are available.

'Spearhead of the new team is expected to be John J. Waters '38, veteran third baseman on the baseball team, who has starred at right wing in Newton, Mass., hockey circles. Because of his experience, however, Waters may be shifted to the defense on the State team.

Expected to form the nucleus of the team are Waters, William F. Me-Callister '40, former Upper Darby Gamma Delta fraternity house.

high school flash, and Carl W. De-Long '41, a gealle.'

(An ice hockey team consists of six players, usually divided into the forward and defenise groups. Be-cause of the strain placed upon the individual, it is almost necessary for a team to have three forward lines for frequent substitution. One defense line may suffice.)

Present at the organization meet-

Present at the organization meet

A.A. Book Available With Fee Payment; 1,000 Defer

Subject To Fine

Champlin Is Appointed from 300 to 400 below last semester's

In accordance with the usual policy nitial payments on deferred fees wil be due during the regular period next Thursday and Friday.

· At Chapel Services

The Rev. W. Taliaferro Thompson, professor of religious education at Union Theological Seminary, Rich-mond, Va., will deliver the chanci ad-

Prof. C. S. Wyand, economics, will speak on "What's Wrong With the Liberals?" in Room 419, 'Old Main, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon under the sponsorship of the American Student Union.

The Rev. Mr. Thompson was religious work director at Gamp Greene and Gamp Jackson during the World War and spent five months in Kora the World's Sunday dent Union.

Prof. C. S. Wyand, economics, will speak or "The Rev. Mr. Thompson was religious work director at Gamp Greene and Camp Jackson during the World War and spent five months in Kora the World's Sunday dent Union.

lress Sunday morning. He will speak on "Living by Convictions."

Cadets Will Hold Annual Ball Tonight—Minus Martial Music

An etirely different side of R. O. T. C., without the "squads right" and An etirely different side of R. U. T. C., without the squares right and "right front into line," without the martial music of Major Thompson, will be revealed, in the armory tonight when the Corps of Cadets presents its stonal pre-legal society, has initiated its members into the fraternity at its control Military Ball.

Amid decorations of blue and gold, 250 couples, officers, and their guests will dance to the music of Charles Stenross and his Lotus Garden (Cleve-and) orchestra. But There'll Be a Drummer

The decorations, lacking the usua military air produced by machin guns and sandbags, will consist of blue and white canopy as a back-ground for the dress uniforms of the officers and the formal clothes of their ruests. The pand will occupy a posi-tion near the stage.

Stenross, after playing at the Hotel Statler in Cleveland, opened the Lotus Gardens, which has featured such bands as Emerson Glil, Jan Garber,

CHARLES STENROSS

Applications In Late Students Must Show

Approximately 1,000 students filed applications for deferment of second-semester fees, the Bursar's office amounted yesterday.

The actual total is expected to be

Students will be required to present their receipted bills at any one of the four windows which will be utilized to facilitate the work.

Fines Will Be Imposed

Meanwhile, fees will be collected continuously from 9 o'clock Thursday morning to 9 o'clock Thursday night

Ten alphabetized windows, arrange Ten alphabetized windows, arrange in the following order, will be used:

No. 1—Abbey to Brou

No. 2—Broo to Did

No. 3—Die to Gibb

No. 4—Gibs to Holl

No. 5—Holm to Lui

No. 6—Luk to Mie

No. 7—Milh to Pos

No. 8—Pot to Shay

No. 8-Pot to Shav No. 9-Shaw to Tra

Holds Initiation

New Members At Banquet; Szymczak Named Head

banquet held in the Nittany Lion In The group also named Francis H. Szymczak 38 as president, succeeding Robert V. Donato, who was graduated

H. Moore Jr., Rembrandt B. Rickard, seniors; Albert L. Vicchiarelli, midivery graduate; and Ruthven A. Aubert, Donald S. Hillier, Charles F. Leedecker Jr., D. Kable Mong, Franklyn W. Ruth Jr., Lewis W. Shollenberger, and Edwin K. Taylor, all juniors.

The pre-legal society will undertake to train pre-legal and political science imajor students interested in participating in the annual intercollegiate government conference to be held in Harrisburg the latter part of this month. Nestor V. Walberg '38, secretary, will announce the date of the first meeting.

Wan soon be brought out, is in one plopped into the laps of local political world in one very fine muddle.

Impartial Viewpoint

The Collegian, as it is a student publish political news of point on as it sees fit, will remain in partial, and publish political news from a nonpartisan point of view. So, with elections drawing near. So, with elections drawing near will be at two-ling to Collegian as it is a student point of view. So, with elections drawing near collated—that the Lane boys will swing in with Campus; that they will come out as Independents; and the Lane boys will swing in with Campus; that they will render a line of power. So, with elections drawing near the date will probably be set for just before Interfraternity ball, which is in one plopped into the laps of local political and moguls by the apparent disinterest shown by the sort-of-defunct Locust Lane clique.

All kinds of rumors have been circulated—that the Lane boys will swing in with Campus; that they will come out as Independents; and the Lane boys will wone allow the sort-of-defunct Locust Lane in the point of view. So, with elections drawing near the college. All kinds of rumors have been circulated—that the Lane boys will swing in with Campus; that they will render the Lane boys will wone the date will probably be set for just least likely rumor is that they will render the Lane of the shown by the sort-of-defunct Locust Lane inculated—that the Lane boys will wone of the probably be set

Group To Give Supper

The Wealey Foundation will hold Well, now that that is off my chest, a fellowship supper in the Methodist here is the muddle I mentioned: A church-at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, very big question mark has been

Clausen To Give

'Pennies From Heaven' At

Featuring Dr. Bernard C. Clausen. First Baptist church, Pittsburgh, the Christian association will present a series of three talks on topics of cur series of three talks on topics of current interest in Schwab auditorium early noxt week.

Students Must Show

Receiptes Bills

Receiptes Bills

Reseries of three talks on topics of current interest in Schwab auditorium early noxt week.

Dr. Clausen, who delivered a chapel address on "The Claw of the Lobster" a few months ago, will open the series at 8 o'clock Monday night, when he will speak on "Penules from Heaven."

Mysical Taylor Cheese.

Will speak on "Penules from Heaven."

Musical Topics Chosen
In line with his musical theme, Dr.
Clausen will speak on "Did I Remember?" Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, closing the series with a talk entitled
"Bel Mir Bist Du Schoen" immediately following the Temple-Penu State basketball game Tuesday night.

A noted lecturer, Dr. Clausen holds degrees from Colgate University, Unton Theological Seminary, and Syracuse University. He served as chaplain in the U. S. Navy from 1917 to 1923.

Bell Contest Winners

The Bell.

Professors Robert E. Galbratth, Ed. In . Rauffman accompanied Myers ward J. Nichols, John S. Bowman and William L. Werner, who have been articles he said he had stored there, appointed judges for the contest by They found a Rodak, more clothing The Bell, will select the best two and books, and a typewriter.

Series Of Talks

Pittsburgh Pastor To Discuss

To Compete For Cash

The Bell, will select the best two stories submitted by students here. These stories will be sent to the Story magazine to compete for a first prize of $100 and a second prize of $50.

March 10 has been set as a deadline for The Bell contest. Stories may be not more than 7.000 and not less than 1.500 words In length.

Political Situation Muddled:

What About Locust Lane?

Penn State politics, politicians, and the fellows who provide the votes.

It must first be understood just how the Collegian, and this column in particular, stands on the current political situation, which, for reasons that called "inside stuff."

I, personally, have no political affiliations. Nor do I intend affiliating myself with any clique. So, as an initial warning—I will not be bought, hamstrung, or bull-dozed.

Well, now that that is off my chest, the myddle I mentioned: A

POLITICS:

3 Talks In 2 Days

DR. BERNARD C. CLAUSEN

from fraternity houses and private homes, the Burgess said. Houses that Leitzeil said Myers admitted stealing from were the Acacia, Alpha Gamma Rho, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Theta

Varied Loot

Find College Typewriter

Leitzell said Myers admitted stealing over 100 articles, including shotguns, ammunition, blankets, books, watches, typewriters, radios, shoes, high-top boots, pencils, and pens. A typewriter was identified as one missing from the College for over a year. Leitzell said.

Policeman John R. Juba, who appre

ended Myers, and Police Chief Mar

Found in Myers' dresser drawer here was $92, the Burgess said. Myers had a bank balance of over $300 and sent his father $100 for a birthday present, Burgess Leitzell said. He held a job with the College farms

(Continued on page four)

ance of power.

It appears as though Locust Lane's sophomore clique intends waiting until Independent and Campus candidates are announced, and then lining

(Continued on page four)

8 Monday Night Sigma, and Theta Upsilon Omega fraternities. He fired furnaces for sev eral of them during Christmas tion. Myers was first under suspiction several weeks ago. Leitzell said, when he was reported stealing a quart of milk from the front porch of a local milk from the front porch of a local physician. Suspicious of a typewriter that Myers had in his room, Leitzell said, police investigated while he was at his Birdsboro home between semesters and found that the serial number corresponded with that of one reported stolen. Filing a search warrant, police further examined his room, Leitzell said.

room. Leitzell said.

Myers, who was one of the leading students in his curriculum, was apprehended when he returned from his home for the second semester. Confronted with the various articles found in his room, Myers admitted bit by bit a long story of chronic stealing since he first arrived in college, the Burgess said.

A short story contest, the two win ning stories of which will be sent to the Story magazine for competition in a cash contest, is being sponsored by The Bell.

fonte under $2,500 bail, pending a hearing before Centre County Judge Ivan Walker Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Two days of questioning by Burg Wilbur F. Leitzell brought out admits Group Asks Show

The hearing was before Justice of the Peace Fremon! Hile at Pleasant Gap, who committed Myers to the county jail at Bellearceny charges at a hearing Wednesday afternoon.

Of Foreign Films Movement Aims To Bring Many

Outstanding Productions To Theaters

A movement to bring to the local movic houses well-known and particu-larly noteworthy foreign and nonterau

The idea behind the movement, which has taken the title of "Friends of Foreign Films," is to enlist all those students, faculty, and townspeople who are really interested in seeing such outstanding works as "Mayerling," "Spanish Earth," and other films of a similar nature

Previous Move Failed Previous Move rained

Previous experience with this type of movie has not proved worth the while of the theater management to bring these films here, it was said.
However, it is the belief of the organizers of the Friends that there is a real interest among enough students family and townspends to lents, faculty, and townspeople to dents, though, and townspeople to warrant bringing internationally-known movies here.

Followers of the movement may sign up at Keeler's book store, or the Student Union.

Trustees Elect Board Officers

Hetzel, Shields, Hostetter Keer Offices; McCormick, White Get New Positions

Col. J. Franklin Shields, Philadel-phia, was reelected president of the College Board of Trustees at a re-cent meeting held in Harrisburg, it was announced yesterday by Presi-dent Ralph D. Hetzel, who is secre-tary of the board.

tary of the board. President Hetzel was reelected soc-retary, and S. K. Hostetter, assistant to the president in charge of business and finance, was also reelected to his By HERBERT B. CAHAN

This column, which in subsequent issues will probably find itself ensconced on an inside page of this journal, is being written in the interests of president, replacing J. G. White, New Penn State nollities nollitidians, and the follows who provide the votes.

York, who was made honorary vice president, a life-time position Committeeman Resigns The board's executive committee was reelected with one exception. F. A. Hein replaces Henry D. Brown, who resigned. Both men are from maining members of the executive committee:

Col. Shields and J. H. M. Andrews Philadelphia: E. S. Bayard, Pitts-burgh; John C. Cospiove, Johnstown; Mr. McCornick. Harrisburg: and Chester J. Tyson, Gardners.

New Nurse Appointed

Miss Alta Hummell, niece of Prof.
Mason Long, English literature, has replaced Miss Ruth Weidner as Colilege nurse. M'ss Hummell completed a three-year course at the Presbyterian hospital. Philadelphia last May. While here, she will continue her dietetics work in the home econo-