

SUCCESSOR To The Free Lance, established 1887.

Henn State

Collegian.

BLUE KEY: Pro And Con, Page 2

Volume 34—No. 39

STATE COLLEGE, PA., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1938

2653 PRICE FIVE CENTS

Enesco Plays In 3rd Artist Series Number

Noted Violinist Appears Here At 8 O'clock Monday Night

Has Won Fame Also As Composer, Conductor

Georges Enesco, noted violinist, composer, and conductor, will appear as the third feature of the current Artist Course series in Schwab auditorium Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Acknowledged as one of the world's finest violinists, Enesco is acclaimed as probably the greatest living interpreter of Mozart.

Born in Rumania, his talent for music was discovered when as a small boy he played gypsy folk-tunes on a tiny three-stringed instrument. Since the age of 17, he has been touring the world, winning admiration for his technical abilities and penetrative interpretations.

Gains Worldwide Reputation

Enesco's greatness stems from his absorption in his playing, his penetration of the composer's intent, his beauty of tone, his combination of the emotional and intellectual, neither overshadowing the other, and his implicit sincerity.

Last Thursday evening Enesco, according to the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph, received the most heartfelt ovation of the season from the audience that attended his appearance as guest conductor with the Pittsburgh Symphony orchestra. He has gained a reputation as conductor in all the leading capitals of the world, especially with the London and Paris symphony orchestras.

This is the second appearance of Enesco on the campus. He appeared on last year's Artists Course program with Charles Naegele, popular pianist.

The Program

- Sonata, D major... Nardini
Adagio; Allegro con fuoco, Larghetto; Allegretto grazioso.
Poeme... Chausson
Romance, F major... Beethoven
La Folia... Corelli
Andante... Faure
Minstrels... Debussy
La Fontaine d'Arles... Szymanowski
Tzigane... Ravel

1st Hockey Tilt In Lion History Slated Tuesday

The first ice-hockey game in the history of the College will be played when Penn State's newly-organized team will meet the University of Pittsburgh in the opener of twin-bills at the Duquesne Gardens rink, Pittsburgh, at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

There are strong possibilities that State may enter the Pittsburgh-Ohio Ice Hockey league, now consisting of four teams from the Cleveland and two from the Pittsburgh district, including the Panthers.

In the event the league should invite the Lions to join, the team here would be required to petition the College for official recognition.

14 Players to Make Trip

Coached by Al Hook, 14 players will form the State contingent, with John J. Waters '38, William F. McCallister '40, and Carl W. DeLong '41 forming the nucleus of the team.

Others definitely slated to make the trip are Robert S. Van Benschoten '41; George I. Merwin '40, Joseph R. Elliott '39, Robert B. Ingram '39, Roger E. Clapp '39, and Hudson T. Winner '41.

Bell Elects Members

The following students have been elected to the associate editorial board of The Bell: R. Jane Berthoff '41, D. Jane Boller '41, Jean C. Craighead '41, Joyce L. Ferris '41, Rheta B. Glueck '39, A. Boyd Harrier '40, James F. Holly '39, Barbara A. Joseph '41, Herbert Nipson '40, R. William Reiser '39, Edythe Riekel '41, and Martin H. Varbalow '40.

Encore

GEORGES ENESCO Composer, violinist, and conductor, who appears for the second year on the Artists Course program in the Schwab auditorium Monday night at 8 o'clock.

47 Living Groups To Hold Sessions

Fireside Program Will Continue Under Auspices of P. S. C. A. Until March 12

With 47 social groups participating, the annual P. S. C. A. fireside session program will begin tonight and continue until March 12. Thirty-nine speakers already have signified their willingness to lead the discussions in college living centers.

Subjects for discussion will range from marriage, character, and personality to politics, foreign events, and world peace.

Speakers Listed The following faculty members and townspeople will speak: Dr. Marion R. Probst, dean of the School of Education; Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women; Col. Rissell V. Venable, head of the department of military science and tactics; Dr. Joseph P. Ritenour, head of the College Health Service; Adrian O. Morse, executive assistant to the president; Dr. Carl E. Marquardt, college examiner; William P. Lewis, college librarian.

Professors Adam L. Beam, Samuel I. Bechdel, C. Arthur Bonine, Robert E. Dingley, Franklin B. Krauss, Richard E. Galbraith, Herbert Koepf-Baker, Frank S. Neuschbaum, Julius E. Kaufmann, Mary Jane Wyland, Mabel E. Kirk, Aaron Druckman, Francis J. Tachian, Dean E. McHenry, Alfred G. Pundt, Jabir Shibli, Charles A. Yupp, Marsh W. White, Edwin H. Rohrbach, William S. Jefferies, and William C. Bramble, of the College faculty. Harry W. Seamans, J. F. Putney, and Miss Ruth B. Mabee, Penn State Christian Association; Theodore Gordon, Hillel Foundation; Mrs. A. K. Anderson, Mrs. D. W. Carruthers, Mrs. William S. Dye, Mrs. Frank W. Haller, Mrs. Milton S. McDowell, Mrs. Russell B. Nesbitt, and Mrs. Henry L. Yeagley.

Receives Telescope

A four-inch refracting telescope has been presented to the College by Richard Kridler, Atlantic City. The telescope may be viewed in 106 Pond Laboratory by those interested. Dr. Henry L. Yeagley, assistant professor of physics, announced.

Murals Are Making Mexico World Art Center—Dr. Hill

"In 20 years Mexico will be the art center of the world." That is the prediction of Dr. Benjamin Hill, upon his return from six months observation in Mexico where he was accompanied by Mrs. Hill.

"The government has taken over all the old church buildings and has turned them into railroad stations, libraries, schools, and theatres, and led by the work of the great Mexican muralists, Jose C. Orozco and Diego Rivera, Mexico is covering the walls with beautiful murals.

Contrasts Orozco, Rivera "We had the pleasure of having Orozco as our opera guest," Dr. Hill said. "He is very quiet and unassuming and quite likeable. We didn't meet Rivera, but we learned much about him through Elizabeth Whitman, an American pupil of these two great Mexican artists. Rivera is just the opposite, likes publicity, people, and quite often converses with his audience when painting."

Dr. Hill explained that he felt that the differences between their work could be found in that Orozco uses more brilliant color, uses it well, and his personalities are individuals. Rivera's faces are all the same, purplish, he stated. "The finest painting in Mexico, he felt, was the mural, 'History of Mexico,' by Orozco in Guadalajara, where he is now working on what will be the largest mural in the world and which will take him two years to complete. "I am glad to hear that murals have been proposed for Old Main," Dr. Hill stated. "Old Main is very well fitted for them, and I'd like nothing better than to see Miss Whitman do the work. She is very familiar with fresco technique, and she signified to us her desire to paint a mural in America. I know she would do a good job, and do it reasonably. I feel she is destined to be a great artist and in a few years' her work will be out of our reach."

Earle, Hetzel Principals At Ground-Breaking Ceremony

Nine Radio Stations To Broadcast Activities: Symbolic Spading To Climax Program

Governor George H. Earle and President Ralph D. Hetzel will be the principal speakers at the indoor ground-breaking ceremonies which will inaugurate the College's $5,000,000 building program a week from tomorrow. The speeches will be broadcast over a nine-station statewide radio hookup. Ground from all building sites will be turned at the same time at the climax of the ceremonies. It is planned to have earth collected from the sites of each of the 10 buildings to be erected and placed on a stage in Recreation hall.

Into this mound Governor Earle will sink the first spade as the representative of the state and the General State Authority. Next President Hetzel will lift a spade of earth to signalize the beginning of a new era in the development of the College. Project Already Underway

Although the ground-breaking ceremonies will not take place for more than a week, less than half a mile away huge steam shovels are lifting tons of earth out of the front campus and Holmes field. Contractors have already started on the first section of the Authority's work with tunnels being dug for pipe lines so that they will be in readiness when the new buildings are constructed.

It is expected, although not official as yet, that the Governor will attend the varsity and freshman boxing meets with the University of Pittsburgh, which will immediately follow the ground-breaking exercises. A varsity basketball game with Syracuse will round out the athletic program of the day.

Radio Stations Listed Stations, which will carry the speeches and a description of the program procedure, are KDKA, Pittsburgh; WBRE, Wilkes-Barre; WCAU, Philadelphia; WEEU, Reading; WFPG, Altoona; WGAL, Lancaster; WGBI, Scranton; WHP, Harrisburg; and WLEW, Erie. The broadcast will be on the air from 1:45 to 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Symphony Series To Open Sunday

Mid Winter Concerts Sponsored By Department of Music; Fishburn In Charge

The annual series of six mid-winter concerts sponsored by the department of music will open in Schwab auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with a performance by the College symphony orchestra. The orchestra, composed of 70 pieces and comprised of both undergraduate and graduate students, will present the first and last number of the series.

Program Arranged Prof. Hummel Fishburn, director of the orchestra for the past nine years, has chosen the following program for the opening concert:

- "Prelude to Act III from Lohengrin," by Wagner; "Three Dances from Henry VIII," "Morris Dance," "Shepherd's Dance," and "Torch Dance," by German; "Valse Triste," by Silvestri; "Prelude," by Jaenfelt; "Song of the Volga Boatman," by Stoesell; "Waltz from Eugen Onegin," and "Marche Slave," by Tschaiikovsky.

Jones '40 Named Campus Nominee

Clique Unanimous In Choice For Junior Class President; Rumors Discredited

By HERBERT J. CAHAN Walter A. Jones, Jr. '40 has been named as the Campus clique nominee for junior class president. This decision, which is the first nomination to be made by any class in the present political campaign, was reached at a meeting of the Sophomore Campus clique Wednesday night.

The announcement, that the choice was unanimous, dispelled all rumors that much dissension existed within the party ranks, especially with regard to the choice for this important office. Whether this unanimity will prevail will be shown within the next few weeks.

Campus clique in all three classes has stolen the political show for the past few days. Important Locust Lane and Independent meetings are slated for the weekend, and definite Locust Lane plans probably will be announced shortly.

The Junior class Campus group held a reorganization meeting Tuesday night, at which Senior Class President Jack Kennin advised the boys, and stressed the importance of the ensuing election in the Junior class for the man to succeed him.

Although the turnout was not large, Stan Brown, clique chairman, appointed me to contact all the fraternities in an effort to bring all 52 houses under the Campus banner and make the fight for the most prized office a fraternity versus non-fraternity affair. This, of course, will depend in part on what action was taken at last night's Locust Lane meeting (held after the Collegian went to press).

In the Freshman class, Campus held a meeting Tuesday night, at which time Ed Wagner was elected clique chairman, Bernie Bronk was named vice-chairman and as such serves as chairman of all committees. The following groups were named: Platform committee—Henry Carson, Bill Fowler, and Sam Gray; nomination committee—Roger Findlay, Larry Driever, and Dan Thomas; delegation committee (to contact Locust Lane)—John Fritz, Erik Moeller, and Bill Frank.

From all indications, it looks as though the '41 Campus clique will nominate I. F. C. Chairman John Moeller's brother, Erik, for Soph class president.

Block And Bridle Club Will Hold Annual Show

With the object of giving students of any curricula an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the purebred stock on the College farms, the local chapter of the Block and Bridle club will hold its annual "Little International Livestock Show" Saturday, April 30.

Students competing may fit and show animals of the type they wish, with horses, sheep, swine, and beef cattle available for exhibition. Prizes will be given by leading breeders and manufacturers of the state.

Drawings for animals to be shown will take place in Room 205, Agriculture building, Tuesday, night at 7:30 o'clock. A series of lectures for the entrants on fitting and showing has been planned and will be given by experts in each field.

Physics Group Begins Variable Star Study

A comprehensible research program in the study of variable stars is now being offered, Dr. Henry L. Yeagley, assistant professor of physics, announced yesterday. The work will be carried on by members of the department, who will use the three-inch Ross-Recker astrographic camera, presented by the class of '36 and now mounted in the College observatory atop the Botany building.

Council Plans New Election Date, April 5

Voting Will Continue For 2 Days Under Revised Code

Campaign Will Start 7 o'clock, March 30

The entire class-election period was moved up one day Wednesday night when Student Council scheduled elections of class officers to be held from 12:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, April 5, to 12:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, April 7. Previously elections had been set for April 6 to 8.

No other dates were changed, with the campaign slated to begin officially at 7 o'clock Wednesday night, March 30. Russell G. Gohn is chairman of the committee on elections.

Copies of the approved election code are now available at the Student Union office. Clique chairmen and other interested parties may obtain them upon request.

School Elections Unchanged The nomination and election of the personnel of the various school councils is unchanged and will not be run off until after the general balloting. The newly-elected senior councilman in each school will organize the sub-council, Gohn said.

Continuance of these elections in this way will eliminate politics, stimulate the school councils, and provide a more representative system, the Council decided.

Davis To Deliver Talk On Conflict

A. S. U. Sponsors Social Address On Parent Youth Problem; Zern '40 In Charge

Sponsored by the local chapter of the American Student Union, a lecture by Dr. Kingsley Davis, head of the department of sociology, will be delivered Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Room 405, Old Main.

Dr. Davis's topic, one of a series of social conflict addresses, will be "The Conflicting Ideas of Youth and Parents." Chairman of the meeting will be Gordon K. Zern '40, Student Union head.

Studies "Hermit Child" The speaker, who recently gained added prominence upon announcing that he intended to study 5-year-old Alice Harris, the "hermit child" of Perryopolis, who was confined to an attic for five years, joined the sociology department last semester, replacing Prof. Willard Walker.

The lecture will be delivered in cooperation with the American Youth Congress, which will conduct a "pilgrimage for jobs and education" to Washington, D. C., March 10 to 12.

Dorsey's Rise In Popularity Aided By Style And Vocalists

July, 1937: Tommy Dorsey—SEVENTH. January, 1938: Tommy Dorsey—SECOND. This is the seventh-month lightning-like leap of Dorsey's rise to fame shown by a New York City band poll. Furthermore, Dorsey is now clutching the first rung held by the current favorite, Benny Goodman.

Musicians in general agree that the Dorsey outfit is the prize band to be scooped from the crest of the swing wave that has swept over the nation's popular music field in the last two years.

Evades Commercial Goo Solid and full, the genial Dorsey band has managed to evade the commercial goo of Morgan, Lombardo and others and yet remain primarily an orchestra for dancing.

What Goodman lacks in "corn" or sugar, and Lombardo in swing, Dorsey manages to combine in a single number both of these elements that seem to be required. Backing the recognized swing ability of rhythm, style Dorsey and vocalists Edythe Wright and Jack Leonard are given the responsibility for the best-selling record of 1937, "Marie."

Judge Walker Commits Myers To Huntingdon Reformatory At Trial

Honor Student Pleads Guilty; Judge Bases His Decision On Psychiatrists' Reports; Transfer Held Possible

Glyde V. Myers '39, 2.8 student in poultry husbandry, was committed to the State Industrial School at Huntingdon by Judge Ivan Walker in the Centre County courts at Bellefonte yesterday. Judge Walker based his decision, he said, upon the reports of two psychiatrists, who had studied Myers since he was first apprehended here on February 1 for larceny.

Myers pleaded guilty to one of seven charges of larceny. Information was brought against him by Policeman John R. Juba, Burgess Wilbur F. Leitzell, and Marvin O. Lewis '38 president of the Aetna fraternity. Judge Walker suspended sentence on the other six charges, asking that the courts in the future be cleared of unnecessary and redundant charges.

The courtroom, partially filled with student leaders, psychology students, and Myers' father and sister, was silent as sentence was passed. Myers' sister, a teacher in the Birdsboro public schools, sobbed silently as the Judge explained that the report of a state psychiatrist and that of Prof. Robert G. Bernreuter of the department of education and psychology, indicated to him that Myers would continue his three-year epidemic of stealing were he freed.

Myers will be held at the Huntingdon school until he becomes of age unless a recommendation from the superintendent of the school asks Judge Walker to transfer him to a hospital for mental diseases or another institution.

Burgess Leitzell testified that he knew of approximately 30 different persons from whom Myers admitted stealing goods, and told of a $200.18 bank balance held by Myers in a Birdsboro bank. He said that Myers sent his father $100.

Juba told of apprehending Myers on February 1 after goods in his room were investigated upon suspicion of his larceny.

W. Bruce Talbot, Bellefonte lawyer, asked Judge Walker to give the case his closest scrutiny because of unusual circumstances involved when a person of Myers' intelligence and background committed a series of larcenies. Stewart H. Lutz, member of the Berks county bar, testified that Myers' previous record had been excellent, and said that a former employer of Myers was willing to rehire the 19-year-old student should he be dealt with leniently.

Talbot claimed that Myers was extremely nervous and that as a youth he had been hit on the head with a heavy iron bar. He described Myers' condition as a mental one, saying that he believed the youth found relief from nervous hand study by stealing. He said he had doctors' certificates to prove his contention.

Judge Walker asked Myers if he had not heard of the case of a student last year, who was caught stealing, and if that had not made him stop and consider what he was doing. Myers said he had thought about it, but that it did not make him stop stealing. Myers promised never to steal again if given an opportunity of "making good." "I will do all in my power to pay my debt to society," he said.

Myers said that he had had $20 and a mackinaw stolen from him as a freshman and that he believed that that theft had contributed largely to his present condition.

Dorsey's Rise In Popularity Aided By Style And Vocalists

July, 1937: Tommy Dorsey—SEVENTH. January, 1938: Tommy Dorsey—SECOND. This is the seventh-month lightning-like leap of Dorsey's rise to fame shown by a New York City band poll. Furthermore, Dorsey is now clutching the first rung held by the current favorite, Benny Goodman.

Musicians in general agree that the Dorsey outfit is the prize band to be scooped from the crest of the swing wave that has swept over the nation's popular music field in the last two years.

Evades Commercial Goo Solid and full, the genial Dorsey band has managed to evade the commercial goo of Morgan, Lombardo and others and yet remain primarily an orchestra for dancing.

What Goodman lacks in "corn" or sugar, and Lombardo in swing, Dorsey manages to combine in a single number both of these elements that seem to be required. Backing the recognized swing ability of rhythm, style Dorsey and vocalists Edythe Wright and Jack Leonard are given the responsibility for the best-selling record of 1937, "Marie."

Collegian Draws 84 Candidates

52 Students Out For Editorial Staff While 30 Compete For Business Staff

Eighty-four freshmen reported at a meeting for candidates for the editorial and business staffs of the Collegian Tuesday night. Of this number, 52 will compete for positions on the edit staff and 32 for the business staff.

Editorial candidates: Rachel J. Berthoff, Mollie H. Bielech, Bayard Bloom, Lenora Bensch, Neil Brake, Jewel R. Brann, Catherine Callahan, John Casimir, Leon H. Claster, Norman R. Cohen, Mary J. Dalton, John G. Dixon, Lawrence S. Driever, Murray D. Druch, Robert L. Elmore, J. Gordon Fay, William E. Fowler, John W. Fritz.

George Gittelson, Kathryn Gochmuer, Ruth Goldstein, Ruth E. Grubb, Jeanne Hafelich, Edgar V. Hall, Robert G. Hannan, Jacob Hay, Arita L. Hefferon, Florence E. Held.

Freshman Candidates To Meet Monday At 7

Freshman editorial candidates for the Collegian staff will meet in Room 418, Old Main, at 7 o'clock Monday night, Woodrow W. Bierly '38, feature editor, announced yesterday.

Business candidates will meet at the same time in Room 312, Old Main, Jay H. Daniels '38, business manager, announced. Candidates who desire to come out for either staff but who were unable to be present last Tuesday night, also are to report at these meetings.

Frank E. Hoppel, Betty Jandorf, Vera L. Kemp, Robert H. Lane, Hannah M. M. McBride, Edward J. K. McLeer, Estelle Margulies, Martha Y. Meschko, Lucille M. Merrill, John R. Miller, Jean Morrison.

Ellen A. Nichols, Ruth Ochroch, Richard C. Peters, Ralph C. Routson, Robert L. Ruttenberg, Freda K. Sare, George Schenkein, Joseph C. Sciorilli, Sidney Self, Robert M. Signmond, Adam A. Snysner, Beth M. Swope, and Gerald M. Ward.

Business Candidates Named Business candidates: Miretta Blackman, Francis X. Casserty, Howard H. Earl, Henry J. Eaves, Thomas C. Evans, Leon R. Feldstein, Louise I. Pike, Eleanor Fineberg, Harold A. Flom, Edward L. Glick, C. Norton Grubb, Richard E. Haskell, Sidney Hausman, Alvin Heyman, John H. Hibbard, Alice M. Jamota, Martin G. Lerman, Nelson Littell, Jr., Marshall D. Miller, Stanley D. Miller.

Louise A. Paraska, William H. Rills, Robert Robinson, Miriam R. Rative, Robert E. Savin, Doris J. Schwanblum, Arnold L. Schwartz, Howard A. Silverman, Harriet Singer, Marjorie L. Springer, John H. Thomas, and Elizabeth D. Vest.

Co-Eds To Hold Fashion Show Wednesday Night

Featuring the latest in women's costumes, the Home Economics club's fashion show will be held in the second floor lounge, Old Main, Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Chairman of the show is Katherine D. Greiner '39, assisted by Ruth R. Halberlain '40, publicity; M. Carolyn Denterly '39, program; Jane I. Gruber '39 and Marjorie F. Davis '39, models; Phyllis Horzog '39, dress; Ruth H. Beach '40, wardrobe; and Mary B. McCullough '40, themes. The show will be presented to the tune of musical numbers by Dorris-Jane Thomas '39 and Margaret C. Sizer '40.