Farm Chief, Cornell Man To Judge Show

Dr. John P. Willman, professor of animal husbandry at Cornell, and Arthur Danks, head of the Allamuchy and Tranquility farms at Allamuchy, N. J., will be the judges at the Little International exhibition sponsored by the Block and Brille club to be held here April 30.

Prizes will be awarded to winners in the four classes of livestock by agricultural equipment companies. James E. Trapp, '38 is in charge of the show.

Injury Keeps Donato Out Of Tourney

By TOM BOAL

Heber Lessig, Al Tapman, and Paul Buchman, 165, 125, and 145-pound boxers, respectively, will carry the hopes of the Penn State team in the annual National Collegiate Boxing championships to be held in Charlottesville, Virginia, this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Sunny Donato, State's 1938 captain and 155-pound Eastern Intercollegiate boxing champion, will not enter the tournament due to an eye injury which he received in the intercollegiate.

Lessig has had an impressive season in his first and last year on the team, winning four fights and losing one in the 165-pound division. Al Tapman has not shown up as well as Heber but nevertheless is a dangerous man in any league.

Six to Leave Thursday

Paul Buchman, another senior who fought his first bouts this year, made consistent improvement as the season progressed and looked his best in his last two fights, one with John Mastrella of Syracuse, now 145-pound E. T. B. A. champ, and with George Manders of Wisconsin, whom he defeated.

Dr. Carl P. Scholtz, Coach Leo P. Houck, Charles M. Robbins, Jr., manager, and the three boxers will leave Thursday for the tournament site. All three boys will be dark horses in the meet with anything liable to happen. Buchman will find tough competition against the entrants from Duke and Virginia, while Lessig will probably meet up with his friend Ord Pink of Syracuse before the tourney is over.

Dr. Kern In Carolina

Dr. Frank D. Kern, professor of botany and dean of the Graduate School, and Dr. James W. Sinden, assistant professor of botany, are in Aikens, South Carolina, where they will attempt to find a rare specimen of fungi.

Varsity Team Takes 3rd In West Virginia

An unheralded freshman spring relay team, composed of Walt Hosterman, Dick Gaines, Al Grady, and Van Hartman, led the Lion varsity and yearling entries by dashing to a new meet record in the four-lap relay at West Virginia's indoor track and field games in Morgantown, W. Va., Saturday.

Nittany's first-year contenders tallied 14 points to deadlock West Virginia for second place in the freshman events, with Pitt winning by scoring 26. In the varsity competition, the Spartans of Michigan State bested the efforts of Pitt, Penn State, West Virginia, and Washington and Lee, placing in that order, to top the team scoring with 45 markers.

All Freshmen Score
State's six freshman runners all chalked up points as a result of the winning relay combination, Milt Keiser's surprise victory in the 880, and a third place won by Ab Weinberg in the 70-yard low hurdles. Hosterman also took second place in the 70-yard dash.

Chick Werner's varsity entries were unable to record one first place, but registered points in all but two of the events in which they were competing. The Nittanymen trailed Pitt in third place with only 13 1/2 tallies.

Pete Olesky abandoned his plans of not making the trip at the last minute and upheld the Lions' distance running reputation by racing to second place behind Michigan State's ace, Kenny Waite. Frank Maule was third.

Griest Takes 3rd in Half
Although Johnny Woodruff, Pitt's negro star, galloped easily through to win the half-mile, Bill Griest made a good showing to hold a slight lead for second place until near the tape when Peir of Michigan State nosed him out. Norm Gordon, 880 time trial leader, and Charley Pierce, winner of the half-mile in Catholic University's games, failed to place.

Dave Bauer and Miller Frazier faced keen competition in both the high and low hurdle events as Harvey Woodstra, crack Spartan hurdler, took each race. Neither qualified in the 70-yard high, but Bauer took second in the race over the low timbers with Frazier being edged out for third. Frazier and Bauer joined with Bob Miller and Paul Stoller to take a third spot in the varsity sprint-relay won by Woodruff and his three sophomore teammates from Pitt.

George Jackson leaped to a second position in the pole vault, while Bob Clark, competing despite his sore wrist, tied a Pitt entry for third. In the other field event, Ian Murphy gained third in the shot put.

Club Elects Nordberg

The Agricultural Economics club recently elected Carl O. Nordberg '39, president; Richard B. Young '40, vice-president; James L. Dunsath '39, secretary; and Martin V. Rockwell '40, treasurer. Clarence Rhoads '40 was elected representative on the agricultural student council.

DANGER-LIVE WIRE!

The exciting story of one of the world's riskiest jobs—and how it changed the lives of two men and a girl!

"ANYTHING can happen on a job like this!" said one of the linemen who went out to electrify the railroad. "Men'll be hired and fired and killed and burned and crippled and promoted. Some women will get their hearts broken—and some'll wind up with good men. All told, a lot of people's luck will be changed considerably"... This is the drama of those men, and of the three people in particular whose lives were changed most.

A NATIONAL LEAGUER TELLS WHY THE AMERICAN LEAGUE WINS

Here's the inside story, by a pitcher who spent thirteen years in the American League and the last six seasons in the National. He tells also why hitting—not pitching—is the most difficult of the baseball arts, and how John McGraw, Connie Mack and Miller Huggins rate as managers to the only man who played for all three.
