Collegian Surveys Six Fall Sports Prospects

tercollegiate champs, as well as Bobbie Reynolds and Steve Priolo, regular varsity men, Charlie Speidel, wizard of the mats, should produce an unusually strong mat team next winter.

Returning varsity men are Carl King, flashy 118-pounder, the Craighead twins, good at either 125 or 135, Captain Don Bachman, ace 165-pounder who suffered a leg injury last year, Roy Gensler, 155-pounder, and Ernie Bortz, heavyweight last year but probably a light-heavy next winter.

Outstanding among the new men is Joe Scalzo, 145-pounder, who won the interclass championship and was captain of the frosh grapplers. Bill Bachman, husky kid brother of Captain Don, and Wade Mori, another freshman, stand a good chance in the 175-pound and heavyweight classes.

Cross-Country:
With four lettermen, led by Captain-elect Charlie Pierce, expected back next fall, Coach Chick Werner hopes for a good cross-country team are riding high. Ray Hazzard, veter-

Donato, DeMarino Added To List

The Collegian has today added the names of Dan DeMarino and Sam Donato to the list of nominees for the Philadelphia Inquirer all Star-Pro football game, in a letter to the Inquirer.

Windy Wear and Johnny Economos have already been named and, in the letter, the Collegian stated that Penn State feeling warrants the additional nominations of DeMarino and Donato.

a senior harrier, and Norm Gordon and Frank Maule, junior hill-and-dalers, are the other letter men.

Coach Werner has four more men returning who saw varsity service last season but failed to earn their letters. They all showed remarkable improvement during the season and expected to do even better this fall. These four, Jim Hostettler, Mac McGlinsky, Henry Bashore, and Herb Nilsson, will all be juniors.

Headed by Bill Smith, winner of the freshman IC4A's New York last fall, this year's freshman team will provide further available talent. Frosh captain Mickey Keiser, and nu-

Makes 'em all take Notice...

... just a wisp of Chesterfield's aroma tells you right away—there's a real cigarette.

That's because Chesterfields are blended with skill from aromatic Turkish and mild, ripe home-grown tobaccos.

Light one and at once you'll know that Chesterfields are milder and taste better.

For aroma... for taste... for mildness

Chesterfields give millions of smokers MORE PLEASURE than any other cigarette
