Summer Students See Changed Campus From Previous Years

Huge Building Program Nears Half-Way Mark As Three Contractors Speed Work

Last year's Summer Session students who will be visiting the campus for the first time in a year will find an entirely new setup made possible by a bond issue of the College and the General State Authority.

Jaffe Headlines Summer Players

Star Of 'Lost Horizon' To Play 'Shylock' Late In Season; Schneider To Direct

The Summer Session's theatrical season will open officially on July 5 in the Little Theatre with the presentation of "Time Is a Dream" directed and staged by Darrell D. Larsen, dramatic director of Franklin and Marshall College.

Try-outs For Players Begin Monday Night

Frank S. Neusbaum, division of dramatics, announced that students wishing to participate in dramatic presentations during the Summer Session, should sign up for try-outs in the Little Theatre in the basement of Old Main from 1:30 to 5 o'clock and from 8 to 9 o'clock Monday afternoon and evening.

The try-outs to be held Monday evening will be to decide the cast for the first play "Time Is a Dream," and for the "Merchant of Venice." Those not selected for these plays, will be cast in one of the other four dramas to be presented during the session.

Library Will Offer Delivery Service

During the main Summer Session, the College Library will have a messenger service for the delivery of books for two hour periods to the faculty offices. This service may be had by calling Miss Katherine Stokes at the central library between the hours of 9 a. m. and noon and from 1:30 to 4 p. m. every day except Saturday and Sunday.

Atherton Hall Near Completion After Year's Work

It was just a year ago that plans were completed for Frances Atherton Hall, the women's $1,100,000 dormitory, and some of the readers may remember the small beginnings of this gigantic building.

Collegian Issues Candidate Call

Among you who will stop to read the Collegian are some who have been bitten by the ink bug, some who have wondered how a paper rolls off a press readable, and some who just want to write. If you fall in one of these categories, or if for some other reason you wish to be a reporter or headline writer, stop in at the Collegian office in room 312 Old Main Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Rooming List Available At Registration

Because of the building program on the campus it has become necessary to revise the list of classrooms as previously prepared by the Summer Sessions office.
