Special to the Collegian

WASHINGTON, Oct 3 There will be no irregularities in the five-million-dollar building program now under way at the Pennsylvania State College under the General State Authority and the Public Reports Blame Works Administration

Such was the assurance given to the Collegian here today by H A Gray, assistant to PWA Administrator Harold L Ickes

ministratoi Haiold I Icles
"In the five years of its existence, the Public Work, Administration has been untouched by seandal," Gray said, "and you may be assured that any work done with our assistance at State College or elsewhere, will keep up this good record".

Assistant Administrator Gray Reveals Government—GSA Relations In Accord

Special to the Collegian

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 -Hopes WASHINGTON; Oct. 3 — Hopes for PWA, approval of the Pennsylvania State College's new building program were buoyed suddenly here today, when H. A. Gray, assistant to PWA Administrator Haiold L. Ickes, told the Collegram that "on the whole" relations between the Pennsylvania General State Authority and the PWA were "harmonious"

"The Public Works Administration has entered into certain agree-ments to assist the Authority in the Dating Bureau except two the construction of specific pro-jects," Glay said
