

NITTANY SOCCERMEN DOWN BUCKNELL BY 1-0 SCORE

Gus Bigott Scores As Bucknell Fails To Pierce Defense

By EMANUEL ROTH

An unorthodox, but fighting Bucknell soccer squad held Bill Jeffrey's undefeated booters to a lone tally as the aggressive Bisons stumbled to a 1-0 loss in the second game of the season on New Beaver Field Saturday afternoon.

Gus Bigott, swatthy sophomore Venezuelan, at outside left, cracked through the Bucknell defensive midway in the second quarter and kicked the ball ten yards for the Lions' solitary goal of the game.

The Jeffreymen hammered at the net from the opening whistle, but boots for the goal in the opening period were voided by accurate kicking as Bigott, Painter, Schuler, and Hartman attempted to score.

Lion Defense Holds

The Bisons, relying on unpredictable individual play, repeatedly zig-zagged into State territory throughout the contest, but failed to pierce State's outstanding defensive combination of Haag-Schuler-Merwin.

Continued stabs at the goal by the Lion booters featured the second period just as they did the first. A vicious passing attack, Merwin to Hartman to Davies, brought the ball into easy scoring position early in the quarter, but Davies' shot went over the net. Bigott later in the period snared the ball from a jumble on the side of the goal and evaded two Bucknell men to charge it in for the first and only score of the deadlock contest.

Hosterman Hampered

Kessler, Bucknell's left halfback, frustrated a few excellent set-up shots for the Jeffreymen while Eyster, left wingman, booted the ball 30 yards only to see Haag save it from the net. Hosterman, moved up to the line at inside left from halfback, did his best to cover up a knee injury by straight passing and powerful boots for goal.

Women in Sports

The Women's Recreation Association board and the president of the various clubs acted as guides through White Hall during the Open House Saturday night.

Because the building has not been officially turned over to the College, the women were not able to display their activities.

The W.R.A. and W.S.G. rooms were furnished, ping pong, and tables and bowling alleys were completed. The steel plated swimming pool, one of the most modern types was filled and will be ready for classes next week.

Activities in the W.R.A. clubs are in full swing. There are 45 members in the Golf Club and at elections last Thursday they chose Marjory A. Harwick '41, vice-president, Madeline L. Sisco '39, secretary, and Marie Kase '41, social chairman. Miss Lucy and Mr. Rutherford will continue their special classes to beginners on Saturday mornings.

The Swimming Club will meet early this week in the pool, when life saving equipment will be demonstrated. Women taking Senior Life Saving or Aquatic Instructor's will be examined before being permitted to enroll.

New officers of the Outing Club are Katherine W. Langley '39, vice president, and Lucille Jennings '42, secretary. This club meets the second and fourth Monday of each month at 7:30 o'clock.

The Archery Club's officers are Edna L. Oren '39, vice-president, and Jean Weaver '42, secretary. The present members, about 50, shoot Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 1 to 5 o'clock. If you haven't signed up, but are interested go to Holmes Field during one of these periods.

Hockey, one of the inter class competitive sports open to women, practices are held Monday through Thursday at 1 o'clock on Holmes Field. Each girl must attend at least four practices and pass eligibility tests before she can be qualified to play.

Bisons Upset Lion Gridders

halt the Lion advance on the five yard line.

On the very first play, Funn headed for left tackle, swung wide, and cracked down the left side line behind beautiful interference for the six points which spelled defeat. Kick place-kicked the extra point State had been offside on the play, but Bucknell refused the penalty.

Following an exchange of punts, Harrison and Chuck Peters started another invasion only to be abruptly halted when the latter fumbled and John Bovi, receive tackle, recovered on Bucknell's 24.

Late in the second quarter, Harrison kicked out of bounds on the Bison 18, and Carl Stravinski blocked Lane's attempted return punt. Govei Washabaugh recovered on the 12, but Bucknell again held for downs on the nine.

Midway through the third period, an even exchange of fumbles, placed the Blue and White in another advantageous position. Kick's fourth down bobbie was off by Craig White's recovery of Funn's misplay on Bucknell's 42.

Lane's punt kick from behind his own goal line gave State the ball on the 29, but Rollins' pass struck Nemeth, an ineligible receiver, and the opposition got the ball.

Kick intercepted another bad aerial by Harrison on his own 45 and ran it back to State's 30 with nine minutes to go in the fourth quarter. Two shot forwards from Tomassetti to Lane and sharp thrusts by the former gave Bucknell a first down on the State one-yard line. Kick dove over on third down and converted the point to bring the total to 14-0.

"Nuttiness" Theme of Beaux Arts Ball

Scarab, honorary architecture fraternity, intends to turn the atmosphere into a "Nuthouse" this Friday!

The change is not to be permanent, the Scarab's insist. It will just be in effect from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

In explanation, Scarab revealed that the temporary change from military to madness will all come about perfectly legally—"Nuttiness" has been chosen as the theme for the annual Beaux-Arts Costume Ball, scheduled for the Anniversary Friday night.

Joseph Didenzer, chairman of the dance, announced that prizes will be given for the best costumes. Admission will be $1 a couple and the Campus Owls are to furnish the music. Tickets may be obtained from members of Scarab.

'Vogue' Will Sponsor Career Competition

For the fourth year, Vogue Magazine is conducting a career competition open to members of the senior classes of accredited colleges and universities throughout the country.

Two major prizes, each offering a salaried position on the staff of Vogue Magazine for a limited time, with the possibility of a permanent position after completion of trial periods, are the goal of many senior women.

Ten other seniors who receive honorable mention will be recommended to various stores, publications, and advertising agencies in their vicinity. All entries must be received by November 20.

AGR Gridders, TKE Swimmers Score In IM'S

Alpha Gamma Rho's extra-period win over Chi Phi on Sunday afternoon was the only IM tilt played over the weekend, as Phi Sigma Delta and Delta Tau Delta won by forfeit over Pi Kappa Phi and Beaver House, respectively.

AGR's win came after the two teams battled to a deadlock in the regular period of play, neither team scoring a first down.

Chi Phi won the toss at the beginning of the extra period, but AGR got the ball when George Wade intercepted a pass on the third down.

AGR completed four passes for a total of 20 yards to win the game. Star on the winning team were Joe Klack, Elwood Shaffer, and Melvin Steinhauser.

Swimming

TKE swam to a close 30-27 triumph over Tau Phi Delta in Glen-hold pool Thursday, with the team man relay race deciding the meet.

Gollum, with a first and third place, and Fullerton, with two seconds, were high scorers for the winners. Jordan and Singer, with a first and third, paced the losers.

Non-Residents Must Have Game Permits

All out-of-state students who hunt in Pennsylvania this year must have non-resident hunting licenses, according to Sam B. Reed, traveling game protector.

Last year, Reed explained some out-of-state students bought resident licenses after establishing their identity. This year all residents will be checked, he said.

Non-resident licenses cost $15. Penalty for non-resident students not having such a license is $50 and costs for each offense. Each day of illegal hunting is considered as a separate offense.
