Cornell Beats Lion Gridders 20-6 Saturday

Midway in the second period, the flashy McCullough intercepted Peters' pass on his own 45 and raced back to State's 39

Shortly after the second half got under way and following an exchange of punts, Cornell gained possession on the State 13 after a weak punt by Ickes was returned 23 yards by George Peck

Holland and Eichel on end-arounds, and line smashes again gave the Ithacans a first down on the seven Peck failed on a reverse, but Eichel talked the third touchdown through the right side of the line

Rollins and Ickes offset numerous Cornell second and third string drives by Brown and Bill Murphy late in the third and during the fourth quarters by clipping off consistent yardage

Harrison's pass interception in his own end zone foiled a final Big Red attack and set the stage for the Lions' lone six-pointers

Peter's then heaved the oval far down the field to Harrison just behind the hostile safety man for the touchdown Meto's placement try was wide

Even Pitt's foursome can run THROUGH a stone wall—some body has to open a hole

And that's how it was—it had not been for a few wide awake Nittany Lions there might have been a much greater difference in the score

Of course Harrison supplied a few hills as only Harry can in an otherwise dull football game, and along with Chuck Peters showed an improved pass defense—but to the victors go the spoils—and all the praise too

Oh well—at least the soccer team keeps on winning—keep it up Bill, or State fans won't have anything to talk about
