150 Men Competing

One hundred and fifty candidates are competing for positions in the Peishing Rifle organization, according to Major James H. Howe, advisor.
Of this number, the major will choose 100 of the best men for special instruction as members of the society. He expects to announce the list after the meeting in the Armory, November 14.

Bootin' 'em For Bill

Spyker, Lion Soccer Captain, Chooses Ministry

Now you would hardly believe it, but it's so!
Fredrick Bowers Spyker, captain and rugged left halfback of Penn State's undefeated soccer Lions, wants to be a minister!
And what's more, he's going to be one. Fred is all set to enter Chicago Theological Seminary next year.

Curlly brown hair with eyes to match, profile of a cinematist and a jaw even more determined than himself, Spyker modestly attributes everything he is and everything that the soccer team is to Coach Bill Jeffrey.

"When we go into that huddle before the game," Fred confessed, "we don't say 'let's win this one for good old Penn State.' We say — 'let's win this one for Bill!'"

Vital statistics: Spyker is working his way through school. He is head waiter at Beta Sigma Rho, and is chief cook and bottle washer for the Ziegler family, half from Centre Hall (nine miles down the road) where he captained the high school soccer team to the central Pennsylvania State championship.

Has never scored a point since he began varsity competition here. Would rather play baseball than soccer, but likes booting for Bill. Was recently tapped Skull and Bones.

Says this year's team is "a mighty screevy outfit!" Is four inches under six feet, 140 pounds. And has a twin sister.

E. A. Betts Speaks At Study Program

The third of a series of Alpha Lambda Delta study hour programs for freshman women was held in the freshman lounge of Atherton Hall Wednesday night, with Dr. E. A. Betts, Professor of Elementary Education, speaking on "How a Student Can Improve His Reading."

Last week, Prof. Kingsley R. Smith, Assistant Professor of Psychology, spoke on "Preparing for Tests, Examinations, and Memorizing." Next week a panel discussion of current study problems will be held.

Tutoring of freshmen women by Alpha Lambda Delta will begin as soon as below grades are out and will continue indefinitely.

Kathryn M. Gochnauer '41 will be initiated on Sunday at 12 15, and a dinner will be held in Frances Atherton dining commons. Freshmen women eligible for membership will be pledged in March and initiated two or three weeks later.
