

Booters Take Fortieth Victory As Navy Bows, 1-0

Cub Harriers Edge Out 1-Point Win Over Pitt

By HERB NIPSON

The hills of Schenley Park and an unexpectedly strong Panther Cub outfit almost spelled finish to the Lion yearling harriers' undefeated dual season, but their excellent balance enabled them to eke out a one point victory, 27-26, over Pittsburgh, on Saturday, in their last dual contest of the year.

Herman Goffberg made it his third victory in a row when he snatched first place for the Lion's in 16:30. Goffberg was also in the van as the Lions defeated the Collierville and Syracuse frosh in the other two meets of the season.

A muggy course that provided treacherous footing hindered the Nittanymen and before the second Lion could finish, three Pitt-men—Manuel, Graham and Rosenbough—grabbed second, third and fourth positions respectively.

Manuel is the interscholastic cross-country champion of the state of Indiana and Rosenbough placed third in the Pennsylvania Interscholastics last fall.

Following Rosenbough came the rest of the Nittany Frosh outfit, with Earl Buckwalter taking fifth in 16:48. Arnold Olsen, Veinard-Kotz, Alex Boungie, Harold Thiel, and Stuart Rhode placed from sixth to tenth in that order.

Witowsky and Smith took 11th and 12th for the Panthers vs. Marshall Wagman, Lion sub, placed 15th.

Next Monday, the yearlings will race against 16 of the best cross-country teams of the East when they compete in the Freshmen IC4-A championships in Van Cortland Park, New York City.

With the team balance that has enabled them to finish hungry in every meet this fall, the yearlings should have a good chance of placing away up front in the championships. Their toughest competitors will probably be Syracuse and Manhattan.

Women in Sports

May Beaver White Hall will be officially opened with a housewarming from 7 to 9 p m tomorrow. This will be the women's first introduction to the sports possibilities in their new recreation hall.

The presidents of the various clubs and other W. R. A. members will introduce the women to all the sports in the building—even the swimming pool will be open. Come prepared in old clothes and rubber-soled shoes so you can enter into the fun.

All women students are invited to come Rachel Bechdel, president of W. R. A., asks that everyone be there promptly at 7 p m so that the sports may be organized.

Let's turn out and enjoy the possibilities of White Hall. Refreshments will be served.

For all you club members who can't remember when your club meets, we publish the following schedule. Better clip it and post it in some convenient place as a reminder.

- Monday 4-5:30—Dance Club in the Rhythm Room
- Monday 7:30—Swimming Club in the Pool
- Tuesday 6:30—Variety Club in Room 3
- Tuesday (2nd and 4th) 6:30—W. R. A. Board in W. R. A. Club Room
- Wednesday 6:30—Fencing Club in the Fencing Room
- Wednesday (1st) 6:30—Tennis Club in Room 3
- Wednesday (2nd) 6:30—Riding Club in Room 33

- Thursday 4-5:30—Dance Club in the Rhythm Room
- Thursday (2nd) 6:30—Golf Club in Room 3
- Thursday—Club presidents in W. R. A. Club Room
- Lakondes, Women's Physical Education honorary, gave a tea on Sunday afternoon in White Hall for all new and old staff members.

Rifle Team Opened To Juniors, Seniors

A subsidy given by the School of Physical Education and Athletics has opened the Penn State rifle team to all juniors and seniors as well as sophomores who previously made up the squad.

The School has appropriated enough money to pay for the ammunition used by upperclassmen, thus making them eligible for the squad along with R. O. T. C. students.

Before, team membership was restricted because the military department was authorized to buy only that ammunition used by R. O. T. C. students.

Four and one-half inch varsity rifles are awarded in the sport, which will continue to be handled by the military department.

Harriers Down Pitt As Smith Breaks Record

Lion's in the final mile as Pitt-men were holding key positions.

Kicking it in, Len Henderson and Lion Captain Charley Pierce caught up with and passed Pitt's C. Kopec to brighten the outlook for the Nittanymen as they took sixth and seventh places, respectively.

Statesmen Salvage Win
John Strange then grabbed ninth place for the Statesmen, salvaging an undefeated dual season for his team-mates.

Nuimi, Captain Zamborsky and B. Kopec took 10th, 11th and 12th places, respectively, for Pitt. Bill Giest, Graham Miller and Herb Nipson then finished in that order for State.

Running on by far the toughest course that they have encountered this season, the Lion harriers came through in good physical condition in spite of the grueling hills and the rough, treacherous footing.

With a successful dual season under their belts, the Lions find that they are still hungry. Nothing will satisfy them but a team victory over the best cross-country squads in the East in the IC4-A championships in Van Cortland Park, New York City, next Monday.

In case they succeed there, the team has been promised a crack at the National Championships for the NCAA's will be run in the Michigan State course in East Lansing, Michigan.

42 Soccermen Tie Mont Alto Booters In Mud Battle, 2-2

Playing their last game of the season, the Cub booters, tied undefeated Mont Alto 2-2 in a soccer-mud battle Saturday afternoon on the practice field.

Mont Alto scored first in the second quarter, but the freshmen, showing much improvement over previous exhibitions, came back in the third period to knot the count at 1-1 when Al Baldwin tallied.

Again in the third period the frosh scored by virtue of Ned Cotman's slippery elusiveness.

Soon after the final Cub tally, Don Megral, brother of varsity booter Flanny Megral, tied the score for the Frosters.

Neither team was able to penetrate the other's oozing territory during the remainder of the game. Although the game ended in a tie, the coaches decided not to play an extra period because of the weather.

50 Candidates Try For '42 Court Team

More than fifty freshmen are being put through the paces in Rec Hall every afternoon as tryouts for court squad are being held.

Coach Nick Thiel yesterday announced a seven game schedule for the basketballers. The season opens here January 21.

Additional recruiting aspirants are expected to appear for practice, Thiel stated, because of the close of the frosh football season.

Selections for the squad are being made now, and will be completed after Thanksgiving vacation, according to the coach. Interested freshmen are invited by Thiel to report to him. Practice is held every afternoon at 4.

Hockey Team Plans Five Game Schedule

With 40 aspirants already out for the first ice hockey team, tentative plans are underway for a five-game schedule which at least one match to be played before Christmas.

Pitt, Carnegie Tech, Penn, Swarthmore, Lehigh, and Lafayette have been contacted by Manager Richard James in an effort to draw up a schedule. Team coach is Arthur F. Davis, assistant professor of physical education. Joseph Ellicott will captain the squad.

Three Varsity Sport Slaters Are Released

Complete schedules listing the varsity activities for one winter and two spring sports and three freshmen sports were released yesterday by Neil M. Fleming, Graduate Manager of Athletics.

Bowing, baseball and tennis were the varsity sports approved while the released freshmen schedules include lacrosse, basketball and baseball.

From the competitive angle, Penn State's bowing Lions have probably the toughest card of the lot. The varsity mittmen will engage seven duals with plus C A A championships.

Bucknell and Michigan State, newcomers on the incoming schedule, will replace Pittsburgh and North Carolina.

Boxing Schedule
The boxing schedule follows: Jan 8, Western Maryland, here, Jan 29, Bucknell, here, Feb 11, Syracuse, here, Feb 18, Virginia, here, Feb 25, Army, at West Point, Mar 4, Wisconsin, here, Mar 10-11, Intercollegiate, Syracuse, Mar 18, Michigan State, at East Lansing, Mar 30, 31 and Apr 1, N C A A, at Madison, Wisconsin.

A twenty-game baseball card twelve games of which will be played on New Beaver Field. The Bedenkmen open their season at Princeton on April 7. Western Maryland is here for the Lions home opener on the 15th.

The Lion tennis face Penn and Navy on Apr 21, and 22 during their second trip east. The remainder of the card follows: Apr 26, Dickinson, here; Apr 29, Villanova, here; May 2, Gettysburg, here; May 4, Temple, here; May 6, Syracuse, away; May 9-10, (two games) at Pittsburg, (two games) at East Lansing, Michigan, June 3, Rutgers, and June 9-10, (two games) with Pittsburgh.

Tennis Slate
Eleven dual matches make up the 1938 varsity tennis schedule which follows: Apr. 15, Penn, away; Apr. 21, Lehigh, here; Apr. 22, Pittsburgh, here; Apr. 25, Gettysburg, here; May 3, Bucknell, here; May 4, Carnegie Tech, here; May 6, Syracuse, away; May 10, Cornell, here; May 13, Bucknell, away; May 17, Army, at West Point; and May 24, Susquehanna, here.

Freshman basketball Jan 21, Dickinson Seminary, here; Feb 4, Bucknell, here; Feb 8, Pitt and Feb 9, Carnegie Tech, both at Pittsburgh; Feb 18, Kyri, here; Feb 24, Bucknell, away; and Mar 4, Wyoming Seminary, here.

Freshman baseball Apr 26, Meigsburg, away; Apr 29, Kiski, here; May 6, Syracuse, here; May 13, Cornell, at Ithaca; May 20, Pittsburgh, here; and May 27, Wyoming Seminary, here.

Freshman lacrosse May 6, Lafayette, here; and May 20, Cornell, at Ithaca.

Harold (Red) Grange, playing against Michigan, November 1924, handled the ball only five times and scored five touchdowns. His runs were 95, 67, 56, and 45 yards (first quarter), 15 yards last quarter.

Fielding H. Yost started as coach at Michigan in 1901 and, until the last game of 1905, Michigan was unbeaten.

Released yesterday by Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics, the bowing schedule shows two newcomers which Lion mittmen will stack up against this year. They are Bucknell and Michigan. These teams replaced North Carolina and Pittsburgh.

Unable to get together on dates, N Carolina had to be dropped in favor of Bucknell, and due to Pittsburgh's dropping the sport, Michigan State was substituted.

An attempt was made to secure a meet with Navy, but because of difficulties in arranging a date, the plan had to be dropped for this year, at least, it was reported.

Bucknell will be met at home, Jan 29, with Michigan State away, Mar. 18. The remainder of the schedule includes Western Maryland, Jan 8, at home; Virginia, Feb 18, at home; Army, February 25, away; Wisconsin, Mar. 4, home; Intercollegiate, Mar. 10 and 11, at Syracuse; and the Nationals, Mar. 30, 31 and April 1, at Wisconsin.

Although Houck makes the official call to Monday, a number of the veterans have been working out daily for the past couple of weeks. Capt Roy Hanna, Al Tappan, Jim Lewis, Nate Handley, Ken Byrd, and Alex Sopchuk are among the few already going through the paces.

Others expected out very soon are Mike Cooper, Les Cohen, Sid Thomas, Frank Sylvestri, Bernie Sandson, Johnny Patrick, Stu Qually, Leon Gajech, and "Red" Stanko.

Bigott Scores Late To Break Deadlock

By MANNY ROTH

An aggressive and mighty Navy soccer squad put the undefeated Jeffeymen to the greatest acid test of the season on grimy New Beaver Field Saturday afternoon as Gus Bigott, phenomenal Venezuelan sophomore, came through in the final minutes of play to give the Lions their 40th victory since 1932.

It was Flanny Megral, scoring star for the Nittanymen, who dribbled to the left of the rigging as the fourth quarter drew to a close. Taking the ball from Megral, Bigott headed the leather into the right corner for the winning tally after a mad scrimmage in front of the goal.

Haag is Stone Wall
Dick Haag, veteran Lion goalie, under fire, proved to be a spectacular stone wall as the Middies consistently hammered at the goal throughout the hard-fought contest.

Navy opened a dazzling attack after the opening whistle, carrying the ball twice into State territory. The period continued in see-saw fashion and, paced by Van Hartman, Sam Davies, and Megral, the Jeffeymen failed to pierce to the net.

Middies Continue Barrage
The Middies continued their hand-diving barrage as Carey, outside right, kicked from center. Haag was down on the ball with a difficult save. Parker, Navy line-man, again hammered one toward goal and Haag, repeating his performance, snared the leather on his knees.

The Jeffeymen unfurled a furious drive in the second period. Walt Painter, Megral, Hartman, and Walt Hosterman dove in but could not work through the powerful Navy defense.

It was a question of the stopping ability of the goalies in the third period Haag frustrated another straight boot from Parker, still another from Gernshausen. Refo, Navy tender, went to his knees to save a boot from Megral, and another from Sam Davies.

Bigott scored in the last period after Megral missed a free kick. The lineup:

ously to the single touchdown lead, failed to attempt a pass, failed to try reverses, and failed to fumble.

But they did not fail to race off. New Beaver the victors when the final whistle was blown.

Superior playing by a pair of powerful veteran ends, Weldon and Hal Simmons, alert backing up of the line by Johnny Quigg, junior center, and hard charging by acting-captain Howard Martin, senior guard, balked every State effort on ground plays. The Higginsons never ventured further than Lafayette's 39.

Five Aerials Intercepted
Overhead, State was repulsed as quickly as on the ground. Chuck Powers and Steve Rollins hit the target seven times in eight attempts—five times it was the wrong target. Each time the Leopard charges filtered through the Nittany forward wall like the proverbial water through a sieve.

And so it was when White attempted to punt from his own 37. The entire left side of Lafayette's line surged down upon him, the boot was hurried, and long enough to be blocked by Gluff Weldon scooped the bounding oval up of the 20, evaded White, and spindled unmoled for the deciding score. George Lentz, fullback, place kicked the extra point.

It was the first and last action of a listless past time. "I was too bad we weren't in Pittsburgh for the Carnegie upset-of-upsets."

But, it's in the book. Penn must have

Between The Lions

By HERB CAHAN
Sports Editor

As Penn State's newly crowned philosopher, Trainer Jack Hulme, might say: "Anything can happen on a muddy field."

Saturday's "anythings" Bill Jeffrey's booters stepped one game closer to their fifth straight undefeated season by beating Navy 1-0.

The varsity and freshman cross country teams completed undefeated dual meet seasons, racking up victories over Pitt's varsity and yearlings.

And—oh yes—the football team played according to their up-and-down schedule, which means that Penn's football fate is settled for this Saturday.

But, Chick Weiner's harriers are the real surprise of the current sports season. Naturally, Wild William Smith was expected to be good—but he certainly surpassed all expectations, having broken three different course records in four races—making him the favorite to annex the Eastern IC4-A title next Monday.

Smith is the only one of last year's frosh numeral-winners who reported for the varsity this season. Add this to the fact that two varsity men did not come out, and that Smith is the only one who ever ran in an organized cross-country race before entering Penn State, and we marvel at their record.

Going back into the files, we find that the last Eastern IC4-A title was won by the Nittany Lions in 1927, when Penn State's last Olympic track representative, Bill Coy, capped the individual crown. The Lion frosh also won the championship in that year.

There is the possibility that Chick's varsity and Pete Olevy's freshmen may repeat this 1927 performance, with Herman Goffberg and the yearlings having duplicated Smith's and the varsity's record for the dual meet season.

Both Smith and Goffberg will have plenty of tough competition, but on past performances, these two established themselves as the favorites for the individual crowns.

The principal contenders for the varsity individual title will be Southard and Cavilier of Syracuse, Meelan and Montauy of Manhattan, and Steiner of Pitt, all of whom Wild Bill has licked. Then there are two others, who should

Cub Gridders Face Army As Season Closes

A strong freshman gridiron squad will end its five-game season tomorrow in Michie Stadium at West Point, N. Y. as it meets the Army Plebes.

Coach McAndrews is expected to use the same starting lineup against the Plebes as used against the Bucknell ends over a week ago. Bates and Erwin will be at end Fiketh and Gubinski at tackle. Evans and Wilkinson at guard, Kolesa at center, and Smaltz, Honck, Petrella and Kiousie in the backfield. With the exception of Petrella at No 1 back and Honck as blocking back, this has been the starting lineup for most of the frosh games.

Against the Plebes, the frosh will attempt to unleash the aerial attack that was so successful against the Bison frosh in the Bucknell game after the score was 10-0 to 20 in the first half. McAndrews instructed his backfield to do no passing in the second half and maintain the lead they had piled up.

Mainstay in the Lion air attack will be Bill Smaltz at fullback, tossing the pigskin, with Krouse, Bates, or Erwin as receivers. Aided by Petrella's shifty running, a hard line and Honck's blocking, the Cubs are pointing for a fourth victory to close their season.
