

X-Country Team Set For IC4-A's Monday

burgh Although a "dark horse" so far as first place is concerned, Maule can be depended upon to place within the first ten finishers. Len Henderson, thoroughly recovered from a pulled muscle, has shown steady improvement and is eager to put out all he has. Captain Charley Pierce has done a wonderful job of keeping his team in morale high and has turned in good performances in every meet.

Johnny Strange, Graham Miller and Herb Nipson will complete the team that is to make the trip.

The Lions have not won an IC4-A championship since 1930 and Coach Werner is hoping that "this is the year." Should his fondest hopes be realized, his hatters will repeat the showing made by the 1927 edition of Lion hatters. Under Coach Cuntmell, Penn State swept the meet, winning the varsity and freshmen team prizes with Bill Cox '28 and Dick Detweiler '32, jumping away with first places in the varsity and freshmen races, respectively.

and more uniform system of faculty promotion.
4—Low faculty salary scales now prevailing in several of the schools should be brought up to the level prevailing in those schools of the College which maintain adequate and satisfactory faculty salary scales.
5—In order to foster a greater spirit of inter-faculty harmony, it is imperative that a more rational faculty salary scale be adopted in place of the present system and that such salary schedules be made commensurate with the rank of staff members.

Women in Sports

Open House at White Hall was a big success with about two hundred women, mostly freshmen, competing in the various sports. They switched from dancing, bowling, badminton, ping-pong, bridge to swimming.

The pool was open for the first time Wednesday to all women, with the requirement that they wear the tank suits and bring their own swimming caps. Plans are under way to open the pool every afternoon, including Saturday and Sunday, with a possibility of evening plunge hours.

Doughnuts and tides were served by the refreshment committee, including Mary O'Connor and Barbara Lewis. Judge Govier and Marje Hauwrick were in charge of the program.

White Hall will be open every Monday night from 6:30 to 9:00 o'clock for all women who desire bowling, badminton, ping-pong, deck tennis, shuffle board and bridge. This is your chance to practice for inter-collegiate and inter-school tournaments. See the W. R. A. bulletin board for other hours.

The Army-Navy hockey games will be played next week. Thirty outstanding hockey players picked by hockey managers, captains of the teams, and Miss Lucy will constitute the teams. There will be a hockey supper at the end of the season.

The women who participated in the last year are urged to attend meetings from 1 to 5:30 o'clock every Tuesday and Thursday in the Armory.

Finals in tennis will be played next week. Dot Radcliffe '42, Max Hall champion, Janet Hartz '42, Atherton champion, and Dot Godshalk '41, campus champion will compete for the title.

All women interested in going on a hike at 2 o'clock Sunday meet in back of Atherton Hall.

(signed) A Thinker
Reminded of W. C. Fields

Typical characterizations of W. C. Fields is what the writer of the following reminds Dr. McHenry.

"Why do reactionaries and smug complacencies—safely ensconced within tax-exempt institutional walls, amply salaried, and with twilight years glowing rosily with assurance that pension's clover fields await the hour when limited years' pull off their shoes of activity and turn them into safe pastures—always, always beguudge any similar security to others?"

A Townsendite sends the following: "A snare and a delusion"—can't you see the grandfatherly buying, with joy in his heart, food and warm clothing for his grandchild? Can't you see the village store sold out quickly of its age-old wares?

"Can't you see the wholesale houses rushed as never before—and all under 60 years having work?"

"And can't you see a spark of Godliness shining through—all for two cents?"

"Why not the Townsend Plan?"

Cub Booters Defeat Jonestown H. S., 4-0

Aided by two lucky goals scored when the ball deflected off defensive players into the net, the Lion Cub booters, downed Jonestown High, 4-0, on the golf course practice field Wednesday afternoon.

At Baldwin, freshman center forward, was the nearest offensive player to the ball and was credited with both goals.

Late in the third period, Al Jones, center halfback, kicked a 25-yard shot into the corner of the goal. John Fishburn talked the final point late in the last quarter.

All seniors must get appointments by Friday of next week at the Photo Shop for their LaVie pictures.
