

Independent Cliques May Combine In Backing Organization Move

Two Chairmen Lend Support To Movement

Plan to Weld Non-Fraternity Men Into Social, Political Unit Well-Received

Humors and ramblings presenting the possibility that the three independent cliques would throw their combined strength behind the student movement to organize non-fraternity men into one socially and politically solid group were pitifully verified today when Independent leaders James R. Sausser, Jr. '10 and Gerald F. Doherty '12 endorsed the plan on behalf of their respective cliques.

William B. Bartholomew, Independent chairman for the class of '11, remained non-committal on the subject.

Sausser, speaking for the Class of '10 Independents, said that his clique was definitely considering the inclusion of a plank backing the organization movement in their platform for the forthcoming election.

Doherty States Stand "We will support wholeheartedly the proposed independent plan if it will benefit the College," was the statement Doherty, Class of '12 Chairman submitted when interviewed by the Collegian yesterday.

A closed meeting of the Independent leaders with Arthur R. Warnock, dean of men, is scheduled for tonight at which time the possibilities and future of the organization plan will be discussed.

By including it as a specific plank in their respective platforms the independent cliques will provide the movement with the biggest impetus it has received since its introduction 10 days ago.

Between the Lions

(Continued From Page Three)

augmented by Roman Pico of East Stroudsburg Teachers College, was another step in this direction the other exhibitionists were Co-Capt Ray Runkle and Merrill Pack on the P-Guns and Co-Capt Al Klugman and Page Schaefer on the side horse.

Temple here Saturday. To appear Charles Prosser had missed quite a few shots Saturday on one of his faults near the State bench he called "Am I shootin' too many John?" and in the dressing room, after that whirlwind finish, Bill Stoppard asked "Say, what was the score tonight?"

Tom Campion certainly deserves much credit for his solo act in running off the complicated intramural basketball tourney. It's a tough job ordinarily but all the more noteworthy when it has to be conducted alone.

Danny Musser, ex-Lion baseballer and former big-leaguer doing graduate work here will be an assistant to Joe Bedenk for the rapidly approaching diamond season.

A bad rib and the fact that he has to do plenty of sweating to keep down to the 115-pound mark didn't seem to deter Joe Sealzo a systematic and intelligent workman on the mat and though only a sophomore, a real spark in an important spot on the team.

most superhuman strength in slaying off his hulky opponent was a fitting climax to an interesting meet—a meet decided by that nifty overtime victory by Ernie Bortz.

85 Freshmen Turn Out For Collegian

(Continued From Page One)

Greenberg, Esther Janor, Betty M. Martin, Elsie E. Mason, Jeanne Nittes.

Tea with Matthes Charlotte Neetzow Ruth Newberger, Jean V. Nichols, Mary Jean Popp, Martha Resvinga, Jeanette N. Rudolph, Miami Saravita, Shirley M. Tietz, and Joan Weintraub.

CLASSIFIED

TENNIS RACKETS RESTRUNG—All work guaranteed Rackets called for and delivered The Restringing, 206 West College avenue Dial 3360 BB 37

TYPEWRITERS—All makes expertly repaired, portable and office machines for sale or rent. Dial 2342 Harry E. Mann, 127 West Beaver avenue BB 37

Pleasant second floor room for boys 118 S Burrows street, Dial State College 3432

Union Dance Saturday, March 4, in the Armory. Music by the Campus Owls 221-1tpdGD

DESIRABLE second floor room, will rent single or double, 267 S. Pugh street Phone 3420. 211-1tpdGD

LOST—Gamma Phi Beta pledge pin on Campus Please return to Student Union. 210-1tpdGD

GUIDING RELIGIOUS THOUGHT

MRS. GRACE S. OVERTON

DR. SAMUEL M. MASHIH

Women in Sports

Attention all you co-eds who want something to do next Friday night! W R A is sponsoring a "Make-up" party for women starting at 7:30 in White Hall. Get your friends together and come in groups of six armed with a blanket, safety pins, Kleenex, and lipstick. The rest of the building will be open as usual, including the pool from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Intramural games will begin this week. Watch the bulletin board in White Hall and you don't miss any of the schedules. Women playing basketball must be on the floor at 4:15 sharp.

Lion Gymnasts Set For Temple Battle

Preparing for its most important home meet of the season with Temple Saturday the Lion gym team continued form drills and smooth exercises on all apparatus during the past week.

Coach Gene Wettstone intends to use practically the same lineup which has performed in all previous meets against Temple's outfit. Co-Captains Ray Runkle and Al Klugman, Charley Gillespie, Stan Feldman, Merrill Beck, Page Schaefer, George Terwilliger, Elmer Weaver, Ben Stahl, Bill Lewis and Harold Streato comprise the regulars. Other deserving members of the squad may compete.

The Owl gymnasts strong contenders to the Eastern intercollegiate title, and second place winners in last year's Nationals boast an evenly-balanced army, rather than a brilliant team of individuals.

Fast Rutgers Squad Sinks Lion Mermen

(Continued From Page Three)

against Cornell at Ithaca on Saturday.

The summaries: 300-yard medley relay Won by Rutgers (Paret, Estlin, Sarv), second, Penn State (Vinant, Boleau, C Welsh) Time 3:11.9

220-yard freestyle Won by Kirk, Rutgers, second, Stanley Rutgers, third, Bunk, Penn State Time 2:23.3

50-yard freestyle Won by LeKamp, Rutgers, second, Kirkpatrick, Penn State, third, Baines, Rutgers Time 2:15

Fancy dive Won by McClave, Rutgers, second, McLaughlin Penn State, third, Leone, Rutgers Winning points, 103.82

100-yard freestyle Won by LeKamp, Rutgers, second, Kirkpatrick, Penn State, third, Thomas, Rutgers Time 5:17

150-yard backstroke Won by Winter, Rutgers, second, Vinant, Penn State, third, Starr, Rutgers Time 1:18.6

200-yard breaststroke Won by Estlin, Rutgers, second, Rieley, Penn State, third, Bantz, Rutgers Time 2:13

410-yard freestyle Won by Faulkner, Rutgers, second, Bunk, Penn State, third, Olsen, Rutgers Time 5:55.3

100-yard medley relay Won by Rutgers, (Ashby, Spangle, Darby, Thomas), second, Penn State (Rubner, Allison, Kirkpatrick, C. Welsh) Time 3:51.2

BULLETIN

TODAY

The Mortar Board will meet in Room 117 Old Main at 4 p. m.

All Lancaster County students meet on the front steps of Old Main at 12 o'clock noon.

TOMORROW N Y A students must have matriculation cards with them when they report to Old Main lounge today, Thursday and Friday.

Freshman Collegian editorial candidates meet in Room 418 Old Main at 7:30 p. m.

MISCELLANEOUS. February issues of the Froth are now available at Student Union.

Bone To Talk At 7 Tonight

(Continued From Page One)

1-D Gray on the second floor of the Library

2-The world mission of Christian fellowships conducted by Dr. Samuel M. Mashih and Dr. Arthur L. Carson in Room 318, Old Main

4-Methods in personal adjustment conducted by Dr. Roy McCook in Room 100, Horticulture Building

5-Social and economic challenges to the Christian world community conducted by Dr. Roswell P. Barnes and Dr. Howell Hart in Room 200, Engineering D

Elliot Gives Display Of Do-or-Die Spirit

(Continued From Page Three)

the Nationals. He also put in a season of lacrosse.

This year he has wrestled in every meet, winning two and losing five. Weighing less than 200, he has had a distinct weight disadvantage in every bout.

Vital statistics: Taking advanced ROTC, expects to get commission in June. Intends to enter army air corps at Randolph Field after graduation. Has flown, but hasn't soloed yet. If air corps plans fail will lead comparatively soft life of insurance man. Biggest thrill was deciding win at Princeton this year. member of Tau Kappa Epsilon. Has gone conservative sports a grass green sedan instead of last year's cream-colored Packard convertible job works with Miller Frazier and Whitey Vogel as a lifeguard at Ocean City in the summer.

EA-President Herbert Hoover has been awarded a Doctor of Engineering degree by Stevens Institute of Technology.

Swing Is Only A Rhythm, Maestro Ellington Insists

(Continued From Page Three)

"Most persons have the mistaken impression that swing refers to a type of music. It's really nothing more than a type of rhythm."

Duke Ellington speaking, folks—Senior Ball Maestro, keyboard welder extraordinaire, father of "Mood Indigo," "Solitude," "Caravan," and other luscious smashes.

The Duke was scribbling off an arrangement at Rec. Hall before the Ball Friday night when he was snatched for an interview.

"Swing hasn't done a thing," Ellington continued. "It's nothing new; bands have been playing with a swing for years."

How about Artie Shaw and Benjie Goodman, Duke?

"Two good musicians as far as any preference is concerned, I have none, purely a matter of taste," the Jazz Maestro smilingly ventured. He continued his scribbling in one of the booths. A small crowd began to gather.

Tells Life Story Ellington drifted into the story of his life—quietly, modestly, as in his amazing story were a mundane ordinary record of an ordinary life.

Born in Washington D. C. in 1899, Duke "hung around" the piano, playing for his crowd, intended being an artist but his friends urged him to continue at the keyboard, organized a five-piece band, went to New York.

Played at Barron's in Harlem, moved to Kentucky club on Broadway where he stayed for four and a half years, toured Europe in 1925 but the going wasn't so hot, returned in 1927 to the Cotton Club where he scored a sensation.

Returns to Europe During 1931 toured the country, 1933 returned to haunt the Cotton Club, again, then overseas to play in England, Scotland, France, Holland. Reception "Tremendous," the Duke beamed. Back to the U. S. A. on a tour of the Southeast.

And the Duke with his distinctive style has upheld his post among the top-notchers! Songs Ellington has composed and made famous include "Mood Indigo" in 1931, "It Doesn't Mean a Thing If You Haven't Got That Swing," 1932, "Sophisticated Lady," 1933, "Solitude," 1934, "Sentimental Mood," 1935, "Caravan," 1937, "I Let a Song Go Out Of My Heart," 1938, and his latest released this year, "Prelude to a Kiss."

Appears in Pictures Motion pictures he has appeared in include "Murder at the Vanities," "Hit Parade," "Check and Double Check," and "Belle of the Nineties."

The Duke's married (he jokingly asked whether you'd be interested in his love life), father of a 19-year-old son, Jack, who's studying trumpet at Columbia's Juillard School of Music.

What about the future, Duke? "We've been invited for a month's concert stand at Carnegie Hall in April," Ellington'll tell you quietly "if it's not Carnegie, the boys and I are set to tour Europe again."

The Duke handed the composition to his arranger, sighed, smiled "Gotta take a shower now, it'll make me feel much fresher."

Cliques Begin To Formulate Election Plans

Action Under Surface As Election Date Is Still Not Set By Board

By A WILLIAM ENGEL, JR. Despite the gradually approaching election date, apparent action remained dull among the political cliques but beneath the crust loomed a dazzling display of organization attempts.

While the Freshman Independent and Campus factions continued idle, all four upperclass parties began to step up the pace in an effort to strike first with a candidate and platform list.

The cliques are handicapped somewhat as no definite election period has been set by Student Board. Indications point to a date extremely late in April brought about by the Easter recess.

Len Cooper has been calling his Junior class Campus boys together once a week to discuss the coming campaign. The group met in Theta Xi last night. Needless to say, it is useless to attempt to guess at a candidate for the Senior Class presidency.

Both Bill Bartholomew, Independent, and Ed Wagner, Campus, have been keeping their respective Sophomore cliques moving, also scheduling weekly confabs.

Only routine organization has been accomplished in either group with both naming several committees.

Thomas C. Backenstose was selected campaign chairman for the 1941 Independents at Sunday's gathering with Paul B. Wilson as program chairman. Peter G. Fetko, John H. Jenkins, and Andrew Paton complete the campaign group with Theodore Rice, Mack A. Dick and Kermit G. Christman comprising the program committee.

Home Ec Seniors, Examined

The Dispensary during the past week has given physical examination to 18 senior women in Home Economics who are making application for nursing positions on graduation.

Foresters Organize New Shooting Squad

A new rifle and pistol team has been organized at Mont Alto and plans have been made to schedule matches with the freshman R O T C team here.

The team at Mont Alto is under the direction of Major E. H. Randle, professor of military science and tactics there.

Lewert Chosen Fear Head

Fred Lewert '10 was elected president of Fear Hall in an election held in the dormitory Tuesday night. Other officers were Henry J. Davis '11, vice president, W. Louis Corbin '11, treasurer, Sam Virgilio '11, secretary, and John R. Walford '10, A. A. manager.

Swing Is Only A Rhythm, Maestro Ellington Insists

(Continued From Page Three)

"Most persons have the mistaken impression that swing refers to a type of music. It's really nothing more than a type of rhythm."

Duke Ellington speaking, folks—Senior Ball Maestro, keyboard welder extraordinaire, father of "Mood Indigo," "Solitude," "Caravan," and other luscious smashes.

The Duke was scribbling off an arrangement at Rec. Hall before the Ball Friday night when he was snatched for an interview.

"Swing hasn't done a thing," Ellington continued. "It's nothing new; bands have been playing with a swing for years."

How about Artie Shaw and Benjie Goodman, Duke?

"Two good musicians as far as any preference is concerned, I have none, purely a matter of taste," the Jazz Maestro smilingly ventured. He continued his scribbling in one of the booths. A small crowd began to gather.

Tells Life Story Ellington drifted into the story of his life—quietly, modestly, as in his amazing story were a mundane ordinary record of an ordinary life.

Born in Washington D. C. in 1899, Duke "hung around" the piano, playing for his crowd, intended being an artist but his friends urged him to continue at the keyboard, organized a five-piece band, went to New York.

Played at Barron's in Harlem, moved to Kentucky club on Broadway where he stayed for four and a half years, toured Europe in 1925 but the going wasn't so hot, returned in 1927 to the Cotton Club where he scored a sensation.

Returns to Europe During 1931 toured the country, 1933 returned to haunt the Cotton Club, again, then overseas to play in England, Scotland, France, Holland. Reception "Tremendous," the Duke beamed. Back to the U. S. A. on a tour of the Southeast.

And the Duke with his distinctive style has upheld his post among the top-notchers! Songs Ellington has composed and made famous include "Mood Indigo" in 1931, "It Doesn't Mean a Thing If You Haven't Got That Swing," 1932, "Sophisticated Lady," 1933, "Solitude," 1934, "Sentimental Mood," 1935, "Caravan," 1937, "I Let a Song Go Out Of My Heart," 1938, and his latest released this year, "Prelude to a Kiss."

Appears in Pictures Motion pictures he has appeared in include "Murder at the Vanities," "Hit Parade," "Check and Double Check," and "Belle of the Nineties."

The Duke's married (he jokingly asked whether you'd be interested in his love life), father of a 19-year-old son, Jack, who's studying trumpet at Columbia's Juillard School of Music.

What about the future, Duke? "We've been invited for a month's concert stand at Carnegie Hall in April," Ellington'll tell you quietly "if it's not Carnegie, the boys and I are set to tour Europe again."

The Duke handed the composition to his arranger, sighed, smiled "Gotta take a shower now, it'll make me feel much fresher."

'Circus 00' Starts Today; Novices Learn Gymnastics

Beginning tonight, "Circus 00," with Gym Coach Gene Wettstone as professor, will be offered one hour each Tuesday and Thursday nights, 7 to 8 p. m. until April 22, date of the All-College Circus.

Not officially listed in the College catalogue, Circus Director Wettstone's new class will informally endeavor to give men and women students the fundamentals of acrobatic performances necessary for such an affair.

Tumbling, balancing, juggling, tight-rope walking, acrobatic dancing, rope spinning, elementary trapeze exercises, and numerous other circus gymnastic activities will be included in the instruction. Physical Education majors will aid Wettstone in teaching the class.

Such a course is being offered, the Circus Director explained, to aid students interested in participating in the All-College Circus in developing their exercises for the event.

Welsh Has 2 Loves, 'Swimmin', Sailin'

(Continued From Page Three)

Blond and good-looking was an office pest in high school. Works at a camp every summer. Likes kids. Is a C-and-F'er. Captained fish tank team here. Also on cub rifle team. Member of five-man intramural outfit that swept every event in his freshmen year in thrills.

Vital Statistics: Member of both Divs and Skull and Bones. Also Delta Sigma Phi, professional business honorary frat. Vice-president of junior class. Co-chairman of this year's Senior Ball committee.

Would rather sail a boat than anything else he could think of. Plans would cruise sometime in future and is sure that SHE will go along. Says sailing is his hobby and would like to make his hobby his life.

Henderson '36 Has Review Acclaimed

Harry B. Henderson '36, former editor of the Collegian, had his review of Mark Sullivan's autobiography, "The Education of an American," published in a recent issue of "New Masses."

The review was mentioned by Robert Moore Lovett, professor at the University of Chicago and one of the editors of "The New Republic," as being "a very well documented review."

Home Ec Seniors, Examined

The Dispensary during the past week has given physical examination to 18 senior women in Home Economics who are making application for nursing positions on graduation.

Foresters Organize New Shooting Squad

A new rifle and pistol team has been organized at Mont Alto and plans have been made to schedule matches with the freshman R O T C team here.

The team at Mont Alto is under the direction of Major E. H. Randle, professor of military science and tactics there.

Lewert Chosen Fear Head

Fred Lewert '10 was elected president of Fear Hall in an election held in the dormitory Tuesday night. Other officers were Henry J. Davis '11, vice president, W. Louis Corbin '11, treasurer, Sam Virgilio '11, secretary, and John R. Walford '10, A. A. manager.

Swing Is Only A Rhythm, Maestro Ellington Insists

(Continued From Page Three)

"Most persons have the mistaken impression that swing refers to a type of music. It's really nothing more than a type of rhythm."

Duke Ellington speaking, folks—Senior Ball Maestro, keyboard welder extraordinaire, father of "Mood Indigo," "Solitude," "Caravan," and other luscious smashes.

The Duke was scribbling off an arrangement at Rec. Hall before the Ball Friday night when he was snatched for an interview.

"Swing hasn't done a thing," Ellington continued. "It's nothing new; bands have been playing with a swing for years."

How about Artie Shaw and Benjie Goodman, Duke?

"Two good musicians as far as any preference is concerned, I have none, purely a matter of taste," the Jazz Maestro smilingly ventured. He continued his scribbling in one of the booths. A small crowd began to gather.

Tells Life Story Ellington drifted into the story of his life—quietly, modestly, as in his amazing story were a mundane ordinary record of an ordinary life.

Born in Washington D. C. in 1899, Duke "hung around" the piano, playing for his crowd, intended being an artist but his friends urged him to continue at the keyboard, organized a five-piece band, went to New York.

Played at Barron's in Harlem, moved to Kentucky club on Broadway where he stayed for four and a half years, toured Europe in 1925 but the going wasn't so hot, returned in 1927 to the Cotton Club where he scored a sensation.

Returns to Europe During 1931 toured the country, 1933 returned to haunt the Cotton Club, again, then overseas to play in England, Scotland, France, Holland. Reception "Tremendous," the Duke beamed. Back to the U. S. A. on a tour of the Southeast.

And the Duke with his distinctive style has upheld his post among the top-notchers! Songs Ellington has composed and made famous include "Mood Indigo" in 1931, "It Doesn't Mean a Thing If You Haven't Got That Swing," 1932, "Sophisticated Lady," 1933, "Solitude," 1934, "Sentimental Mood," 1935, "Caravan," 1937, "I Let a Song Go Out Of My Heart," 1938, and his latest released this year, "Prelude to a Kiss."

Appears in Pictures Motion pictures he has appeared in include "Murder at the Vanities," "Hit Parade," "Check and Double Check," and "Belle of the Nineties."

The Duke's married (he jokingly asked whether you'd be interested in his love life), father of a 19-year-old son, Jack, who's studying trumpet at Columbia's Juillard School of Music.

What about the future, Duke? "We've been invited for a month's concert stand at Carnegie Hall in April," Ellington'll tell you quietly "if it's not Carnegie, the boys and I are set to tour Europe again."

The Duke handed the composition to his arranger, sighed, smiled "Gotta take a shower now, it'll make me feel much fresher."

Ray Conger's Book, 'Track,' Is Published

"Track," a book by Ray M. Conger, instructor in physical education and athletics, has been published this month.

Conger, formerly a champion miler, and Olympic runner, last year wrote the book as part of "Major Sports," edited by W. L. Hughes. However, it met with such success that it is now published separately.

The book contains illustrations of champion trackmen in action and devotes itself largely to a study of the form of stars in different track events.

White Scholarship Applications Ready

Applications for John W. White Fellowships for graduate study in 1939-40 should now be submitted, it was announced by Professor Jacob Tange, Chairman of the Committee on Academic Standards.

Three fellowships are awarded annually to graduating seniors. Applications blanks may be obtained in room 409 Old Main, and should be returned by March 15.

Golf Confab Ends

Seventy-five golf course superintendents of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Ohio held their 11th annual convention at the Nittany Lion Inn from Wednesday to Saturday.

In connection with the convention, it was announced that the Agricultural Experimental Station has under way a program of research of superior types of golf course grasses and fertilizing and care of the dirt.

DELICIOUS HOT CROSS BUNS

FRESH DAILY PASTRY

THE ELECTRIC BAKERY

110 West College Avenue

JOHN ROBERT POWERS, the head of the world's best known model agency, when booking his famous models for fashions, advertisers and artists, says "The call is for beauty, poise, personal charm... the perfect combination."

The Perfect Combination gets the call...

Chesterfields get the call from more and more smokers every day because of their refreshing mildness, better taste and pleasing aroma.

The perfect combination of Chesterfield's mild ripe American and aromatic Turkish tobaccos... the can't-be-copied blend... makes Chesterfield the cigarette that gives millions of men and women more smoking pleasure.

When you try them you will know why Chesterfields give more smoking pleasure, why THEY SATISFY

Chesterfield

...the blend that can't be copied... a HAPPY COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

Copyright 1939, LIGGETT & MYRAN TOBACCO CO.

PRINTING

for FRATERNITIES AND CLUBS

LETTERHEADS ENVELOPES STATEMENTS

Nittany Printing & Publishing Company
110 West College Avenue

DELICIOUS HOT CROSS BUNS

FRESH DAILY PASTRY

THE ELECTRIC BAKERY

110 West College Avenue

Plumbing and Heating Repairing and New Work

Let "Mel" do it!

O. E. MAELHORN

PHONE 2214