Intramural Teams Near Finals In Four Sports

Seventeen sectional champions in the Fraternity and Independent Leagues ruled Intramural basketball with the completion of four inter-sectional playoffs in Rec Hall Monday night.

Speedily closing in on the eagers are the intramural grapplers, who, with the termination of the quarter-finals on Monday and Tuesday, swept into the semi-finals yesterday. Intramural volleyball and inter-fraternity table tennis are both moving rapidly, featuring crucial second round and quarter-final tilts.

On Tuesday night Alpha Chi Rho, section 2 titleholder, edged KDR, section 5 winner, 24-33. The sharpshooting of Jack Hess, who tallied nine points, aided Alpha Chi Rho in staving off a KDR rally late in the second half.

8 Teams Seek Leadership
Eight teams battled for leadership in their sections on Monday night. In the Fraternity League Delta Chi won the section 3 laurels by a 31-20 triumph over Beta Theta Pi. Phi Sigma Delta laced Tau Phi Delta 20-14 to capture the section 6 crown.

The Independent League featured Varsity Hall with a 28-19 victory over the Campus Center Club for the section 3 title, and the Lion Club overwhelmed Langford Lilies 35-23 for the section 6 award.

Sigma Chi, section 8, advanced in the Fraternity League playoffs with a 17-11 win over Alpha Phi

Queen Will Reign Over Festivities

Out from the deserted lands of the Far West and into the buzzing Nittany valley has come one Busby Butterfinger, far famed as a spots authority and well-known figure among circus groups.

Busby has consented to favor the public of this community by representing the Collegian as a feature writer for the All-College Circus slated April 22. At least once a week, cigar-puffing Butterfinger will come out from hiding under the tight wire and tattle off a bit of a column.

Busby Chief Stooze
Designated as chief stooze for this affair, following his prominent publicity job with Fleener's Dog and Pony Show, Mr. Butterfinger has already announced that an honorary queen will be chosen to reign over all activities of the evening.

Candidates for Her Ladyship, or something, will be selected from the various women's dormitories and fraternities by the women themselves. Pictures of each will be submitted to Circus Director Gene Wetstone, and forwarded to Robert Taylor in Hollywood. Taylor will make the final decision.

It has also been revealed that a loving cup will be presented (for keeps) to the fraternity or sorority which puts on the best act, in the opinion of Busby and the judges. Medals will be awarded to members of the winning independent troupe.

Clique Head Ousted For Incompetence

Stepping up a class, a five-way tussle looms evident in the sophomore Campus clique for the presidential nomination Henry A. Carson, George L. Parrish, Lawrence S. Driever, Edgar V. Hall, and Larry C. Higgins were all very much in the running at the last meeting.

Volleyball:
Intramural volleyball moved through the second round of a double elimination this week.

In Tuesday afternoon games, Delta Chi took Beta Theta Pi, Phieta Xi beat Beaver House, and Phi Epsilon Pi defeated Alpha Sigma Phi.

The three games scheduled Monday were all forfeited, Alpha Chi Sigma, Delta Sigma Phi, and Lambda Chi Alpha taking decisions over Tau Kappa Epsilon, Sigma Tau Phi, and Alpha Chi Rho, respectively.

Table Tennis:
With the completion of all but one of the 16 first round matches in the I F table tennis tournament, seven quarter final matches have been called for, the remainder of this week.

Results of all matches must be turned into Lewis Schollenberger by 10 p m Sunday. Scheduled games: First round DTD-Delta Theta Sigma Quarter Finals SAE-Sigma Nu, Beta Sigma Rho-Beta Theta Pi, Phi Kappa Tau-Phi Epsilon Pi, Phi Sigma Delta-Pi Kappa Phi, Alpha Chi Sigma-Alpha Zeta, Tau Phi Delta-Tri- angle, Sigma Pi-TKE, and the winner of the DTD-Delta Sigma versus Lambda Chi Alpha.

HE'S AMERICA'S FRONTIER IN FRANCE
F.D.R.'s Most-Telephoned Ambassador

WHO KNEW all the answers when that new Army bomber crashed, with a French Air Ministry officer in it? Who knows all the answers when the President uses the transatlantic telephone for feed-box tips on the latest European crisis? The answer is: William C. Bullitt, who went from Social Register to Congressional Record. Read his story in your Post tonight. First of two articles.

WHAT! Civil War soldiers raiding a tourist camp!

In 1939? Yes, it can happen here. And all because of a honey-colored blonde named Angel, and her vanishing $500 trousseau. Up to them, Prof. Lysander Markham had been sure the Civil War was over. Here's a story one part historical, three parts hysterical.

"SUBMARINE MAIL"
Spain's odd war for stamp-collectors' money

Because freak stamps bring fancy prices, Spain's Loylists engineered a neat money-raising exploit—submarine mail. A writer who accompanied the first cargo describes that hazardous trip through Franco's plane and torpedo-boat blockade.
