Lions Edge W. Md. 2-1 After Loss To Tigers

Big league hurling in Tom Watts and that traditional specialty of Bedenk nines, the "squeeze play," gained the Nittany Lion baseballers a 2 to 1 victory over the Green Terrans of Western Maryland on Saturday for their first win in two starts.

Lion Tennis Team Blanked By Penn In Opening Match

Although extending Penn's experienced netmen to the limit, the Nittany Lion racket wielders were blanked 9-0 in the season's opener in Philadelphia Saturday.

Five of the matches went into three sets but the Lions, hampered by lack of practice, failed to break the Penn winning streak. Summaries—Singles: Kline, Penn, defeated Capt. Hildebrandt, 7-5, 6-3, Capt. Forsberg, Penn, defeated Weinstein, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3, Bloom, Penn, defeated Goodman, 6-4, 4-6, 8-6, Boyer, Penn, defeated Arberg, 6-0, 6-2, Hirsch, Penn, defeated Hughes, 6-2, 6-1, and Kilgus, Penn, defeated Bigott, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. Doubles: Kline and Boyer, Penn, defeated Hildebrandt and Weinstein, 5-7, 6-0, 6-0, Hirsch and Dubiska, Penn, defeated Goodman and Hirsch, 6-0, 6-3, Herzog and Oppelstein, Penn, defeated Bigott and Hughes, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3.

Showing better form, but still weak in holding and hitting, (the departments which licked them at Princeton in the opener,) the Lion nine sorely needs a few days of intensive training and hitting practice before they meet Penn and Navy away this weekend. To date the weather has been rain and colder, permitting virtually no outdoor drills.

The 7 to 1 Princeton loss was attributed mainly to poor throwing to bases by the yet uninitiated Lions in the early innings. After a four-run dose from the experienced Tigers in the first inning, the Bedenkmen settled down to help Harry Bastian, successor to luckless Bill Neal in the second frame, hold the Orange and Black to four hits for the remainder of the game.

Score in 3rd and 7th State's tallies against Western Maryland came in the third and seventh frames, both as a result of "squeeze" play. Hard-hitting outfielder, Pennie Gates, led off with a double to left in the third and Harry Harrison followed up with a slow-rolling bunt to the mound. Harrison went to second on an over-throw by the pitcher and Gates tore home for the first Lion marker.

In the seventh, Harrison singled to right and advanced to third by a steal to second and a bad throw. Paul Menzie laid down a beautiful bunt and Harrison was safe at home by virtue of an overthrow from Catington, the Terror hurler.

Noneman, rightfielder for the Terrans, scored the lone Western Maryland tally when Harrison dropped an easy pop fly after a chase in the fourth frame.

Lacrosse Men Face Garnet

Doomed duty That has been the lot of the Nittany lacrosse men to date. Trampled twice by two of the nation's mightiest lacrosse machines, the Lion stickmen are set for a mighty effort to crash the win column at 4 p. m. tomorrow when they face Swarthmore on New Beaver Field.

The chief trouble with the "Thielmen" they play lacrosse only part of each game. Against St. John's, they played their more seasoned opponent to a standstill in the second half, but due to a first-half deficit finished on the short end of a 12-7 count. They held a championship Maryland team scoreless in the first quarter—and promptly went to pieces 11-0 in the second.

Tomorrow's battle looks like a close one. The Garnet stickmen, whom the locals edged 7-6 last year, took it on the chin from the Army 10-2, last week. If Thiel's boys find themselves—he says they haven't yet—they can win.

Spring I. M. Entries Must Be In April 29

The final entry date for all intramural sports has been extended to April 29. By that time, all entries and fees must be submitted to Eugen C. Rischhoff, assistant professor of physical education and athletics, in Room 214, Rec Hall.

Sports to be conducted are: baseball, golf (four man team), soccer (five man team), tennis doubles, and track. A trial tournament which will not receive intramural points will be conducted in badminton singles. Fees are $1 a team in baseball, golf, and soccer, and $25 for each man entered in tennis, track and badminton.
