Tossers To Face Wildcats Here

Between The Lions

Here it is, the end of my "Ascal" year's conductor of this pillar, of Penn State sports, and what am I going to do about it? That's what I asked me Wednesday night, and here it is Thursday morning and I haven't gotten a sensible answer yet. Boy, will I be happy when this job's over!

So there I was mulling to me about maybe exposing something or other, or telling all those off-the-record confidential remarks, or delving into my theories for running a better what-have-you. And then I realized if Nobody cared what I had to say anyway So I finally says to me "OK, Herb (I always call me Herb), let the things you've seen and heard about in the way of Nittany Lion athletes and athletes tell their own story, and thereby bid their own 'farewell' to sport in Penn State"

Before I allow the following Collegian headlines to tell their own tale, I do sincerely want to express the pleasure received from having been able to know and see in action the men who made these headlines possible. Now, hold on, because here we go

1935-36 Lions beat Western Maryland in football on first quarter safety, 2-0. Booters end third unbeaten season with 2-0 win over Navy. Lions lose final football game to Bucknell, 2-0. Cagers beat Georgetown, 34-33, when Michoff scores after game ends. State's application to join IC 150-pound football league, refused. Basketball team places second in Conference. Dickinson Win Jacks Lion Hopes

Bowing into college baseball against Dickinson Wednesday afternoon with but a few short innings of diamond experience as a freshman last year behind him, sophomore hurler Jimmy Richardson walked off the mound eight and one-half innings later with a four hit, 7-0 shutout victory on his record.

The Bedenkmen had a field day at the bat, garnering three home runs—by Valey, Gates and Brake, respectively. Catcher Valey's circuit clout in the fourth frame was with one on deck, the other two fence breakers were good for only one tally each.

To Battle Cats Hopes bolstered high by their second straight win, the Lion tossers will seek revenge against an always strong Villanova outfit here tomorrow for the 114 beating the Wildcats administered to State, last year.

Villanova rated tops in college baseball circles, recently knocked off a capable Manhattan nine, 13-2. Peiny Gates, Lion sophomore left fielder, played sensational ball, smacking out a homer and two singles in four trips to the plate.

Wenzie Steady Hitter Paul Wenzie another dependable hitter socked out two well-timed singles, accounting for one Lion tally and brought Gates scampering home with another marker in the eighth.

The left-handed Richardson pitched calm, reasonable ball and was never in serious trouble. Displaying form and stuff on the ball uncommon in a young tosser, he gives promise of being a pitcher instead of a thrower-inner, as Coach Bealen calls his hurlers.

The State nine looked vastly more polished in both the hitting and fielding departments than they did against Western Maryland here in the home opener two weeks ago. Catcher Max Valey, who replaced veteran Joe Gillespie before the Penn game last week, is fighting hard to keep his position. He accounted for two Lion markers with his fourth inning homer and also banged out a single in the Dickinson tilt.

Netmen Flash 9-0 Win Over Battlefields

Flashing their best tennis of the season, Penn State's varsity racketeers blanked a fighting Gettysburg outfit, 9-0, Tuesday afternoon on the Varsity courts.

Captain Hildebrandt, displaying his usual steadiness, took a three set match from Bullet leader Clint Henriksen, former I. I. scholastic champion, 6-1, 3-6, 6-1. Mac Vahstein at the second post and by downing Smith, 4-1, 6-2, and Jeremiah Goodman outmaneuvered Tillberg for a 6-2, 6-1 victory.

Del Hughes, facing veteran Bill Chester, Bullet three letter man came through with a 6-4, 7-5 win. Flery Gus Bigott was extended in his "chop battle" with Henry, 6-3, 7-5. Carl Aiberg found himself after a long siege of hard luck and dominated Colman, 6-1, 6-0.

In the doubles, Hildebrandt and Weinstein met stiff opposition from Battlefields. Hendrickson and Smith. The Lions' superior net play well warranted their 5-6, 6-1 victory. Goodman and Bigott downed Chester and Henry, 6-3, 7-5, and in the tightcap, Hirsch and Todd outlasted Tillberg and Colman, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Golfers To Invade W. & J. Pitt Lairs

With two victories tucked in its golf bag, the varsity golf squad will sail forth to Washington, Pa., and Pittsburgh this week-end for the scalps of Washington and Jefferson and Pitt.

Stronger than they have been in two or three years, as indicated in their 8-1, 8-1 romps over Rutgers and Army, the linksmen go with high hopes for wins over their two rivals.

Co-captains Jack Mahaffey and Bill Gross are expected to make the strongest twosome, followed by Bud Miller, runner up in last year's Scranton Country Club tournament, and Ken Klingensmith. The number five player on the team, Jack Brand, is a former PIAA champion and brother of Fred Brand, number one Nittany linksmen in 1932.

15 Lions Will Meet Nation's Stars At 45th Penn Relays

A determined group of 15 Blue and White trackmen left State College this morning en route to Philadelphia where they will challenge some of the nation's greatest track machines in the running of the 45th annual Penn Relay Carnival today and tomorrow on Franklin Field.

At two o'clock today the opening gun will be fired setting off an extensive 76-event program which includes special invitation events. The first special event will be the 120-yard invitation high hurdles in which 10 star limber-toppers have been invited to participate.

Nittany Lion Captain Miller Franzer will run in the second lane in the first heat of the 120-hurdle feature. In the same heat and in the pale position will be Don Kinzie, Duke Blue Devil, Southern Conference champion and Penn Relay record holder in both the high and low hurdles.

Nick Vukmanic, Lion javelin thrower, will be one of the six defending champions who will try to better last year's marks. Nick almost tossed the spear out of Franklin Field last year when he smashed the Penn Relay record with a heave of 223 feet 10 1/2 inches. The mighty Swede hailed the javelin 209 feet, 4 1/2 inches Monday, but when the pressure is on, records are in danger.

The versatile weightman will also hurl the discus and throw the shot-put in the other Carnival weight events. The Lions will enter a team in the quarter and half mile relays. The outfit will be made up of Walt Hosterman, Paul Staller, Van Hartman and Will Sutton, running in that order.

The unpredictable four-mile relay team will be made up of Charley Pierce, Graham Miller, Johnny Stange, and Frank Maule. Maule is capable of better time than the 4:28.1 mile he ran Tuesday, and Johnny Stange, the mystic mile, who pushed Maule to the tape with the final sprint, may surprise the fans tomorrow.

Running in the same event will be Indiana, last year's champion, anchored by Mel Trutt. Penn State and the Hoosiers will get tough competition from North Texas Teacher's twin cunts, Wayne and Blaine Rideout, who have churned the emdri mile in 4:10.9 and 4:10.8 respectively.

In a special 400-meter hurdle event, Sophomore Bob Hutchings will represent the Lions. The Lion Freshmen will enter a team in the mile-relay, and they are expected to perform well in view of the top form they have shown in trials this week.

The team is composed of Max Peters, Pop Thiel, Clem Henne, and Barney Ewell who will run the anchor.

Lion Stickmen Face Soldiers

"We don't expect to beat Army, but we're out to give 'em a run for their money." With this, as their slogan, twenty Nittany lacemen honored a rain early this morning for West Point, where they will face the mighty Soldiers tomorrow afternoon.

Army, rated with Maryland and Navy as the nation's top three in cross-country, figures to be too big a hurdle for the Nittanymen. The Colts triumphed Yale last week to take the title of 1932 and in a previous contest crushed Swarthmore, 7-6. Definitely on the upswing after a 9-1 victory over Penn, the Nittany stickmen are hoping to ambush the Soldiers. Thiel has been drilling his defense men in a more compact formation to face the fast-trotting Army offense, while the Lion offense has been sharpened in a series of scrimmages this week.

John Buckman, who showed up well against Penn Saturday, will match the trip in place of Alex Cowan, who is suffering from laryngitis. Al Blair and Dan Hess have replaced Benno Cramer and Roger Sharp at second string centerfield posts.

Cub Courtmen Report Today All freshman candidates for tennis report to the Varsity courts at 3:30 p. m. today.
