Commission Lists Room Standards

'42 Group Will Submit Plans To Student Housing Board

Standards for student rooms have been drawn by the Freshman Commission of the PSCA and will be submitted to the Student Housing Board.

The Commission called for "satisfactory heat, light, ventilation, and a respectable atmosphere" for every room.

To achieve these aims it recommended one center lamp for every room with at least one electrical outlet for every student in the room, all outside wiring be safely covered, a 60-watt bulb be provided for each lamp.

No more than 10 students should be asked to use one bathroom, the Commission recommended its standards also called for a change of linen every week and a thorough cleaning for each room once each week.

Equipment in the room, the Commission recommended, should include at least two feet of hanging space, three drawers for each student, a desk with at least six square feet of surface space for each student, and no more than two beds to be placed one over the other.

The recommendations were drawn up in a group discussion led by Adam A. Smyser '41, representing the Collegian. Smyser explained the progress and findings made so far in the Collegian housing clean-up drive.

300 Foresters Attend Dinner

Stewart, Clepper Speak On Opportunities In Field; Need Trained Men

A group of 300 students, faculty, and guests attended the 11th annual banquet of the Penn State Forestry Society in the Old Main Sandwich Shop last Friday night.

The banquet was held as a "send-off" to the '37 forestry seniors who are the last group of students who will ever attend classes in the school of forestry's little "pen grass shack," since next year's class will continue their studies in the new forestry building.

Arthur L. Bennett '39, longtime, introduced Henry L. Clepper, executive secretary of American Forestry and Penn State's forestry representative in Washington, D. C., who talked on the opportunities in the forestry field.

Following Clepper's talk, Bennett introduced G. Albert Stewart, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters, who talked on the part that the department plays in preservation and conservation of state forests and the work that a forestry student can enter after graduation.

"Choose a good strong organization, play an active part, and then carry it out regardless of the sacrifice," Stewart advised.

The political set-up of the department was depicted by Stewart when he said, "The Department of Forests and Waters must fight the political blister rust as it fights the white pine blister rust."

Watts Again Heads Penn State In China

Dean Emeritus Ralph L. Watts has been reelected head of the Penn State in China Committee. Other officers for the 1939-40 year are Sarabell C. Shirm '40, vice chairman, Prof. Roy D. Anthony, executive secretary, J. William Walsh '40, recording secretary, and Harry W. Seamans, treasurer.

Seniors Will Choose Gift At 7:30 P.M.

Student Cabin, Murals Up For Discussion

The Senior class will meet at 7:30 tonight in Schwab Auditorium to make final selection of their class gift. Class President Joseph A. Peel will preside over the meeting.

Several choices may be made by the class at the meeting tonight, though no indication has been made as to which will be the final gift.

One alternative is the proposed student Recreation Lodge, which is gaining impetus as a campus-wide interest. This project would cost an estimated $6,000 to $8,000 and has the approval of many leaders.

Murals for Old Main are another election which may be made. Campus support is strong for the murals, and although the class gift would not cover the entire amount needed for such a project, arrangements could be made for the balance of the amount should the class start the ball rolling.

Another recent proposal is the establishment of a scholarship fund.

Tropical Setting Is Prepared For Prom

Although she doesn't know it, attractive sophisticated Edythe Wright, featured vocalist with Tommy Dorsey's band, is taking a trip to the South Seas on Friday night.

In fact Dorsey's whole band will find themselves under tropical skies when they fill their engagement at Junior Prom in Recreation Hall this week end.

Palm trees, soft lights, Dorsey's sentimental swing, a queen of the band—all this and more are promised by co-chairmen, Jack Allen and Leonard Cooper. The Tullian Company, decorators for the Senior dance and I. P. Ball, has been contracted to do the decorating.

These will be a crowning of the Junior Prom Queen, Penn State's most popular "coed." A procession of BW and BMOG's will be led by the Queen and Penn State's best dressed man during the intermission.

Pope '41, Alice Murray '42, and Ruth Plesset '42.

Rowland Explains Income Tax Act To Professors

The Public Salary Tax Act which Congress passed last month to allow federal taxation on the salaries of state employees was explained by Prof. Charles J. Rowland of the department of economics in an address before the American Association of University Professors in the Old Main Sandwich Shop last Wednesday.

The act brings College employees into the income tax group. Prof. Rowland called particular attention to the requirements of the law which provide for the filing of income tax reports under the following conditions:

- a. Single individuals having a net income of $1,000 or more.
 - b. Married individuals having a net income of $2,500 or more.
 - c. Any individual, married or single, having a gross income of $5,000 or more.
- It was pointed out that in many cases returns would be required even though no tax was due. The new law, Prof. Rowland said, became effective as of January 1, 1939 and he advised Col-

Lodge May Be Located Near Shingletown Gap

Board Negotiates For Site On Tussey Mountain; Narrow Contest Field To Three

If present negotiations of the Recreation Planning Board go through, the All-College Lodge, proposed mountain camp for Penn State students, will be located on Tussey Mountain near the PSCA cabin above Shingletown.

This spot is easily accessible both to automobiles and hikers. It can be reached in ten minutes or less by automobile and is within an hour's hiking distance of the campus.

The Board announced that the student design contest for selecting building plans for the Lodge had been narrowed down to three entries and that the winner of the $25 award would be chosen within a week.

"Every year received," said Dr. E. C. Davis, chairman of the Board, "was an excellent one. The Board had difficulty narrowing the field to three. We are attempting to judge practically as well as general appearance so that we can find a plan which is adaptable to our proposed budget of $6,000 to $8,000. That plan will receive the award."

Contribution of the Senior gift fund to this project will be one of the motions on the foot at tonight's Senior Class Meeting.

'Twin Sisters' Plan To Help Transfers

"Twin sisters" instead of "big sisters" are part of the plans being made by W.S.G.A. for a better transfer orientation program next year.

Transfers will not be asked to come to school for freshman week, but after registration day a mass meeting will be held to explain W.S.G.A., W.R.A., college activities, and any other problems.

The committee in charge of the program is: Alice A. McLoughlin '40, Naomi P. Goss '39, Phyllis Szymankiewicz, and Beth M. Swope '41.

Sixteen Freshmen Receive PSCA Keys

Sixteen freshmen will receive gold keys for active service in the Freshman Commission of the PSCA. C. A. John Currier '42, president of the group, announced yesterday.

Those who will receive keys are: Henry A. Adams, John F. Beck, Harold J. Berger, A. John Currier, Jr., John W. Dague, Jr., John P. Gillespie, Jr., Monroe R. Katz, Louis M. Laushey, Walter M. Lewis, Raymond J. McCross, Jr., William D. Ritchie, Carl L. Schneider, Murray L. Schwartz, Robert T. Struck, C. Walter York, and Thomas E. Young.

McWilliams, Elliott Seek Presidency

Seniors May Ballot For All-College Candidates

Polls for the first all-College election of all-College officers will open at 9 a. m. this morning in the first floor lounge of Old Main. Voting will extend from 9 a. m. to 12:15 p. m. and 12:45 p. m. to 5 p. m. today, tomorrow, and Thursday.

Under the new "Constitution of the Pennsylvania State College Student Government Association," the entire student body is eligible to participate in the election of the all-College candidates.

Thus everyone, including seniors, may vote for either Howard C. McWilliams '40, Independent nominee, or G. Warren Elliott '40, Campus candidate, for the all-College President's post. Sarahell Shirm '40 is running with McWilliams, and Don M. Cresswell '40 is paired with Elliott as the all-College Vice-Presidential candidates.

Identification Needed
 Matriculation cards and A A books must be presented by each voter at the elections table and will be checked with the "Dem's" list by members of the Elections Committee.

Those who have lost either their book or card or both may be liable to vote upon presentation of a note from the Dean's office certifying that they are regularly enrolled undergraduate students. No proxy voting will be permitted. Students will vote on automatic voting machines, supplied gratis, by the Automatic Voting Machine Corporation, Jamesstown, N. Y., through Frank A. Stone. A model of the machine and a complete list of candidates as it will appear on the machine is on display at Student Union.

Attention of student politicians has been called to Article VIII of the Elections Code by the Elections Committee. Violations will be rigidly enforced. The section reads as follows:

"Penalties of twenty (20) votes each will be inflicted upon any party found guilty of violation, the following:
 1—Electioneering in Old Main while voting is in progress."

Group Studies Membership In College Senate

A special committee of the College Senate, to study proposed student representation in the body and to suggest procedures which would provide contacts between students, faculty and the Senate, has been appointed by President Ralph D. Hetzel.

The committee will be made up of Dean of Men Arthur R. Warlock, F. L. Bentley, Burton K. Johnstone, Marshall W. White, and Martin Laura W. Hammond and Harold Landwehr, who proposed the amendment.

Professor Landsberg presented an amendment to the Constitution at the February meeting which would add to Article I, Section 1, the following words: "and one representative, annually elected by the student body, without the right to vote." In the discussion that followed it was pointed out that although the representative would be elected by the student body he need not be a member of the student body.

Dean Warlock called for a committee meeting for tomorrow and it is probable that the committee will release their report at the Senate meeting Thursday.

Seven varsity letterman and individual medals were announced at a rifle team banquet held in the State College Hotel Thursday night.

Speakers for the evening were Dr. Carl P. Schott, dean of the School of Physical Education and Athletics, and Col. Ambrose B. Emery, head of the department of military science and tactics.

Gilbert G. Gault '41 and Benjamin H. Stahl '41 received medals for first and second ranking respectively in the Third Corps Area composed of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

It was announced that 14 members of the squad will receive medals from the military department. Coached by Major Donovan P. Yeuell, the team won 19 out of 25 postal matches, placed second out of five teams in an intercollegiate match at Pittsburgh, and placed sixth among 46 schools in the National Intercollegiate Varsity letterman are Grant H. Carpenter '39, George A. Benham '39, Gilbert G. Gault '41, North Z. Getz '41, Robert G. McCoy '41, Christian L. Martin Jr. '41, and Benjamin H. Stahl '41.
