Nine Set For Bullets, Owls After Upsetting Cats, 10-5

Bastian's Relief Hurling Downs Favored Villanova; Late Rally Wins Game

By BAYARD BLOOM

Triumphant, 10-5, over Villanova's favored nine here Saturday, Penn State's fast-moving baseball team will attempt to extend their three game victory streak this week when they battle Gettysburg here at 4 p. m. and Temple Thursday at the same time.

Carried by the brilliant relief hurling of slender Ed Bastian, the Lions lagged behind the hard-hitting Villanova nine up to the eighth inning when a spectacular six-run rally gave them a five-run lead which the Wildcats could not overcome.

Bastian, a junior who weighs a slight 118 pounds, replaced over-worked Tom Watts in the fourth frame, after a home by Art Vigilante with Mike Lazorchak on deck had given the Wildcats a 6-3 lead, and retired the next three batters in order. Striking out five Villanova batsmen and yielding only four hits in six innings, Bastian was never in serious trouble.

Exploited by Lion batters full four runs up to the eighth inning, hurler Joe Desmond, Villanova ace, was removed in favor of Cornelius O'Leary, after walking Paul Menzie and giving a single to Harry Harrison.

O'Leary started the Lion run splurge by passing Ray Brake, Johnny Wrigley, and Eddy Sapp in quick succession, scoring Harrison and Menzie, Matt Valeri clouted a single through short, bringing Brake and Wrigley home.

Fritz Seibel grounded out to second but Bastian made first on an error by Bob Bond, Villanova first sacker. Peeny Gates, batting for the second time in one inning, was safe on a second base error, scoring Valeri and Bastian Harrison, also up for the second time, ended the scoring spree with a high fly out to right field.

Villanova talked twice in the first frame, once in the third and twice in the fourth. The Lions, besides the six-run spree in the eighth, scored once in the second, twice in the third and once in the sixth.

Coach Joe Bedenk said yesterday that red-hot Tom Watts would start against Gettysburg while Jimmy Richardson, south-paw sophomore hurler would be on the mound against the Owls Thursday.

Watts has seen action in four of the Lions' six games, and Coach Bedenk indicated that he may again be relieved by Bastian.

Soldiers Down Stickmen, 10-4

State Lacrosse Men Succumb After Holding Off Army For Three Periods

Holding the Cadets on even terms for three quarters, a fighting State lacrosse team finally succumbed to the powerful Army machine and dropped a well-contested battle, 10-4, at West Point Saturday.

Army led off with an early tally, while the Nittanymen launched a swift counter-thrust as DeFalso took a pass from Wuenschel, pivoted nicely and slipped the ball into the net. The Soldiers, displaying a fast, dodging attack, stepped into the lead with a pair of goals midway in the second stanza. Big George Ritter lunged down the field and talked for the Lions. The Army stickmen chalked up another as the half ended. Score: 4-2.

Ritter, sparking the Nittany attack, slipped the pellet past the Cadet goalie for another score as the second half got underway. Things looked good as the Lion stickmen set up after play—but time after time hopes were dashed as that vital scoring punch failed to materialize. Threatening less but capitalizing more on their opportunities, the Soldiers rang the bell twice to pull away, 6-3, as the quarter ended.

On the first draw of the fourth frame, Buser took the ball from center, dodged his man and shot the ball to Captain Coskey, who promptly slipped it between the uprights—and that ended the game for Penn State. Putting on the steam, Army showed the real Nittany lacrosse men up and down the field, chalked up four goals (two on rebound shots), and left the Lions on the short end of a 10-4 count.

In a rough, exciting game, the local stickmen performed quite creditably against the mighty Soldier outfit. Buckman, substituting for Carter, was the best defense man on the field, with Ritter outstanding in center field. Bud Meyers played his usual brilliant game at goalie.

The team was weakened by the illness of Price and Cowan, which necessitated shifting Shap to Cowan's first defense position and weakened the center field.

Netmen To Face Bucknell, Tartans Here This Week

Attempting to extend their winning streak, Penn State's varsity tennismen face Bucknell at 4 p. m. tomorrow and Carnegie Tech Thursday on the varsity courts.

The Bisons, a consistently good aggregation, have a record of no defeats in over a year and should put the Lions to the acid test. But on comparative scores the Lions fare well. Roethke's charges blanked Ed Gettysburg 9-0, while Bucknell was victorious only 7-2. However, the proof is in the pudding and the Lions will have to play their best tennis to corral the Bisons.

Carnegie Tech's Tartans, hampered by bad weather conditions, have played only one game to date and were downed 7-2 by Duquesne. Included in the Tech lineup will be Naomi Thompson, the first woman to oppose the Lions since 1937.

Stickmen Compete For Two Trophies

Two lacrosse trophies, the first for the team selected as state champions and the other for the individual high scorer, will be awarded at the end of the current season by the Pennsylvania Lacrosse Coaches' Association.

REPEATS AT RELAYS

87 Squads Enter IM Mushball Frays

By BUD SMYSER

Eighty-seven mushball teams will enter an intramural competition this week.

The 37 fraternity teams engaged in six league games will be augmented by the entry of 50 teams into College competition this afternoon.

Because of the large entry Gene Bischoff, intramural director, will seek to facilitate the College mushball playoff by requiring that each team provide its own official and that games not played on the day scheduled will be declared forfeited.

Plans for the College competition this year will allow hunting and permit stealing after the ball leaves the pitcher's hand but will not permit the runner to take a lead off base.

Other College intramural—soccer, golf and badminton—will begin later this week or as soon as their leagues can be organized. Track will be held on May 10 and 11.

Alpha Chi Sigma took undisputed lead in the Penn-Allen loop when it scored its fourth straight victory by trouncing Delta Theta Sigma, 17-3, and Thursday Phi Sigma Kappa beat Phi Sigma Delta, 10-6, in the only other game.

In the Bee League, Phi Kappa Sig beat SAE, 9-7, on Thursday and took first place with four wins and one defeat. In other Thursday games Phi Kappa Sig knocked SFE out of a first place tie by winning 8-4, and Kappa Sig subdued DU, 4-2.

'Swing It'---They Do

Roommate Got Buser Into Game—Now He's a Whiz

"I roomed with a fellow whose brother—Ed Rumbaugh—was on the varsity my freshman year. My roommate went out for lacrosse, so I did too."

Thus Bart Buser, stick-swinger extraordinaire, got his start. And, undaunted by several cracked ribs in the '37 season and ineffectuality last year, the rabbit-like Lion first attack is playing plenty of lacrosse this season.

Bonquets to Nick Thiel: Buser will be eligible next year. He dropped out of school to work the first semester of last year. Coached the freshman team when he was ineligible to play last spring.

Rarity of rarities—he's a C and F'er who has a job lined up already—although he won't graduate until '40. His two big thrills? Scoring the winning tally against Swarthmore two years ago (we won 5-4), and scoring twice against Maryland back in his freshman days. He loves to talk about that fresh year with Coskey, Andruskius, et al—they lost both games but had a great season.

Vital statistics: has made the Theta Xi House lacrosse-conscious. calls Johnstown home. belongs to Duinds and Farm Nouts. used to play baseball. weighs 165, is 5 foot 10 and 21. loves to kick his bunkmates out of bed. can handle a lacrosse stick like Emily Post handles a fork.

Smiling 'Big George' Ritter Is Smooth Lacrosseman

Curly hair, clear complexion, toothpaste smile—no wonder "Big George" Ritter gets around socially as well as on the lacrosse field. If George wasn't quite so big, I might even tell the nickname his Delta Gam cutie calls him. but he's too big.

He didn't make out in frosh football. He didn't make out in frosh basketball. He went out for frosh lacrosse as a last resort and barely got his numbers. Then last year, as a sophomore, he received All-American honorable mention.

An all-around sportsman, he likes tennis, swimming—played intramural football and basketball. Ambition number one is to have an undefeated lacrosse season before he graduates. Fleetness of foot moved him from last year's defense position to a centerfield post this season.

Don't say anything against Bucks when Rit is near—pappy runs a Buck garage. Delta Chi's favorite stick-swinger hails from St. Mary's (best beer in the state), where he spends his summers—you'd never guess—trucking sewer pipe.

Vital statistics: Ritter tips the beam at 185 and looks it. is a member of Farm Nouts. has a brother out for '42 lacrosse. is a C and F'er with an average just shy of 2. stands 6 feet and will never see 20 again.

2 Hurdlers Stumble On Wet Track

Runners Fail To Win Single Event At Carnival

By BOB LANE

When the cinder dust had cleared and the 30,000 track on thustats were plodding their way homeward from Franklin Field's most colorful spectacle the 45th annual Penn Relays the Nittany Lion trackmen had carved their niche in the 1939 victor's tablet. Had it not been for Nick Vukmanic Penn State might not have received the honor of having a champion.

The sophomore spear tosser captured the javelin event with a heave of 207 feet 3/2 inches, far shot of his record breaking mark of 221 feet 10 1/2 inches which he set last year, but still far ahead of Frank Sullivan of Duke with a throw of 194 feet 11 1/2 inches who was a very poor second.

The javelin throw in which Nick gave a one-man show occurred on Saturday morning when the sun was shining brightly but on Friday the sun neither shined on Franklin Field nor on that little group of Blue and White thinclads as a cold biting rain poured down upon the track and proved a field day for the muddlers.

Two star hurdlers, Miller Frazer and Bob Hutchings skidded into the hurdles and spawled tumbling onto the squishy track. Hutchings sped over the hurdles and looked well on his way to a second place in the 400 meter hurdles when he crashed into the last barrier and failed to finish the race. Captain Frazer smashed into the third-from-last upright in the 120 yard invitation event, lost his balance, and ploughed into the cinders.

The only other event on Friday in which State participated was the one-quarter mile relay, in which Walt Hosterman, Paul Stuller, Van Hartman, and Will Sutton ran smoothly into a third place in the third heat behind Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. A bad pass of the baton from Hartman to Sutton slowed up the team considerably and probably cost them second place.

In the half-mile relay Hosterman, Stuller, Hartman and Sutton ran their hearts out but to no avail. For in that same heat Cornell broke the Penn Relay record with a 1:26 1/2.

The freshman one-mile relay team ran a sports race in which they waded hot and cold. Max Peters got off to an excellent start and ran his 140 in good time, finishing only a few strides behind the leader. But when Barney Ewell the anchorman, received the baton the Lions were behind at least 25 yards. Ewell ran the 140 like the 220 in a mad effort to overtake the leaders, but when he turned into the stretch he was completely burned out. He faltered, stumbled and then walked the last five yards to the tape. Ewell (Continued On Page Four)

Gridders Score With Ease As Scranton Bows, 42-6

By DICK PETERS

In case you're wondering, his name was Yantow, a tackle, who scored the touchdown against Bob Higgins' Nittany gridders Saturday afternoon. But Mr. Yantow's work wasn't enough to stop the high-riding Lions who scored almost at will to end their spring practice with a 42-6 victory over Scranton University.

Hitting pay dirt seven times, the Blue and White showed power in every department in trouncing Tom Davies' boys. The first score came after the Nittanymen had taken the ball on an intercepted pass by Wade Mori. Two quick first downs carried the ball to the 7-yard line. From here Big Bill Smaltz drove to the five and Chuck Peters smashed over the 6-inch line. On the next play Peters hit the same spot to score standing.

After the Scranton team had kicked to Peters on the State 70, the Lion machine moved quickly, with Peters tearing off a beautiful twisting 24-yard run to the Green 41-yard marker. After Smaltz had span through center for two yards, Craig White took the ball on a reverse and was downed on the 12. Two plays later Tom Vargo scored touchdown number 2 on an end-around to bring the total to 12-0.

State's second team now took over the task with Ickes, Ewalt, Rollins, and Gearhart smashing to a touchdown on a seventy yard sustained dive. Lloyd Ickes pounded over center from the 1-yard stripe for the counter.

With the Lion third team now in action, the Scranton team could not seem to get going and when Bournshew kicked to Larry Eigermouch on the Green 45, the freshman back juggled the pigskin to the 15-yard stripe. After Scranton had been off-side Bill Deblet drove to the two-yard marker and bucked over on the next play.

It was a few minutes later that the mighty Yantow came through with his performance. State had the ball deep in its own territory and seemed to be getting nowhere. Eighenough dropped back to the 10 to kick Yantow charged in as if shot from a gun and blocked the punt, falling on the (Continued On Page Four)
