NITTANY TRACKMEN TO BATTLE ORANGE AWAY

Cub Netmen Oppose Pitt In First Tilt

Bob Tresville Expected To Pace Opener

Opening the first regularly scheduled freshman tennis season in Penn State history, the Nittany Lion Cubs face Pitt on the varsity courts at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon in the No. 1 post probably will be Bob Tresville, former Georgetown High ace. The lanky colored boy has been showing well in practice and should hold up the key post in good style. Following him, the probable order will be Al Bowman, Chester McGarr, John Wessley, John Knoke and Roman Omolek.

The freshman squad has been holding elimination matches during the past week and should be at full strength against the Panther Cubs. Manager Paul Gels has expressed the opinion that although "not a world beater, the team looks strong."

Following tomorrow's match the Cubs have only one other engagement, an encounter at Gettysburg next Saturday.

Captain Ray Coskey has more minutes of playing time to his credit than any other man on the Penn State lacrosse team.

Lion Runners Down Spartans 74-57 On Monday

By BOB LANE

Sweeping 11 out of 16 first places and smashing four meet records, the Nittany Lion trackmen scored their second consecutive victory of the current season when they downed Michigan State, 74-57, at East Lansing Monday to remain undefeated.

Aiming for their third triumph as many starts, the Blue and White trackmen, 23 strong, will leave State College this morning to encounter Mary Glickman and Company at Syracuse tomorrow.

Nick Vukmanic was the outstanding star of the Lions' victory over the Spartans, taking first in the javelin throw, discus, and shot put. In the shot put, Nick broke the meet record with a heave of 45 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

Michigan Ace Out
The Spartans were handicapped by the loss of William Greer, top notch sprinter, who pulled a muscle and was unable to participate in the meet.

In the mile relay Coach Chick Werner combined Bob Hutchings, a hurdler, Bernie Kalmanowicz, a broad jumper, Bill Giest, a half miler, and Van Hartman, a quarter miler. Surprisingly enough, this Lion "foreign legion" won the relay in the excellent time of 1:29. With the exception of Hutchings who started the race, all the men ran the 440 in times under 51 seconds.

In the hurdles Captain Miller Prazier lowered his 120 high hurdle record from 14.8 to 14.6 as he swept over the high barriers to set a new State mark. Repeating his performance in the 220 yard low hurdles, Prazier topped the up rights in 2.8 to tie the record he set last year.

Aided by a moderate wind at his back, Will Sutton blazed over the 100-yard dash in the 220 he again proved his supremacy as he clocked 21.5 to lead his teammate, Walt Hosterman, to the tape in a thrilling finish.

Griest Smashes Record
Bill Griest smashed the former Michigan State mark of 2:01.1 in the 880 as he turned the two laps in 1:58.2. Bob Clark vaulted over the bar at 12 feet, 9 1/2 inches to lower the former Spartan mark of 12 feet, 6 inches. Van Hartman clipped the old State record by one second as he turned the 440 in 51.4.

In the party that will encounter the Orange tomorrow Sutton and Hosterman will again handle the sprints. Hartman, Kalmanowicz, and Griest will run the middle distances, with Maule, Strange, Henderson, Smith, and Pierce handling the distance events. Prazier and Hutchings will take the high and low hurdles.

In the weight and field events Vukmanic, Platt, Hanley, Bachman, Showalter, Beatty, Clark, Jackson, Doehnerl, and Moffatt will represent the Nittany Lions Michigan Meet Summaries
One mile—Won by Van Aulken, M. S., second, Maule, P. S., third, Strange, P. S. Time—4:25 (New meet record, old meet record 4:28.2)
440-yard dash—Won by Hartman, P. S., second, MacInnes, M. S., third, Hills, M. S. Time—51.4 (Continued on Page Four)

Cub Nine To Face Big Red Tomorrow

Still undefeated, Leo Houck's freshman baseball nine heads into the last half of its abbreviated schedule facing a duel with Cornell's freshmen at Ithaca tomorrow.

Ethel Hen White or Don DelManno will draw the starting assignment on the mound for the Lion cubs. However, Charley Medina, Joe Wilk, and Steve Cuzzi along with the squad's only southpaw, Paul Lazar, will be ready to enter the lineup.

Hal High and Larry Eigenrauch, who made good showings when substituted into the game against Syracuse last Saturday, will hold down the right and left field berths.

Others slated to start against the Big Red are Wayne Frempter in center, Steve Matula at second, Bill Debler at first, Frank Farris at third, and Jack Stauffer behind the plate.

Linksmen Face Princeton, Georgetown, Penn In EIGA Southern Championships

By ED HALL

"Of all our meets, the ones this weekend are the toughest, and of these, our first one, on Friday, is the worst."

It was Golf Coach Bob Rutherford speaking. He was discussing the triple-header the Nittanymen face today and tomorrow in spite of the amazing success of his charges, he was not overconfident.

The varsity golf team meets Princeton, tied with the Blue and White for the lead of the southern division of the Eastern Intercollegiate Golf League, at Ithaca this afternoon.

Tomorrow, the Lion tangles with Penn in the morning and claws it out with Georgetown in the afternoon.

Almost certain is the fact that if the Rutherfordmen are victorious on Friday over the Tigers, they will have a field day in their two meets Saturday.

Almost certain is the fact that if the Lions defeat Princeton, they will wear the crown symbolic of Eastern League, southern division, supremacy at tomorrow's end.

Princeton Toughest foe
But, it is the Princeton team that is the one most likely to provide that wall of granite which the Blue and White has not yet faced this season.

On paper State seems to have the superior squad in league competition, the Nittany clubmen have garnered 12 out of a possible 18 points to Princeton's 11. Three

Stickmen To Meet Hobart And Cornell

By BILL FOWLER

"Well," drawled the Syracuse coach after last Saturday's setback, "Hobart and Cornell look pretty tough for you guys. You'd never have beaten us if we'd been up to you."

Be that as it may, the fact remains that the Nittany lacrosse men did trounce the Orange, and the Orange had walked all over Hobart and Cornell in earlier games. The fact also remains that 19 stalwart Thielmen left town yesterday afternoon with a firm resolve to continue where they left off Saturday.

Still, it's a large order to whip two good teams on successive days—Hobart today and Cornell tomorrow. Judging by their 15-15 deadlock last Saturday in an extra-period fray, there is little to choose between the two.

Hobart, which the Lions tackle this afternoon, was undefeated last season, ranking number 1 among second-division teams. This year the boys from Geneva, N. Y., have stopped Union, Colgate and Lafayette, tied Cornell, and lost to Syracuse. Hobart's inside attack consists of three men who have played together for seven years—from high school up—and will bear plenty of watching.

Nick has the Indian sign on Cornell—they've never beaten a Thiel-coached outfit. However, all-American Brennan at home and Seeley, flashy center fielder, are aching to pull a scalp act for the Big Red.

The Nittanymen will be without the services of center-fielder Red Cramer, who was unable to make the trip. John Price and Roger Sharp have recovered from their burns and shoulder ailment, respectively, and will be back in the lineup.

Those making the trip include Al Blair, John Buchman, East Buser, John Carter, Mike Czek, Ray Coskey, Alex Cowan, Ralph DePalco, Hank Drake, Hurreis Freedman, John Genther, Andy Krause, Bud Meyer, John Price, Jim Riddell, George Ritter, Howard Rumbaugh, Roger Sharp, and Ott Wuenschel.

The '42 lacrosse men, 19 strong, will leave this afternoon to face the Cornell frosh away tomorrow. The local yearlings, victorious over Lafayette Saturday, are out to revenge last year's 16-2 trimming by the Big Red.

Harrison, Watts Will Coach
Harry S. Harrison '39, winner of the outstanding senior athlete award, and S. Thompson Watts '39, star pitcher, have been appointed to high school coaching positions.

Harrison will be coach of all sports at Hatboro High school near Philadelphia while Watts has been named teacher of physical education and coach of baseball for Millintown High school.

BETWEEN THE LIONS

With BOB WILSON Sports Editor

Impressions and Reflections
That tennis coach Ted Roethke deserves a 10-gun salute for moulding the net squad that is so proficiently representing Penn State on the clay courts this year.

That for once in his long career as baseball coach, Joe Bedenk has a pitching staff instead of what he calls "a bunch of throw-inners."

That next year's varsity wrestling schedule which will be released soon is a real giant-killer. Just to mention the home meets on the 1940 card should make you gasp—Chicago, Syracuse, Princeton, and the English Olympic team.

That lacrosse coach Nick Thiel has a suggestion the Athletic Association, phys ed department and all concerned should look into Thiel advocates bigger and tougher freshman sport schedules.

That if the rest of the Lion track team keeps up the blistering pace that Nick Vukmanic, national javelin champ, has been setting, Chick Weiner's thin-clad will go unbeaten in dual meets this year.

That if Bob Rutherford's golf Lions get past this week-end without defeat, they'll sweep the EIGA championships.

That there's a nut loose somewhere in the Administration when Sunday morning golf is prohibited and Sunday morning tennis is allowed.

The phys ed baby myth has been exploded completely, thoroughly and with the finality of a dropped egg!

In fact, the darned thing blew up right in my face about ten minutes after Tuesday's Collegian hit the street (something no other newspaper has ever done).

I haven't had a moment's peace since the appearance (in this space) of a story concerning one Mr. Al Michaels, his twins and their mother.

First it was the good doctor Leo Houck with "Whadda ya mean Michaels, was the first in the department to have a have a boy? I have four of 'em!"

I know, Leo, but don't forget that you've been in the business a long time.

Next was Jerry Weinstein, Centre Daily Times scribe, who chipped "What about John Lawther, Earl Edwards and just lately fresh track coach Bob Grievie? All have made boys."

You could have knocked me over with a fender. I had no answer. I had been duped. I backed away sheepishly, a beaten, embittered man.

The myth had been dealt a death blow. My whole day was ruined.

Today's column is respectfully dedicated to all the mothers who have Penn State athletes for sons.

Two Last Inning Rallies Win Doubleheader; Will Seek Orange Revenge

Bastian, Watts Get Credit For Victories; Neal Gives 3 Hits In Opener; Tossers List 8 Wins

Winning both ends of the third doubleheader a State baseball team has ever played, the win-hungry Lion nine made it eight victories to three defeats when they downed Pitt, 9-5, 1-0, at Pitt Stadium Wednesday. The Belenkenmen face Syracuse here at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Whitwicked 7-0 at Syracuse Saturday, the Nittany baseballers will attempt to avenge the defeat to the Mother's Day engagement.

Beautiful hitting by Ed Bastian, Bill Neal, and Tom Watts gave the Lions the defensive edge over the Panther nine. Two ninth inning rallies, one good for six, supplied the offensive power.

Bastian replaced Neal in the eighth frame of the opener with the score deadlocked at 3-3. Neal was removed for a pinch-hitter.
