Lions Meet Lehigh Stickmen In Final Battle Tomorrow

Poor Engineer Record Spurs Local Hopes; 9 Seniors Finish Field Careers

Determined to finish a somewhat erratic season with a victory over Lehigh, the Lions will cross sticks with the boys from Bethlehem on New Beaver Field at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

On the basis of a squint at the records, the season's finale looks like a local triumph. Lehigh, playing an unimpressive schedule, has bowed to Rutgers, Swarthmore, and Yale, defeating only Stevens Tech and Lafayette. In the last State-Lehigh battle, waged two years ago, the locals crushed the Engineer boys in a 14-2 rout.

Coach Thiel has been stacking his varsity stickmen up against the freshman squad in scrimmages all this week. The '42 stick-swingers, although their season is over, will be busy with scrimmage sessions for the next two weeks.

Krause Replaces DeFalso
Andy Krause will start in place of Ralph DeFalso, who hurt his arm in the Cornell fray. John Genter, crippled by a chafey horse, may also be lost to the Nittanymen.

The Lion starting lineup will include Krause, Coskey, Buser, Blatt, Wuenschel, Ritter, Buckman, Drake, Cowan, and Meyer. Plenty of subs will see action if the Nittanymen pile up an early lead.

If that early lead becomes a reality, a secret ambition of one Bud Meyer will come true. Meyer, who has long felt the urge to occupy a centerfield post, will be shifted there from his goalie position if old Dame Fortune comes through.

For the last time Captain Ray Coskey, Ralph DeFalso, Andy Krause, Ott Wuenschel, John Genter, Alex Cowan, Bud Meyer, John Buckman and Howard Rumbaugh will tread the soil of New Beaver Field.

State Runners Race Woodruff, Ohl, Tregoning, Boulanger In Battle For Eastern Crown

'LONG JOHN'

JOHN WOODRUFF
Pitt's Olympic champion who will try to repeat his triple wins over the Lion runners tomorrow.

Captain Frazier, Vukmanic, Sutton, Maule, Strange And Henderson Face Great Pitt Stars

An undefeated Golden Panther track aggregation heading from the lofty Cathedral of Learning will come into the Nittany Valley to meet an unconquered Lion machine on New Beaver Field tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock.

What will happen when a carnivorous Panther encounters a roaring Lion—Nobody knows.

The "Smokey City" tracksters led by "Long John" Woodruff, Olympic middle distance champion, will present one of the greatest arrays of track and field stars that have ever dug their spikes into the Beaver embers.

Two of the outstanding races of the afternoon are expected to be the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash when Frank Ohl and Larry Tregoning of Pitt tie-up with Nittany Lion Will Sutton in two events that will endanger past records.

In the 440, 880, and the mile run Johnny Woodruff will be a heavy favorite and the best of the Blue and White can hope for are second and third positions. The Negro star ran a 4:12.8 mile last Saturday when he defeated Indiana's Mel Trutt by one yard.

Captain Miller Frazier will try to make-up for the Lion deficit in the middle distances by taking the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles.

With Coach Chuck Werner attempting to whip every man into top shape for the starting gun, Bob Hutchings, Lion hurdler, suffered an ankle injury during the past week and it is doubtful whether he will be in shape for competition tomorrow.

Diek Boulanger, Panther two-miler, will give Johnny Strange, Len Henderson, and Frank Maule quite a run in that event despite the splendid showing that Strange and Henderson turned in at Syracuse last Saturday.

The Nittany Lions will have a decided edge in the javelin throw, with Nick Vukmanic, Frank Platt, and Dean Hanley all capable of throwing the spear over 180 feet.

Bob Clark and George Jackson, Lion pole vaulters will be up against Pitt's Jack Clifton in that event. Clifton has not been forced to tuck on the pressure all season, and should Clark get "hot" Clifton will be in for a busy session.

Penn State will enter the meet as the underdog, but stranger things than a Lion win tomorrow have happened before.

Lion Nine In Duels With W. Virginia

Watts, Richardson On Mound

By BAYARD BLOOM

Victorious in eight of their eleven tilts this season Coach Joe Bedenk's high-riding baseballers face the Mountaineers at West Virginia in a double engagement today and tomorrow.

"Iron Man" Tom Watts and sophomore southpaw Jimmy Richardson will probably be the hurlers for the two games. Coach Bedenk said that either hurler would be subject to relief by Ed Bastian.

Substitute for Harrison
Joe Nacheo or Walt Knaz will replace Harry Harrison at short-stop. Coach Bedenk said Harrison will attend a dinner in his honor at Philadelphia tonight.

The West Virginia outfit has had a hot and cold record for the season so far. They won and lost to Pitt, split with a classy St. Vincent nine, beat Temple, and lost two games to Michigan State.

Not too optimistic about the trip, Coach Bedenk was worried about Peary Gates and Captain Ray Brake both of whom had strained their backs. Sixteen players, including five pitchers, were aboard the State bus when it left for Morgantown yesterday afternoon.

Frosh Nine Faces Pitt

Wilk Will Pitch For Unbeaten Cubs Here

Then record still unblemished, the yeasting baseballers will defend it against a Pitt freshman team at New Beaver Field tomorrow afternoon at 2:10 in their next to last game for 1939.

Joe Wilk will start on the mound for the Lion cubs in his only other appearance this year, a last inning relief assignment against Kiskadee, Wilk faced only three men. He struck out two men and the third grounded out.

Otherwise, Coach Leo Houck will start the same lineup which won at Cornell last Saturday. Wayne Prempster in center, Steve Matula at second, Bill Deblat at first, Frank Farris at third, Fred Baldwin at short, Hal High in left field, Larry Eigens in right, and Jack Stauffer catching.

Cadets Top Penn State Netmen 6-3

Weinstein, Bigott, Hughes Win

Bucking up against the stiffest competition they have met all season, Coach Ted Roehke's tennis men came out on the short end of a 6-4 Army win at West Point Wednesday, as the Cadets continued undefeated.

The Lion outmen were victorious in three of the singles encounters, but were unable to penetrate the strong doubles combinations for a win. Point gammas for Penn State were Mac Weinstein, Gus Bigott and Del Hughes.

Weinstein Defeats Webster
Weinstein, flashing his best tennis, was extended to three sets but prevailed 6-4, 2-6, 6-3 by virtue of excellent overhead shots that kept Cadet Webster on the run. Gus Bigott had little trouble downing Mullah and took him in straight sets 6-2, 6-1. The final tally was registered when the third sophomore Del Hughes overtook Cadet Mount 6-2, 6-4 to continue his winning streak.

Summary, Singles
Captain Rollins, Army, defeated Captain Hildebrandt 6-3, 6-2; Weinstein, State, defeated Webster 6-4, 2-6, 6-3; Tindall, Army, defeated Jerry Goodman 6-2, 6-0; McCutcheon, Army, defeated Carl Aisberg 6-0, 6-3; Bigott, State, defeated Mullah 6-2, 6-1; and Hughes, State, defeated Mount 6-2, 6-4.

Doubles
Rollins and Webster, Army, defeated Hildebrandt and Weinstein 6-1, 6-3; Tindall and Evans, Army, defeated Goodman and Bigott 6-4, 6-2; and McCutcheon and Yanna, Army, defeated Hughes and Bob Kirby 6-1, 6-1.

Cub Netters Face Bullets Tomorrow

Facing Gettysburg's Little Bullets tomorrow, the freshman tennis team will make its belated opening of the first scheduled freshman season.

Having been rained out of their opener with Pitt last Saturday, the Cubs have been drilling daily to whip into shape for the Battlefields. Manager Paul Geis has selected a squad of seven men, with the last post rather tentative, to make the tip. Those freshmen who have shown the most promise are Bob Tresville, Chuck Bowman, Roman Omolecki, Bud Knodo, John MacGure, Henry Adams and Chuck Smith.

Sportography 'Speed' Sutton Shows Dust To Stars

By BOB LANE

His name is Wilfred Paul Sutton—but everybody calls him Will, not "Willie," he detests that. "Believe it or not," this Lion senior got his start at running by tossing a javelin and broad jumping.

One day during Will's sophomore year Coach Werner issued a call for sprinters. So just for the exercise Will jogged over and weekly inquired if he might trot along behind the speedsters. The finish of that race still remains as a nightmare in the memories of some of the older cinder track fans. Lanky Will came out of the holes last, but when he started to move he came down the stretch like the hammer of H—, passed all the men except one and pushed Frank Osterlund, former Lion ace, to the tape. Needless to say, Sutton has been a sprinter ever since.

Will has been running against the best sprintmen in the nation for the last three years, and although not always first, he has given many of the collegiate "big shots" some very uncomfortable afternoons.

Vital statistics stands 6 feet, 9 inches and carries 175 pounds. Best time, 9.8 in the 100 and 21.5 in the 220. Hopes to be a landscape architect. Hails from Cresson, Pa. Engaged to Dorothy Wall '38. No vice, does not smoke, drink, or chew. Musically inclined, likes to dance, sing, and play the piano. Favorite, Larry Clinton. Proudest possession besides Dorothy, a new Chevy.
