McWilliams And Shirm To Head Cabinet: Plan Formulated Last May

With the acceptance of a new constitution for the Pennsylvania State College Student Government Association late last year, the dawn of a new era in student democracy on this

This year marks the first attempt at the new student government which developed out of a complete reorganization of the constitution of the Men's Student Government.

No longer do two governments exist side by side, namely the Men's and the Women's All campus groups have been brought into one student government headed by the All-College President and the All-College Vice-President

McWilliams, Shirm Hold Office H C'ifton McWilliams '40, and Sarabeil Shirm '40 won these res pective offices running on the In-dependent ticket in the initial all-

College elections last May Under the new constitution, the separate governments of men and women students, the various school councils, fraternity and independ-ent mer's and women's organiza-tions Student 'Tribunal,' and ac-tivities groups were all brought into the All-College Cabinet. The Cabinet serves as the legis-lative body and is supreme in the government

A government council has been set up in cach school of the College, the classes are separately organred, and Interfraternty Council, Pan-Hellenic Council, and Inde pendenc Men's Association are tepicscrited
In addition, all activities are tenreserited in the Cabinet by the represented in the Cabinet by the presidents of the Women's Student Government Association, Women's Recreation Association, Men's Athletic Association, and the Penn State Christian Associ the chairmen of the Board of Publications, the Board of Dra-matics and Forensics, and the In-terclass Finance Board
