BETWEEN THE LIONS

Bob Wilson

Last Tuesday I promised you, my constituents, that in today's space I would spill the story behind the amazing success of Penn State's invincible soccer Lions. I am sorry now that I undertook to write this, for here indeed is a success piece that may out-success even the most fantastic yarn ever spun by Mrs. Aiger's little boy, Horatio.

Let's consider—first of all—something about the man whose wise and inspirational coaching has made soccer at Penn State what it is today—second to none! Bill Jeffrey was born at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1890, a soccer ball in one arm; a pair of hard-toed shoes in the other.

At 14, Bill led his grammar school team to the city championship. For six years after his schooling, he worked as an apprentice at a famous firm of marine engine builders, playing soccer on the company's team.

Toolmaker to Coach
A knee injury in 1912 prompted his divorce from the game he had played ever since childhood and Bill came to the United States "to forget about soccer." He settled in Altoona, a toolmaker in the PRR shops.

Unable to overcome his love for the sport, Bill organized a shop soccer team, handling the coaching and managerial duties himself. In 1929 Hugo Bezdek called him to State to assume the duties of head soccer coach. The rest is legend.

Attention: Mr. Pulitzer
Since 1926 Penn State teams have won three unquestionable FIS-FA championships ('26, '29 and '38), tied for honors with Penn in 1937 and Springfield in 1937, and tied with three other schools for the top award in 1936—six championship teams in 13 years! Ten undefeated seasons in 13 years! A total of 50 games without defeat since 1932!

What's the answer? Well if you don't know by now, maybe the inscription on the "little scroll" that was presented to Bill Jeffrey by his friends just last year will tell you.

To William Jeffrey—Varsity soccer coach at the Pennsylvania State College, Sportsman, Friend—We, in testimony of our appreciation of your splendid contribution to College Athletics, your service to Penn State, your wise and inspirational leadership which has produced winning teams without taking the fun out of the sport, hereby affix our signatures this fourth day of March A D 1939.

Many Reasons. But
Oh, Bill will tell you "It's smart, clever, heady passing. It's aggressiveness and determination to win. It's the higher percentage of good passes per man. It's the thorough fundamental knowledge each individual player has gained. It's because the spirit's there—or a hundred other reasons."

And Bill's probably right. But just why in the spirit there? The aggressiveness? The determination? The fundamental knowledge? There's only one answer—Bill Jeffrey.

MARYLAND'S PERSHING

Pershing Mondorff, Terrapin backfield ace, who comes to New Beaver Field tomorrow, is expected to show the wares for which he is highly-touted—crack running, passing, and kicking. Mondorff is a 190-pound senior and a baseball and basketball star as well as a gridiron stalwart.

Cub Gridders Battle Bucknell Here Tomorrow

Still licking their wounds from their hard-fought 6-0 loss at Cornell Saturday, Penn State's hard luck Freshman Footballers run smack-dab into the best Bucknell Cub team the Bison College has ever turned out. The game is slated to start on New Beaver Field at 12:30 a. m.

Coach Marty McAndrews will start the same team which halved Pitt 25-0 but only lost to Syracuse 7-6 and knocked Cornell all over Schoellkopf Field only to see the Bears push over a score on the Nittany second team. Bucknell boasts a 19-7 win over Army and a 22-0 victory over Scranton-Keystone.

Ralph Ventresco, Paul Weaver, Earl Brown and Bob Rice will comprise the Lion Cub backfield. Bob Davis and John Egli will flank the line, while Bob Peungin and Bill Hamilton will be in at guard. Joe Marcus and Ken Schoonover are slated for the tackle posts, and either Bob Brooks or John Testiet will start at center.

LION HARRIERS FACE PITT HERE
By ED HALL
A mighty hungry Lion is waiting patients today for tomorrow to roll around. The Nittany cross-country team, thwarted in its three victory attempts, awaits its last chance for a dual meet win this season when it meets the Pittsburgh Panther's harriers on New Beaver Field tomorrow.

Laid low by three powerful opponents the Blue and White hill and dalers have far from a "clinch" on their hands with Pitt's team.

The Panther's record is good, wins over Army, Fordham and West Virginia, and a loss to Michigan State.

Murphy at quarter will be remembered by State fans as a dangerous back, triple threat in every sense of the word. Certain to see action for the southern lads will be Pershing Mondorff, touted as the best all-around ball-juggler on the Dixie squad. Shaffer at end is a rangy player who scrapes the atmosphere at the 6 foot, 3 inch level.

Lion Booters Battle Navy At Annapolis

By ED McLORIE
Sticking up against a mediocre Navy team that may prove to be stronger than reputed, Penn State's soccer Lions will attempt to have their own little houseparty along the Chesapeake tomorrow afternoon.

The Lions will be boasting one of the strongest Nittany teams in recent years and carrying with them an unequalled victory streak, while the service school lads have turned in a not-too-impressive record this season. They were defeated 2-1 by the same Gettysburg team that the Lions had little difficulty downing, 5-1, and they also tied a weak Duke eleven.

During the State victory streak, Navy has been defeated by the following scores: 3-1 in 1932, 7-1 in 1934, 2-0 in 1935, 3-0 in 1936, 3-0 in 1937, and 3-0 last year. Which all amounts up to the fact that the Lions have amassed 21 points to Navy's two markers over a six-year span.

Considering records, Coach Bill Jeffrey's lads will enter the fray odds on favorites. But as Jeffrey told his players at the beginning of the season, "It more than likely will be a much inferior team that beats you." With this in view, the Lions will still have to be on their toes to guard against that inevitable upset.
