Harriers Enter IC4-A's Monday

Smith To Run Against Nation's Best Runners

By ED HALL

With the wounds of three previous defeats healed somewhat by the salve of a win over Pitt, the Lion cross countrymen trained themselves to a peak this week in preparation for their invasion of the IC4-A's in New York City next Monday

Bill Smith, IC4-A champion, will seek to duplicate his triumph of last year as he faces the best runners of the nation

Every team that defeated them this season and several outstanding squads not on their dual meet schedule will run against the Nittanymen

Competition Listed

Strongest teams entered against them will be Michigan State, IC4-A team champions last year, Manhattan humbler of the Blue and White several weeks ago, Syracuse, and Pitt

Individual runners out to beat Smith are Ray Fehr of Michigan State, nemesis of Mysterious Bill in the Spartain-Lion dual earlier in the season, Les McMitchell of N Y U, Smith of Maine, Cavalier of Syracuse, Elmer of Lehigh and Rendell of Alfred.

Lion harriers besides Smith who are making the trip are Captain Frank Maule, Len Henderson, Graham Miller, Arnold Olsen, Pop Thiel and Alex Bourgerie.

Grid Star Of 1899 To Make Army Trip

Earl Hewitt, who scored a touchdown for Penn State against Army 40 years ago, will be an official member of the Lion football party making the trip to West Point this week-end

Hewitt, who lives in Indiana, Pa, accounted for the touchdown which defeated the Cadets, 6-0, in 1899

That occasion marked the first of a two-game series between Penn State and Army The second contest, which took place the next year, 1900, ended in a scoreless tie

Lion Cubs Lose Final Game To Army, 26-6

Army's undefeated plebe football team downed a hard-fighting Nittany Lion Cub outfit at West Point Wednesday afternoon, 26-6

The game Wednesday was the season finale for the State freshmen as they completed the year with two wins and four defeats.

Lion Booters Meet Temple Away Tomorrow In Final Tilt Of Year

By ED McLORIE

The schedule-makers saved the best for last, but whether it will be for the best of Penn State's soccer Lions will be seen only after the Nittany booters leave the field at Temple tomorrow in the season's finale.

The Owls boast one of their strongest teams in recent years and actually present the greatest threat to the Lion streak of any team met this season They have lost only one game, to Gettysburg 2 1

It must be remembered that last year the Temple lads threw a scare into Nittany followers when they led the Lions until the last period In the waning seconds of the game, Gus Bigott crashed through with the winning tally.

Apparently not satisfied with the work of Zan Laskarus at goalie, Coach Bill Jeffrey has stated that he may use veteran forward Woody Wodock to guard the nets Senior Johnny Shaffer has also been given a "break" as he is included in the contingent that will enter Philadelphia with determination to make it the seventh straight year without defeat.

Nemchik Is Star

The Temple team is built around their high scoring forward George Nemchik, who accounted for two of his team's three goals when they defeated Bucknell 3-0 last week

Among the Owl's victims are Franklin and Marshall, Delaware, Dickinson, Bucknell and several other minor victories In addition to All-American Nemchik, they have a smooth passing forward line which includes a scoring threat in outside forward Burrowes

10 WAYS TO HAVE A GOOD TIME FOR 5¢

Any one good time for a nickel would be a bargain. But in this week's Post, you get at least ten kinds of entertainment, and a lot of timely information, all for 5 cents!

1. FOUR-WAY DRAMA. The leading story in this week's Post is recommended for (1) football fans, (2) engaged couples, (3) girls smitten with gridiron stars, and (4) fathers who have sons in love with the wrong girl. Read Yesterday's Heroes, by a new Post writer, William Brent

2. INFORMATION PIECE. Are you annoyed by people who know "all about the war"? You can silence them by revealing the important secret clause in the Rome-Berlin axis agreement. You'll find it in Demaree Bess' article, Mussolini Prepares for War A radio dispatch from Geneva.

3. FUN WITH OUR FOUR-FOOTED PALS. Note to Wives: When you see papa polishing his shotgun, quick—get him Vereen Bell's yarn, Brag Dog, to read! He'll end by wanting to own a bird-dog, of course But you can talk him out of that.

4. HIGH JINKS BETWEEN THE LINES. After the game is over, read Tom Meany's football article, Dixie Plays for Blood. Not that the South fights the Civil War all over again, you understand, but what's a kick in the face if the referee isn't looking? Sizzling football stories retold by a sports writer who's watched the stretchers go by!

5. THE WOMAN IN THE CASE. "His wife doesn't know it, but I hear Professor Lorber has been running around with that good-looking school teacher!" Is there a girl in your neighborhood the men all like and the women all hate? You'll recall her, definitely, when you read the story on page 18 of this week's Post, But Love the Sinner, by Eve Bennett.

6. PLAY GOLF WITHOUT AGONY. Ever play with somebody who keeps quoting rules—in his favor? Read Frank Bunce's story, Fore!, of the sweet young thing in red shirt and shorts who got even with the club's most formidable player—by being up on rules we bet most golfers haven't even heard of!

7. SHARE YOUR PLEASURE in the Post with others. Tell them how Father Divine produces thousand-dollar bills with the dexterity of a magician, to feed regiments of negro—and white—"angels" You'll learn how when you read Jack Alexander's rollicking article, All Father's Chillun Got Heavens—about the half-pint messiah who admits he is God

8. GAME OF LOVE: (Played by 4). Is an ambitious wife a spur or a knife in the back to a husband starting in business? Here's the bittersweet story of two husbands whose wives raced for "success" Richard Sherman's Won't You Walk a Little Faster?

9. BE A MAN-ABOUT-TOWN WITHOUT MOVING AN INCH. You can enjoy a personally conducted tour backstage with the First Lady of the Theatre. Read about the time Helen Hayes first met George M. Cohan; the time she played to cowboys, what happened in her first "grown up" part. (It's in the unique story of her life, by her mother, continued in this week's Post. Third part of eight.)

10. FUN IN TAHITI WITH NORDHOFF & HALL.

It may be raining or snowing when you take this week's Post home. What do you care? You'll be IN Tahiti having a gay time reading Out of Gas, the comic adventures of the Tuttle family. You're in time to catch the second part of this five-part novel, by the authors of those best-sellers, The Hurricane, Mutiny on the Bounty and The Dark River.

ENCORE! Don't miss the editorial on page 22, A Chance to Go to Work. And fourteen swell cartoons. And poems (we direct your special attention to one on page 24 entitled For The Agony Column)
