NO D -- ICE

TOMORROW, Penn State's ace hockey team-the "iceless wonder"-opens its season on the Hershey arena, considered the home rink, but more than 100 miles away

For over a month, Coach Arthur F Davis has been conditioning his squad on the hardwood gymnasium floor of Recreation Hall. Stick handling and puck maneuvering have been attempted, but all without Hockey enthusiasts had organized "make-shift" team last vear undismayed Ly the lack of facilities. This year's continuation of such a team certainly indicatean overflow of enthusiasm for the sport.

That ice skating, hockey in particular, is an excellent and popular form of recreation and healthful exercise cannot be denied Yet, ice skating, a traditional winter sport, has suffered along with other winter sports here because of the lack of facilities

If Penn State is to profit by its arctic. climate and the mid-winter sporting, exuberance which goes with it, some provision should be made for an ice skating rink.

True enough, the duck pond is just outside the borough limits and Whipple's Dani is only 15 miles away But the duck pond, fed by springs, seldom offers more than an unsafe, thin, rough layer of ice, and Whippie's Dam freezes in only the bitterest winter weather.

As yet, ice hockey is not a fully-recognized-intercollegiate sport on this campus. Some approval is given, however, and this vear's squad received an appropriation of

But $100 is hardly enough to finance the team, without contemplating the election of a rink with any part of that fund

If an elaborate rink is out of the question, the proposal for a temporary arena located on some of the athletic space which lies dormant throughout the winter (such as the football practice field, the soccer field, Holmes field, or even the tennis courts) might not entail too great an expenditure and would be worthy of consideration.

Fifty students who comprise the hockey squad would not be the only persons to use the ice. The project certainly would be all-College in its scope a E J McI.

IT IS DIFFICULT to understand how the Department of Military Science and Tactics is contributing to American neutrality in the current European strife by posting barrages of cartoons which deade Red Russia and Nazi Germany What is your opinion, Colonel Emery?

THERE ARE SOME PERSONS in town and on the campus who will be interested to know that the Student Housing Board has settled approximately six cases "out of court" since the semester began Even though the group is still waiting for a somewhat mysteriously belated recognition, it chief function thus far has been to act as intermediary and interpreter between conflicting parties. The need for such an organization is definite. Where is the sup-

Mad Russian vs. Madder General:

That ardent defender of the New Deal, that made Russian liberal, our own downy-cheeked, curly headed Johnny Troanovitch, is our hero of the week, for it was none other than our cute little es editor who did the seemingly impossible recently he actually stumped that blatant, red-faced reactionary, General Hugh S Johnson Johnny was covering the general's speech in Pittsburgh for the Press, and as Johnson ground his are on the New Deal, decrying centralization of government as dictatorship, our John burned up inside as only our John can Finally Johnson turned the meeting into an open forum, and that's where he made his mistake For young John jumped to his feet and in about thirty well-chosen words challenged the general's statements and beliefs in such a way that the usually over-voluble Johnson uneasily mumbled a few stood, then took time out for a drink of water ·For details consult Profs Law or Ferguson And if that smile the two Polits moguls are wearing amazes you, just charge it up to the fact that their boy is out gunning for reactionaries

Hero Worship:

Ital Kemp has an anonymous worshipper here in State College, judging from the letter we got today (and our first in three weeks)

Last week we chided M1 Kemp for a statement something about a in his recent Froth article smart "pediatrist" helping his feet Says the letter "Mr Kemp knew what he was Someone substituted an 'E' for an saying someone as resulted instead of

"I would suggest that the writer of Campuseer apologize to Mr Kemp "

So, Mr Kemp, on bended knee we humbly apologize for so wrongly accusing you of something of which you were entirely innocent

We won't bother blaming Froth for it this unsigned defender of Hal Kemp has probably bombed the Froth office by now

Music Hath Charm:

At last Saturday's record recital, Dickie Walters introduced Tschaikowsky's Violin Concerto, and told that the composition is so tender in feet ing that it has made ladies swoon. Just as the record reached its height (the swoon-producing sustained violin note), a puffing bulldog waddled into the 100m, sniffed at the phonograph, let out a groan and waddled back ou

WSGA HAS REINTERPRET-ED and clarified some of the more troublesome freshman regulations in an attempt to do away with the prevailing confusion and misun-
