Winter Track Team Goes To Ithaca For Meet With Cornell Tomorrow

Both Varsity And Freshman Squads Make Trip; Vukmanic To Compete First Time This Season

Penn State's winter track team, thawing out after a month's sessions on the outdoor board track, will make a concerted effort to "get hot" in a dual meet with Cornell in Ithaca tomorrow. Coach Chick Werner will take a complete squad of approximately 21 varsity men and a freshman team.

It will be the only real test the team will meet in the winter season as the only previous track engagements have been confined to a limited number of entrants. Tomorrow's meet will include all events of the outdoor meets except the discus and javelin throw. The sprints, however, will be shorter than those of the outdoor meets.

Hockey Team Meets Dukes In Johnstown

A much wiser and more experienced Nittany hockey team will take the ice against Duquesne in Johnstown at 8 p. m. tomorrow after two successive setbacks at the hands of semi-pro sextets in Huntington and Charlestown, W. Va. last week-end. Tomorrow's tilt will be played in the new Shaffer Ice Palace against one of the best college outfits in Pennsylvania.

The Dukes at present are holding second place in the fast Penn-Ohio League which includes college teams from the area of Pittsburgh and Cleveland. This will be the first meeting of the two teams and will provide a fair criterion for judging the comparative strength of the Penn-Ohio League and the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Hockey League of which the Lions are members.

Starting Line
Coach Art Davis has indicated that his starting lineup will be slightly scrambled but has stated that the likely men to open the tilt will be Lightbody at goal, Peany Gates, Ray Margerum, and Steve Matula on the first line, with Scrapy Dowler and George Wolbert on defense. This combination has proved the strongest, and since Oscar Smith, stellar right defense is no longer in college, Dowler has moved back from the line and Gates has resumed his old post at center.

Manager William E. Stohdrier '40 stated yesterday that if State wins the next two league games, the team will be eligible to compete in a round-robin tournament, for the league trophy. The next game slated for the Hershey Sports Arena is with Lafayette February 27.

Commenting on the team's showing against superior teams in West Virginia, Coach Art Davis said that he thought the team played its best games of the season despite losing 14-2 to Huntington and 9-3 to Charlestown. Outstanding on this trip, he said, were Peany Gates, Scrapy Dowler, Jack Bachman and Steve Matula.

Cub Mermen Go To Mercersburg

Will End Card Unbeaten If Victorious Tomorrow

Penn State's Freshman swimming team, so widely publicized in Tuesday's Collegian as having completed its one-meet season undefeated after defeating the Tech Frosh 47-19 Saturday, have in reality one more little hurdle before they can join the immortals—namely Mercersburg Academy.

Mercersburg, always a top-notch Prep school tank team and proving ground for many collegiate and Olympic swimmers, is reputed to be better than ever this year. They walked away with the Lehigh interscholastics a few weeks ago, and have mopped up every team on their schedule.

The Nittany Cubs will leave for Mercersburg at noon today, if they are not snowbound. The meet will begin at 1 p. m. tomorrow and Assistant Swim Coach Bill Gaskill will accompany the yearling mermen.

Chase, Shekley, Richter (an addition since last week-end), and Sweet will handle the lead-off 200-yard freestyle relay for State. Claus and Bertram will handle the 50-yard freestyle, and Sweet and Stern the 100 Taylor and Sharp will swim the breaststroke event.

In the backstroke it will be Ostermayer and Pottger, while Bertram and Steidle will swim the 220 freestyle. Divers are Chase and Scoler; The windup medley relay will see Ostermayer, Taylor, and Claus splashing for State.

Feature race of the meet promises to be the 50-yard freestyle, when Lion ace Ed Claus of Allentown churns it out with Ammond of Reading. Both boys are classy sprinters.

Wrestling

"Butch" Jordan won't recognize the renovated Elliott as the gentleman he defeated last year, and this bout may have the spectators rolling in the aisles.

After a year's leave in the South American jungles, Harlan Danner, Ann Arbor ace, will represent the Wolverines in the 155-pound class. After his masterful exhibition against Lehigh last Saturday, Roy Gensler proved that he has thrown off his recent illness and should be in shape for a battle at the 155 slot.

Scalzo Tries Comeback
Joe Scalzo will attempt to get back into the winning column when he tackles Joe Paup, runner-up for the Michigan A. A. U. title in the 145-pound contest. Scalzo lost a close decision to Lehigh's herald Harold Masem for his only loss of the year.

Jim Galles of Michigan and Chuck Rohrer of the Blue and White will provide the excitement at the 165 pounds. Galles holds the Michigan A. A. U. crown, but as usual, Rohrer can be depended upon to give a good account of himself.

After dropping a close decision against Lehigh, Lion Dave Waite should come bouncing back when he meets Jim Butler in a speedy 128-pound tilt.

Pointing for his sixth straight victory this year Eastern Intercollegiate champion Frank Gleason will tangle with Al Sargeant, Wolverine junior, in the 136-pound tussle.

Between The Lions

Cavaliers. The two teams have met in the ring four times in a series whose beginning dates back to 1925. The Cavaliers won that year and in 1928, and held a 15 1/4 edge in total points scored 1/2 over the Nittany men. The Lions won last year and in 1926.

In somewhat the same boat are Charlie Speidel's wrestling Lions who meet the University of Michigan's Wolverines here tomorrow night. The Nittany matmen won in '33 and '36 but faded last year and the year before. Total point margin for the series favors the Lions, however. They hold a 58-47 advantage.

Both old scores should be settled, but not peaceably, this week-end.

Technical Crew Is 'Power Behind Scene In Players' Anniversary Production

This is a story about the forgotten men and women of the theater. A tale dealing with a group of people who never merit flowers for splendid performances, and who have never received a curtain call nor the applause of a packed house, the technical staff.

In "The World We Live In", the Penn State Players' gigantic twentieth anniversary production which will be staged in Schwab Auditorium on March 15 and 16, the technical crew are the real heroes behind the scenes.

In order to produce the show it was necessary to build the set before rehearsals started, thus requiring the stage crew to remain here over semester vacation.

Lighting effects for the production are very complicated. According to Prof. Frank S. Neubaum, director, more lighting units will be used for "The World We Live In," than for any other play ever produced on this campus.

Probably the most difficult assignment has been handed to the costume staff who must turn out 75 costumes for the huge cast. The needle-threaders have been aided by the opening of their new "costume laboratory" in the sub-basement of the Liberal Arts building. Then there are the sound effects men who must be prepared to are willing to accept the bid of another house a "2" is marked. A second or third choice should not be indicated unless the rushee would pledge that house.

All ballots must be returned to the Dean of Women's office between 1 and 3 p. m. Sunday, according to rushing regulations. This office will serve as a clearing house for all bids.

Official lists of pledges will be available for all rushing chairmen at 5 p. m. Sunday. (This time is approximate as lists will be distributed as soon as the complete tabulation is made in the Dean's office.) All rushing chairmen will receive lists at the same time under a new Panhellenic Council ruling in an attempt to be fairer to both sororities and rushees.

A two-week silent period for new students who have not accepted bids will follow formal bidding. After this period, there will be open pledging and "rush-ing."

Freshmen with problems about invitations, bidding, or the financial responsibility of a sorority woman may consult a Panhellenic advisory committee of Juanita M. Chambers '40, Council president, Marguerite R. Schaeffer '40, and Harriet Singer '41.

Pledge ribbons for the sororities are Alpha Chi Omega, red and green, Alpha Epsilon Phi, green and white, Alpha Omicron Pi, red and white, Chi Omega, cardinal and straw, Delta Gamma, pink, blue, and gold, Gamma Phi Beta, mode and brown, Kappa Alpha Theta, black and gold, Kappa Kappa Gamma, light and dark blue, Phi Mu, rose and white, Theta Phi Alpha, silver, gold, and blue, and Zeta Tau Alpha, purple and gold.

Snow Is Deep, But Town Has Known Deeper Ones!

When the recent warm spell broke Tuesday afternoon with a resounding snap and left State College blanketed with more than a foot of snow, old timers recalled the last "big snow" of 1928 when Junior Prom imports were forced to prolong their stay after 18 05 inches of snow had been recorded.

Technical Crew Is 'Power Behind Scene In Players' Anniversary Production

Thus far the short, but concentrated snow storm which began early this week has resulted in a snow fall which climbed to 14 inches according to Prof. Clinton O. Cromer, in charge of the weather records in the School of Agriculture.

In addition to providing the weather bureau with reams of records and statistics, a heavy snow fall over a short period of time also presents a serious practical problem to the department of grounds and buildings.

Not only are there 11 7/4 miles of walks to keep clear with mechanical equipment and 1.24 acres of steps and terraces to sweep clean, but there are also roofs and fire escapes which need attention. Only half of the usual gang of 22 workmen kept on call for such emergencies have been utilized, but this squad has been working day and night since Tuesday at 5:30 to keep the campus navigable.

It will take at least six days at a cost of $75 a day or approximately $500 to keep the campus free from snow according to Walter W. Trainer of the department of grounds and buildings.

imitate insect sounds as they have never been reproduced before.

So remember that when the curtain comes down on "The World We Live In," and applause thunders through Schwab Auditorium, let's all take off our hats and given a silent prayer of thanks for the heroes and heroines behind the scenes.

Good merchant pack choice apples on bottom, too!

TAKE this week's Post, for instance. "On top" is Richard Sherman's newest story of marriage, You're As Old As I. But we expect just as many people will like the last story in the issue... a heart-thumping horse-race yarn by Borden Chase.

And if any one article is better than our lead article by Stanley High, it's the final one—a dispatch from Rome, The Balkans Play It Safe, by John T. Whitaker.

As Post readers know, "choice apples are found on bottom of basket as well as on top."

Such top-to-bottom, bottom-to-top reader interest just naturally causes advertisers to favor the Post. In 1939 the Post was awarded $11,000,000 more advertising revenue than the next magazine.

CAN MARRIED PEOPLE "KEEP YOUNG" BY TRAILING THE YOUNGER SET? What do you think of married people who continuously horn in on young people's parties? Here's the story of a husband and wife who tried to find the fountain of youth that way... and what happened to them. A short story in this week's Post, You're As Old As You Feel, by RICHARD SHERMAN.

I NEVER KNEW THAT ABOUT QUAKERS! Do you know how the Quakers can run a world-wide relief organization on an annual budget of only $90,000? How they got the Nazis' permission to enter Germany and to help the Jews? What they did in Spain?... An eye-opening article about an army that quietly fights for peace, not for war. Read 100,000 Quakers May Be Right, by STANLEY HIGH.

"SHE'S A CHAMPI!" "SHE'S A QUITTER!" Queer horse, "The Lady." She was a chestnut darling with the legs of a dancer, and each hoof left a print the size of a teacup's rim. A born racer—who mysteriously quit every race at the half-way mark... The heart-thumping story of a horse trainer who refused to lose faith, The Lady Was A Flop, by BORDEN CHASE.

THE MAN WITH 3500 VALENTINES. In a packer's paradise in two rooms on 42nd Street in New York City, Sy Sedman has an amazing collection of 3500 old valentines, a dozen of which appear in color in the Post this week. The unique story of a hobbyist who collects everything from fans and souvenir hankies to banks and presidential songs. See—Roses are Red.

AND... The exciting solution of Leslie Ford's murder mystery novel; another chapter in Dime Store, the life of F. W. Woolworth, merchant prince; short stories, editorials, poems, cartoons, and Post Scripts—all in The Saturday Evening Post this week.
