1,000 See Massey, Ex-Lion Captain, Win Pennsylvania Ski Championships At First All-State Meet Conducted Here

Sussmann, Crabtree Take Second, Third Medals As New York, Pennsylvania Skiers Vie For Honors

By BAYARD BLOOM
Paul Massey, 38, ex-Lion ski skipper and tennis captain, was crowned champion of Pennsylvania's skiers before an enthusiastic crowd of over 1000 spectators, one of the largest crowds ever to watch any skiing event, at the first all-state ski meet held Saturday and Sunday on the Ski Trail, six miles east of the College.

Cornell Tankers Edge Swimmers In 39-36 Victory

Thorpe Stars In Meet; Temple Next Lion Foe

By BAYARD BLOOM
Two men—one conspicuous by his absence, the other too omnipotently present—were responsible for Penn State's varsity swimmers' heartbreaking 39-36 loss to the Big Red of Cornell here Saturday afternoon.

Mark Vinzant, Lion co-captain and crack backstroke, might have pulled the meet out of the fire had he not been bedfast in the Infirmary. Gene Thorpe, Cornell captain, and one of the strongest, most enduring, and fastest swimmers ever to churn up a college tank, was the omnipotent Red.

Surprise of the meet, especially from the Lion outlook, was the performance of Don Delmanzo, Nittany distance swimmer. Although the amazing Delmanzo trailed the mighty Thorpe in both the 220 and 440, he swam 12 full seconds faster than he has ever swum before. He was beaten by a scant two yards in the 440.

Top thrill of the thrill-packed meet was the neck-and-neck 400-yard freestyle relay, which Penn State won by a stroke of anchor man Bill Kirkpatrick's sailing arms. Kirkpatrick overtook the Cornell anchor man to win by two feet. The speedy Kirkpatrick won the 50-yard freestyle and was edged out in the 100 by Thorpe.

Penn State's capable diving contingent, of Co-Captain Guy McLaughlin and Al Price snatched first and second places respectively from the Cornellians. McLaughlin garnered a total of 97 points, Price 94.

The Lions face Temple in Philadelphia tomorrow for their second invasion of the City of Brotherly Love this season. They were beaten by Penn in the opener there this season.

Intramural Sportlight

With activity in intramural basketball slightly curtailed by Wednesday's varsity encounter and other postponements, only 14 teams saw action since the last account was published. One of the scheduled games resulted in a forfeit.

Alpha Chi Rho, last year's champions, continued in the running in the fraternity league by defeating Phi Kappa Tau 17-10. Last year's independent league champion BRB also remains as a threat to repeat for title honors by downing the Landscape Architects, 16-12.

Results of the fraternity games: Delta Sigma Phi nosed out Sigma Chi, 22-21; Alpha Chi Sigma topped Delta Theta Sigma, 25-17; Gamma Sigma Phi forfeited to Kappa Sigma, and KDR downed Lambda Chi Alpha, 26-10.

Results of the independent games: Gables defeated Wherry Five, 22-13 and Dawn Five swamped Jordan Hall, 32-8.

Manager Elbur C. Purnell '41 announced yesterday that there are approximately 70 more games to play and that he expects to have the playing finished within two weeks.

Track Team Takes 8 First Places But Bows To Cornell, 65 To 48

Ewell Stars For Poorly Conditioned Lion Team As Smith Reaches Old Form, Nine Records Fall

By ED MCLORIE
Obviously showing the failings of proper conditioning in the field events and distance runs, Penn State's winter track team bowed to Cornell's Big Red, 65-48, in the Ithaca Armory Saturday. Despite eight first places and outstanding individual performance by Barney Ewell.

The Ebony Flash, continuing to display "Superman" form, captured first places in the 75-yard dash, 75-yard low hurdles; second in the road jump, and anchored the mile relay team to victory. In the latter event, Ewell received the baton with the Lions in the red by 10 yards, but finished 15 yards ahead of his Cornell opponent.

Nine meet records were shattered and although it is not definite, the coaches are of the opinion that Ewell's time in the dash equals the world's mark. The new dual meet marks hung up Saturday were: 75-yard high hurdles—Knoerk (PS) 9.4 seconds, 16-pound shot put—West (C) 45' 9 3/4", 440-yard run—Ziegler (C) 52 seconds, broad jump—Murdock (C) 22' 10", 75-yard dash—Ewell (PS) 7.4 seconds, 75-yard low hurdles—Ewell (PS) 8.3 seconds, pole vault—Bakura (PS) 12' 6", high jump—Krug (PS) and Murdock (C) tie at 6' 1/4", and mile relay—Penn State 3:28 minutes.

One of the featured events of the meet was the duel between Lion Len Henderson and Cornell's Willard Smith with Henderson edging ahead by a stride at the tape and Frank Maule running a close third.

Particularly gratifying to Lion fans was the return to form of Bill Smith as he romped in 30 yards ahead of the field to win the two mile run in 9:45.4 minutes. Another stellar showing was turned in by Dick Yohn as he ran a nip and tuck 880 yards with Cornell's Washburn, winning out in the stretch clocked in 2:01 minutes.

Two Virginia regulars, Art Lippink, 127 pounder, and Fenton Somerville, 165 pounder, missed the bout because of injuries they had received against Navy a week earlier. The substitutes for both were knockout victims.

The summaries: 120 pounds—Joe Block, Virginia, decisioned Vic Flore. 127 pounds—Captain Mike Cooper, Penn State TKO'd Clarence Calahan, who failed to come out for third round. 135 pounds—Peter Coy, Virginia, decisioned Frank Stanko. 145 pounds—Bob Baird, Penn State, decisioned Carruth. 155 pounds—Bernie Sandson, Penn State, and Captain Truman Southall fought to a draw. 165 pounds—Jim Lewis, Penn State, TKO'd Pete Berkey in 1 minute, 20 seconds of second round. 175 pounds—Ken Rathburn, Virginia, TKO'd Paul Mall in 1 minute, 30 seconds of first round. Heavyweight—Sid Alter, Penn State, TKO'd Charles Harper in 1 minute, 25 seconds of second round.

The act of relaxation will be taught in a special course at Columbia University teachers college this spring.

Soose Seeks Comeback, Blames Weight For Loss

Did the fact that he was six pounds under his regular fighting weight mean the difference between victory and defeat for Billy Soose against George Abrams on Lincoln's Birthday?

That is what Billy thinks and that is why the ex-intercollegiate champion has refused the suggestion of his manager, Paul Moss, that he return to Penn State and resume his studies for a medical degree.

For awhile Soose wants to rest and gain back the strength he thinks he lost. Then he wants to come back.

Soose thinks he has been hit harder than Abrams hit him but believes that he lacked the strength to come back because he was fighting at 155 instead of his usual 161. Spectators agreed that in the Abrams fight Soose looked skinny for the first time.

Whether he can come back as another question Abrams has turned Soose back twice, and this last time defeat came when victory might have meant a fight in New York's Madison Square Garden and a possible middleweight title shot next Summer.

Now Soose's record of 23 professional fights includes single defeats from Charley Burley and Johnny Duca and two beatings from Abrams. He has 12 knockout victories to his credit.

Mercersb'g Beats Frosh Swimmers

Clauss And Taylor Win Firsts In 45-21 Setback

The Penn State freshman swimming team succumbed to a superior Mercersburg Academy aggregation, 45 to 21, at Mercersburg Saturday afternoon, for their first setback of the season.

The Cub mermen were handicapped by lack of man-power, having only thirteen men on the team, all of whom saw heavy duty, while the prep school showed unlimited strength in every event.

The State yearlings managed to garner three firsts. The 200-yard relay team, composed of Sam Chase, Clarence Sheakley, Wilmer Richter, and Coleman Sweet, won in 1:48. Ed Clauss nosed out Manvel of Mercersburg in a thrilling 50 yard freestyle sprint to put the Blue and White into a temporary lead. The only other State winner was Ted Taylor who came through in the 100 yard breaststroke to beat out Bristol.

The other yearling swimmers to place were Morris Stern, third in the 100 yard sprint, Bob Ostermayer, third in the 100 backstroke, John Stiel, third in the
