BULLETIN.

In a nerve wracking, extra-period basketball fray, Penn Stäte's rugged warriors outpointed a stubborn West Virginia outlit, 55-51, at Morgantown Wednesday night. Scotly Moffat, with 15 markers, and Caotam Cliff McWilliams, with 13, featured the Nittany attack, while Johnny Barr came through with two timely baskets when a 47-47 deadlock forced the game into overtime.

The Lions

Big Mac

A man who pounds a mean piano, writes corny music, set a new eating record at the College Infirmary, idealizes Abe Lincoln, raised caives and sang in a church choir when he was a kid, holds golf as his favoratie soort, but is captain of Penn State's basketball Lions will be dubbed Penn State's, Most Outstanding Senior when he receives be dubbed Penn States, Most Outstanding Senior when he receives the annual Collegian frophy, emblematic of that fittle, in Rec Hall temorrow night.

Now what in the world can you say about a guy like that?

He'd blush if I were to hint that he is probably the hardest working leachers and the severity of the severity and the severity of the severity

he is probably the hardest working basketball captain State has ever had So that's out He'd faint dead away if I happened to mention just how proud coach John Lawther is of him. So that's out, too.
