Nittany Lion Grapplers Battle At Navy Tomorrow

Bergner Is Chief Threat To 6th Nittany Victory In Year's Last Dual Meet

By BOB LANE
 After scoring a smashing land victory over the Army last Saturday, the Nittany Lion wrestlers will go to sea at Annapolis tomorrow in search of a win over the highly-touted Sailors of the U S Naval Academy.

The encounter with the Midshipmen will close the Lion's dual meet campaign, leaving only the Eastern Intercollegiate at Syracuse on March 8-9 for the "Spartans of Spindel" in their quest for the championship.

Mat Line-up

Penn State	Navy
121—Hess or King	Landreth
128—King or Waite	Smith
136—Gleason	Fischer
145—Scalzo	Blue
155—Gensler or Alexander	Searle
165—Bohrer	King
175—Bortz (capt)	Taylor
Hvy—Valla or Mori	Bergner (capt)

Entering the Navy match tomorrow with an enviable record of five victories, one draw, and one defeat, the Nittany Lions will be aiming for their sixth victory of the 1940 season.

Frank Gleason and Captain Eric Bortz will enter the 136 and 175-pound matches with spotless records, and both grapplers will be battling to remain undefeated.

Gleason will wrestle Midshipman Fischer, and Bortz will tangle with Sailor Taylor.

Either Wade Mori or Joe Valla will shoulder the duties for the Nittany Lions in the heavyweight class against Navy's vaunted Captain Bergner.

Joe Scalzo will tackle the Middle's ace Don Blue in the 145-pound scramble, and Chuck Rohrer will meet Dick King of Navy in the 165-pound tilt.

Either Clair Hess or Midge King will take on veteran Gob Jack Landreth in the 121-pound class.

The 128-pound bout match will bring together Dave Waite or Midge King against Roger Smith of Navy.

Bob Searle, veteran at 155 for the Navy, will face either Roy Gensler or Bob Alexander in the middleweight class.

The Midshipmen are much better wrestlers than their Cadet brothers at West Point. Two weeks ago the rampaging Sailors downed Lehigh 17-11, while a draw was the best the Spindelmen could garner against the Engineers.

A malingering, a bully, a thief, but no fool is Sergeant Baistow (Wallace Berry), a Yankee prisoner of war in the miserable Confederate camp of Belle Isle in "The Man From Dakota," playing at the Cathaum today and tomorrow.

Centering around the Yankee-Confederate tangle, Berry highlights the fast-stepping action of battle, capture, escape, and, well, one may hardly guess all.

Swimmers Face Syracuse Here In Final Contest

Penn State's varsity swimmers patched their wounds and added superchargers as they prepared to battle Syracuse here at 2 p m tomorrow in their last meet of the season. The Orange-Blue tilt will climax the PIAA meet, involving more than 100 of the state's best high school swimmers, which starts at 10 a m.

Syracuse has decisively trimmed Fordham and Rochester this year and numbers two fine freestylers among its tankers. The Lions topped the Orangemen 44 1/2-30 1/2 last year at Syracuse.

Coach Bob Galbreath expects to start the same lineup which was defeated last weekend by strong Rutgers and Temple swim teams. Lehman and Schaper may handle some of the sprinting assignments, however, and Al Price is sufficiently recovered from his knee injury to take the springboard again.

Expect Fast PIAA Races. The PIAA meet in the morning will be conducted on time races, with two heats in each event. In previous years many better-than-college times have been turned in during the meet. Allentown, Lancaster, York, Erie, and Conellsville are expected to send the best swimmers.

Freshman Cagers Top Bisons, 46-29
 Triumph to the tune of a 46-29 win over a powerful Bucknell yealing five spelled "undefeated" for the Lion freshman basketball team on Wednesday night as they won their sixth straight game of the season.

The lead see-sawed back and forth during the first quarter to reach a 10-10 deadlock as the quarter ended. Accurate shooting in both field and foul shots placed the Nittany yearlings in the lead soon that, and Bucknell never threatened again.

Both teams missed one foul shot each, State dropping eight out of nine attempts and Bisons sinking nine out of 10 tries.

Earl Brown led the Lion scoring, sinking six field goals and three free throws for 15 points. Joe Culbertson led the Bisons with 10 points.

Following the Princeton match, the gymnasts will be idle until the Intercollegiate Championships at West Point on March 23.

After Monday's victory over M I T, the Lion air-crochats find themselves with a record which reads three and two, in favor of losses. Tomorrow's battle with the Tigers may add another victory, as the Nittany squad is at full strength once more with the return of Captain Merrill Beck to active duty on the parallel-bar.

Making the trip to the Tiger's den will be Feldman, Shmukler, Terwilliger, Lowry, Shaeffer, Beck, Gillespie, Weaver, Stahl, Sumner, Ward, and Loebner.

Eight Trackmen Entered In IC4-A Meet Tomorrow

By ED McLORIE
 A small band of studly Nittany trackmen will make a determined bid to leave the Lion's mark on the boards of Madison Square Garden in the IC4-A Indoor Championships tomorrow. Included in that small band is the favorite to cop the 60-yard dash, Barney Ewell.

Other expected outstanding performers are Bill Smith and Len Henderson in the two mile and Frank Maule in the mile. The other Lions entered are Joe Bakula in the pole vault, Orvis Krug in the high jump, Dick Yohn in the 100-yard run, Hal Thiel in the 600-yard run and Ewell in the broad jump.

Coach Chick Weiser stated yesterday that although the Lions pack strength and may show up well, they lack proper conditioning because of the poor training conditions and consequently can not be expected to win many events. Only a few of the performers have completed this year, except in the Cornell dual tilt.

Lion Hockey Team To Battle Lehigh

Returning to the ice hockey wars after two weeks layoff, Penn State's informal sextet faces Lehigh in the Hershey Sports Arena at 8 p m tonight. A previous league game with Lafayette, scheduled for Tuesday, was called off when the Leopard outfit was unable to travel on the dangerous highways. Manager William E Stohldrier '40 has announced.

ARE SORORITIES AND FRATERNITIES SNOB FACTORIES?

"TOO OFTEN!" says Margaret Weymouth Jackson in her newest short story "GOON CASTLE"

"NOT SO!" says University of Illinois' Dean Turner in his article... "AND SOME ARE CHOSEN"

ARE SORORITIES merely homes for moneyed-husband-hunters? Do fraternities foster un-American class prejudice? Or is all the hullabaloo over Greek-letter organizations inspired by the soured few who don't get pledged? Why does it so often end up with disappointment for the boy or girl, and heartaches for the parents?

A STORM OF LETTERS from readers came in following Mrs. Jackson's first Post story about Greek-letter societies, Many Are Called, a few weeks ago. Sticking to her guns, she now writes a sequel. But in fairness to the subject, we have asked Dean Turner to tell you frankly in this week's Post, what colleges think of the "snob factory" question.
