Women's Intramurals

The first of the Round Robin intramural BADMINTON tournaments was played off last Monday when Atherton East picked up a neat 5-1 win over the AEPHs. In the other matches, Atherton East fought to a 3-3 deadlock with Philotes, Mac-Grange swamped the Thetas 6-0 and tied Atherton Frosh 3-3, Delta Gams downed Atherton West 5-1, Philotes battled the AEPHs to a hard-fought 4-2 win; and Atherton West beat the Chi O's 5-1.

Tonight's the night to show what you can do in a VOLLEY-BALL game. It's playright in White Hall at 8 p.m., and the tentative list of eight teams includes the Thetas, Delta Gams, AEPHs, Chi Os, Kappas, AOPs, Atherton and Orange.

Seven teams in the intramural BOWLING tournament who are tied for first place with two victories each are Philotes, Delta Gams, Phi Mus, AOPs, ZTA, Gamma Phi and Thetas. The downtown team and the Alpha Chi Os are competing for second place. Eight teams who survived the BASKETBALL play night Tuesday and are still in the running for the Intramural Basketball Cup are ZTAs, Kappas, Chi Os, Delta Gams, Mac-Grange, Thetas, Gamma Phi and AOPs.

During the first week of intramural PING-PONG, the ZTAs defeated the Gamma Phi 8-0 and the Delta Gams 6-2, the Thetas defeated the Mac Hall-Grange team 8-0 and tied the AOPs 4-4, the Kappas defeated the AEPHs 5-3 and the Chi Os 6-2, Atherton East defeated Atherton West 5-3, the Delta Gams defeated Mac-Grange 5-3, and the AEPHs defeated the Gamma Phi 8-0.

Convention

The gathering of the past weekend marked the initial convention of the new association. All institutions represented will become charter members.

Nittany Stickmen Win Box Lacrosse Match, 12 To 9

Lions Take First Game From Yale At New Haven

Penn State's first attempt at box lacrosse proved surprisingly successful Saturday afternoon as the Lion stickmen triumphed over Yale, 12-9, at Paul Whitney Gymnasium, New Haven.

The locals, utilizing a fast pivoting offense, took the lead early in the first of the three 15-minute periods and were never headed throughout the contest. It was a close battle all the way, but superior stick-handling gave the Nittany men the edge.

Yale scored first, but Hoyt Drake and co-captain Bart Buser tallied to give State the lead early in the first of the three 15-minute periods and were never headed throughout the contest. It was a close battle all the way, but superior stick-handling gave the Nittany men the edge.

Barl Buser, sparking the Lion attack, scored twice in the second period, with Riddell and Hess contributing one apiece. Four Eli scores in the same stanza made the count 7-5.

Co-Captain George Ritter at center broke into the scoring with two goals in rapid succession in the last period, while Dattlebaum, Buser, and Riddell boosted the final count to 12.

Outstanding in the Nittany zone defense was the work of goalie Jack Yudin, who made a number of sensational saves. The team utilized a zone defense resembling that employed by the basketball quintet.

Between The Lions

"It finally came time for his last jump. Barney walked up to the pit, looked things over, walked away, suddenly came back and measured the distance with his eye again, went to the starting block and that's all there was to it. He leaped 24 feet, 8 inches and men some—added more than six inches to the old record to win the title. A real champion, that's what he was."
To which I'd like to add, on behalf of the school whose name Barney has personally advertised from coast to coast, CONGRATULATIONS, BARNEY EWELL... you are a real champion.
Athlete of the Week
Because of "Leap Week" and what went with it, no Athlete of the Week award was made week before last. Bringing honors up to date Bill Kirkpatrick, Lion swimmer ace, wins award No. 5 for his pair of individual victories in the 50 and 100-yard freestyle sprint events against the crack Rutgers tank team State lost to a week ago Saturday.
For his brilliant defensive work against Pitt Saturday night and his equally brilliant offensive work against West Virginia the previous Wednesday, Johnny Barr, author of nearly every Penn State basketball success this season, receives Athlete of the Week award No. 6.
Playing three quarters of the game with a painfully sprained ankle, Barr scored 14 points in leading the Lions to a triumph over Pitt.

U. S. Asks Haley's Advice

Accepting an invitation from the Federal Bureau of Plant Industry, Dr. D. E. Haley, department of agricultural biochemistry, will go to Washington, D. C., next week to confer with the bureau on problems concerning Pennsylvania tobacco.
The national junior college enrollment has increased from 195-588 to 196,510 in the past year, an increase of 26.4 per cent.

Intramural Sportlight

As intramural basketball draws rapidly to a grand finale, 1M wrestlers got under way during the past week, with 42 fraternity bouts run off up to Sunday night.

Thirteen cage teams, nine fraternity and four independent, were crowned champs of their sectional leagues late last week, and quarter finals and some semi-finals were wound up Sunday and yesterday.

In independent competition, Varsity Hall advanced to the finals Sunday afternoon by topping Dawn Five, 13-9. BRB Club, defending independent titleholders, met Jordan Hall "B" last night in the other independent semi-final match.

Over in the fraternity play-offs, Kappa Sigma moved into the quarter finals Sunday with a win over SPE, 16-8. Other fraternity loop winners who will be in the play-offs this week are Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Pi, SAE, Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Sigma Delta, Phi Mu Delta, and Delta Tau Delta.

Sid Miller '40 Cops Hillel Ping-Pong Championship

Sid Miller '40, Beta Sigma Rho, defeated Larry Ford '40, Phi Sigma Delta, this week to cop the Hillel ping-pong singles championship from a field of 58 contestants.
