Battle On Beaver Field Will Open Spring Schedule

Jack McHugh And Sophomore Jim Ritter Break Into Starting Lineup; Lion Hopes Rest On Co-Captains Bart Buser And George Ritter

Spring sports will get officially under way here at 2 30 p m tomorrow when Nick Thiel's varsity lacrosse team crosses clubs with an invading Hobart College ten. The match will be played on the New Beaver Field unless more rain turns the greensward into a muddy pool. If the weather is bad, the game will be played on the golf course practice field.

Two changes in his starting lineup were indicated by Coach Thiel late in the week, when he said that Jack McHugh would displace Hot Drake at the point position, with Jim Ritter, brother of Co-captain George, taking over the second attack post held earlier by Danny Hess. This change would make the younger Ritter the only sophomore in the opening Lion ten.

Chief Lion hopes will be on Co-captain Bart Buser and George Ritter, of whom Thiel has been speaking very highly. Nick believes Buser to be one of the best stick-handlers in intercollegiate competition, while he says Ritter should make All-American with ease this year.

Beat Lions in '39
 Hobart's team, built around a nucleus of six veterans, will come here tomorrow in the worst condition of any Hobart team in many years, due to lack of practice. In the past two years, Coach Babe Kraus' men have dropped only one game, and last year took the measure of the Lions, 12-6.

BUSBY SAYS - - -

Yes, these things are really buzzing up at Wreck Haul these days with me and my pal Gene Wetstone getting ready for our second All-college Circus on April 27. Everyone is hammering and tumbling and doing all kinds of tricks so as the Circus will be another repeater like last year's success.

I blew into town last weekend and Gene established me in my new office under the baseball grandstand. He said something about a foul ball which I didn't get but anyways if you want to drop up and give me any ideas on the Circus my office hours are from noon (when I get up) until 1 p m when I go back to bed. I am kind of hibernating till Circus time as Wetstone says those Nulseys may have some spies around to take me back to Germany.

I did slip down to Wreck Haul Monday night to get my picture snapped. This guy Stover says he never saw a profile like mine since he took a picture of the Graf Zeppelin. Some of the other guys who are going to be in the Circus were there too, including Billy Jeffries, who is going to be master of ceremonies or something. I was supposed to have that job this year, but Wetstone says I talk so much that the show would probably last so long it would interfere with May Day plans.

Soose took an easy decision in the 10-round windup at Youngstown but had to give up a fight with Jimmy Reeves at Cleveland on March 27 because of his cheek injury.
