Lions Face Hard-Hitting Syracuse Team At Home After 5-2 Victory Over West Virginia Extends Streak

Richardson's Five-Hit Pitching Features Mountaineer Win; Medlar Slated To Hurl

By ROSS LEHMAN
 Gaining momentum after tripping the lanky West Virginia Mountaineers, 5-2, Friday, the Nittany baseball team will seek their fourth consecutive victory against a hard-hitting Syracuse team on New Beaver Field at 4 p. m. tomorrow, Saturday's game with the Mountaineers was called off because of cold weather.

Shut out, 10-0, and limited to four singles in last year's contest against the Orange squad, the Lions will count on Sophomore Chuck Medlar to lengthen their victory string of 23 wins in 28 games against Syracuse competition.

A Mountaineer two-run rally in the ninth could not overcome the five-run lead that the Lions piled up in early innings.

Swarthmore Game Postponed

Penn, Navy Down Lacrosse Team In Weekend Tilts
Lions Seek First Win Against Swarthmore

By JOHN BAER
 Stopped twice in their weekend quest for victory, 6-5 by Penn and 10-1 by Navy, the Lion lacrosse team will continue their campaign against Swarthmore on New Beaver Field at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

The Nittany team will be seeking not only its first victory of the season but revenge for last year's 7-6 defeat. Since 1917, the Lions have won four games and the Garnet three.

At Philadelphia Friday, the stickmen battled in mud which made River Field live to its name, but Penn piled up four goals in the second quarter to edge the Lions by a point.

Co-captain Bart Buser scored twice to pace the Nittany scorers. Co-captain George Ritter, Jim Riddell, and Bud Dattelbaum contributed the other tallies.

Against Navy the stickmen met a veteran team led by Capt. Ed Gillette and All-American Jerry Hedrick who sparked the Middies to a one-sided victory. Buser counted the only Lion tally as he scored on an outside shot two minutes before the end of the game.

Untried Sophomore Talent To Decide Tennis Outlook

The boys are in better condition right now than they were at the same time last year but with three or four sophomores playing their first match the outlook for the Penn and Lehigh matches this weekend is anything but bright.

Coach Ted Roethke said as he watched the netmen going through their paces yesterday afternoon. With bad weather once again forcing the squad indoors Friday and Saturday, 25 aspirants are still battling for positions in the undecided lineup. Coach Roethke is concentrating on developing three well-balanced doubles combinations to cope with one of the toughest tennis schedules in the East. Besides Penn and Lehigh, the varsity racquetballers face Army, Navy, and Cornell, all three perennial tennis strongholds.

While a victory over Penn, recent 8-1 conqueror of Lehigh, is remote, several Lion netmen are likely to give their Quaker City opponents stiff competition. Four of last year's matches went into extra sets despite the 3-0 defeat.

Weather Handicaps Track Practice As Drake And Penn Relays Near

A biting wind and freezing temperatures have combined to make outdoor practice impossible for Penn State's trackmen who are slated to enter the Penn and Drake Relays on April 26 and 27, only 10 days away.

It was only two weeks ago that the Lions were able to begin using the cinder track and last week the weather again deprived the team of much needed practice.

The Lion team making the Penn trip has not yet been selected but time trials will be held Saturday, according to Coach Werner.

Weather Delays Varsity Links Team Selection

Positions on the varsity golf team, which meets the "Pitt Links" Saturday, will be determined by play-offs early this week if the wintry weather that has held up practice clears.

Co-captains Kenny Klingensmith and Bud Miller, Scotty Maxwell, Bill Hubler, and Jack Brand are the veterans on whom Coach Bob Rutherford, Sr., will depend if the weather does not clear sufficiently to permit play-offs. In this case, one other man will be picked from the other varsity aspirants to fill out the six-man team.

Blues Down Greens, 12-0, In Intra-Squad Football

Hampered by a blinding Spring snow storm which made a wide open running and passing game impossible, the Blue team composed of last year's veterans defeated the Green aggregation 12 to 0, in the second intra-squad football game on Saturday.

A short pass to the flat, Chuck Peters to Craig White, mid-way in the practice session proved good for the initial touchdown. Bill Smaltz passed to Lloyd Parsons for a 15-yard gain and Peters skirted around his left end for 20 more yards to pave way for the tally.

Earl Brown, promising back from last year's freshman team, scored the second and final six-pointer of the day for the Blues when he pushed his way into touchdown territory from the 12-yard marker after eluding several tacklers. With most of the holdovers missing from the lineup, the Blues completed a successful drive featured by Bob Rice's 20-yard slash off tackle and a 15-yard advance by Bill Bailey on a fake pass.
