Lion Gridders Defeat St. Vincent, 24-0, To End Spring Football Practice

With the reserves playing leading roles, Penn State's football team put the finishing touch to its spring football program, with a decisive 24-0 victory over St. Vincent College in a practice game on New Beaver Field Saturday.

Tom Vargo, veteran end, scored the initial touchdown in the first quarter on an end-around play from the 12-yard line following a 50-yard drive.

A 30-yard reverse by Len Krouse and line-plunging by Ralph Ventresco set up the second tally in the second period. Ventresco bucked over for the six-pointer.

Following a scoreless third period, the Lions came back to score twice in the final quarter to boost the score to 24 points. On the first play of the final session, Bob Rice, promising freshman, swept around his left end and ran 70 yards for a touchdown.

Two long-gainers set the stage for the last score. Krouse made 30 yards on a reverse and then caught a pass from Bill Smaltz for 20 more. Smaltz then bucked over left tackle for the final six points.

'43 Nine Tops Army, 18-4; Mercersburg Next Foe

Starting their season with a rapid 18-4 victory over the Army, the yearling Lion baseball team defeated the Army plebes in a one-sided slugfest, 18-4, at West Point Saturday afternoon and served a warning to a strong Mercersburg nine whom they meet on Saturday.

Proving that the freshman hurling staff is destined to be one of the most potential in years, Al Maurer, Ed Tulera, and Smith, allowed the Cadet cubs only four hits in their three-inning duties.

Fresh on Batting Spree
Although he used 16 men to ease up on the beaten plebes, Leo Houck's charges refused to halt their batting spree when they tallied their first two runs in the second inning, one more in the third, rushed six across the plate in the fourth, and then scored a flurry of nine runs in the last four innings.

DAILY COLLEGIAN

In addition, a Graduate Advisor for the Collegian is to be provided whose duties will be to serve as a coordinator between the undergraduate managing board and the Board of Directors.

No change will be made in the personnel of the present undergraduate board and the Board of Directors will in no way affect or influence the elections of any staff members.

Students on Board
At that time directors will be named including five student members, Editor, business manager, women's editor, all-College president, and WSGA president and men selected from the reorganization committee.

Incorporators for the new venture will be Banner, Clark, Davis, Eck, Neil M. Fleming, Gardner, Riley, and Warnock. These men will serve as a temporary board until the courts approve the charter.

Subscriptions will be solicited as in the past with the rate of $2.50 per year remaining the same. Mail subscription rates, however, will be higher.

To perpetuate the permanency of the Collegian as a continuing structure from year to year, to relieve the College administration from any direct responsibility, and to permit the financial background necessary for a daily, the publication is organizing as a non-profit corporation with a Board of Directors.

BASEBALL

sluggers Truhn, Debler, Gates, and Medlar each made two hits against the Cadets.

Chuck Medlar gained his second triumph of the season but had to be relieved by Ed Bastian after he suddenly became wild and walked three straight Soldiers in the fifth inning with none out. Bastian retired the next three men in order by making the first two batters ground to Paul Menzies, and the third hitter lift a weak fly to Truhn.

Richardson Leads Staff
"Slim" Jim Richardson now leads State's pitching staff with three victories while Bastian and Medlar each have two wins. Medlar suffered the only defeat at the hands of Princeton in the opening game.

For the first time this season, Ken Truhn has been the only Lion to surpass the 400 mark in batting averages. Truhn is batting .437 in eight games. Bud Sherwin and Gates are tied for basestealing honors with seven pilferings apiece.

Unique Style Makes Glenn Miller 'Click'

What makes a band stand out above the field? What makes a band "click"? Generally it is because this band has something different, something that identifies and makes it easy to recognize and remember. Such a band is that of Glenn Miller, which will present its "Moonlight Serenade" harmonies for Junior Prom-gone in Rec Hall Friday night.

Unusual Harmony Blend
A deep, dark secret is Glenn's method of producing his unusual harmony blend. He achieves it by scoring his arrangements so that the melody is carried an octave apart by the clarinet and fourth tenor saxophone, with the two altos and the second tenor filling in the harmony. The brass section complements this sax set-up with fetching figures lightly supported by rhythm.

Drydock Closes Saturday
The Drydock Nite Club will close this Saturday for the semester, Edgar V. Hall '41, manager, announced yesterday.

Stated for the closing night will be a bang-up floor show featuring the Meyer Brothers, winners of Major Bowes' Amateur Hour, Roy Rogers as master of ceremonies, and Rubin Rabinowitz the impersonator. Reservations may be secured after tomorrow at Student Union.

Students on Board
At that time directors will be named including five student members, Editor, business manager, women's editor, all-College president, and WSGA president and men selected from the reorganization committee.

by such outstanding "ride men" as Clyde Hurley on the trumpet, Tex Beneke on the tenor sax, and the maestro himself on the trombone.

Musical critics such as George Simon of Metronome, who considers Miller "consistently original" with his novel five-man saxophone section and "floating clarinet," have given the personable young bandleader unstinted praise.

STICKMEN LOSE TO MARYLAND

Bond. State was still unable to find the range.

The Lion inside defense of Roger Sharp, Hot Drake, and Joe Carter, hitting its true stride for the first time, prevented a repetition of last year's 18-2 walkaway. Sharp was especially outstanding as his aggressive, fierce checking nipped several Maryland plays in the bud.

At clearing, more than any other department, the visitors showed superiority. They brought the ball out successfully 21 times and failed on only four occasions. State cleared 10 times but lost the ball on 11 attempts.

Goaltender Jack Yudin returned to the lineup as he took sophomore Marty Salei's place after the first two Maryland goals. Yudin was credited with 10 saves.
