

Penn State Collegian

This Year's Publication Ends With This Issue

VOL. 36—No 65

Z658

STATE COLLEGE, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1940

PRICE FIVE CENTS

LARGEST SENIOR CLASS WILL GRADUATE JUNE 10

Pearce Promises Housing Bureau's Full Cooperation

Proposed Rooming Plan Receives Dual Approval Of Warnock, Ritenour

With the proposed plan for student housing inspection in the hands of President Ralph D. Helzel for approval, Mrs. Charles Pearce, president of the State College Student Housing Placement Bureau, announced yesterday that her group offers full cooperation and agreement with a College approved list.

Warnock Approves

Conceding with Mrs. Pearce's announcement, A. R. Warnock, dean of men, and Dr. Joseph P. Ritenour, director of the College Health Service, approved the move by the Senate committee on student welfare, but warned students that perfection in housing conditions will take time.

Advice On Speech Offered Students

Conversational Topics, Practice Items Urged

After conducting a survey of Penn State students' conversational difficulties, backgrounds, likes and dislikes, Eugene T. McDonald, graduate assistant in speech, has prepared a list of "tips" for those who feel that they are having trouble in conversation.

Full Activities Schedule Ushers Out College Year

FEATURE IN THE NEW COLLEGIAN. THE CAMPUS CALENDAR AND NEWS BRIEFS WHICH HAVE APPEARED REGULARLY THIS MONTH WILL BE A DAILY FEATURE IN THE NEW COLLEGIAN.

Today: Student Government Memorial Day services, 8:45 a. m. Most College groups will follow Sunday schedule. Monday: 4-H Club meeting, 4:05 Old Main, 7:30 p. m. Jan Savitt, Cathaum Theatre.

Savitt's 'Top Hatters' Play At Cathaum Monday

Jan Savitt and his "Top Hatters" Orchestra, direct from engagements at the Lincoln Hotel, New York City, and the Stanley Theater, Pittsburgh, come to the Cathaum Theatre on Monday, June 3.

Three Juniors Named To Summer Collegian

William E. Fowler '41 and Edward J. K. McLoone '41 will serve as co-editors of the Summer Collegian with Lawrence S. Dreyer '41 as business manager.

Winners Of Water Color Competition Announced

Donald H. White '42, Doris G. Gutman '40, and Mrs. Marion E. Stern have been announced as winners of a water color contest sponsored recently by a local book store.

40 Class Day Exercises Scheduled 6 P.M. Sunday

Plans for the annual Senior Class Day exercises slated for the front lawn of Old Main at 6 p. m. Sunday, June 9, neared completion yesterday.

Delegates To Penn Parley Chosen

Arnold C. Laich '41, all-College president, and William B. Bartholomew, senior class president, will probably represent the College at the University of Pennsylvania's bicentennial celebration on September 19, 20, and 21.

Senate Will Rule On Vacation Cuts, Engineer Courses

Addition Of 24 Hours To Fine Period Asked By Dr. Dye's Committee

At its last meeting of the year on June 6, the Senate will consider changes in the rules concerning "cuts" before and after vacations new engineering courses, and a change in residence requirements for a second bachelor degree.

Delegates To Penn Parley Chosen

Laich And Bartholomew Will Attend 200th Fete

Arnold C. Laich '41, all-College president, and William B. Bartholomew, senior class president, will probably represent the College at the University of Pennsylvania's bicentennial celebration on September 19, 20, and 21.

Craighead, Ritts To Head Portfolio

Stanisky And Weinberg Named To Staff Offices

Jean C. Craighead '41 and Mrs. Ellen N. Ritts '41 were elected co-editors of Portfolio for 1940-41 with Isabel M. Stanisky '41 as business manager.

Staller, Yagel Complete First CAA Flying Course

Two CAA students, Paul O. Staller '40 and Charles O. Yagel '40, became the first to complete the local course by passing their flight examination Friday.

Collegian Prepares Preview Of Tabloid

Today's issue of Collegian finds a paper in transition. As the last issue of the old semi-weekly Collegian it is as well a preview of the new daily Collegian.

Memorial Holiday Services Slated For College Today

Wreath Placing, Rifle Salute Form Ceremony At 8:45 This Morning

Memorial Day will be observed as an official holiday by the College today with all final examinations discontinued. A regular Sunday schedule will be followed by all departments.

What A Life' Re-Creates High School Adventures

Dean Ray Offers Anti-Theft Plan

"What a Life" Players' 20th anniversary production and annual Spring houseparty show, promises to re-create a laughable picture of their own high school adventures for playgoers in Schwab Auditorium at 8:30 p. m. on Friday, June 7, and at 7:30 p. m. on Saturday, June 8.

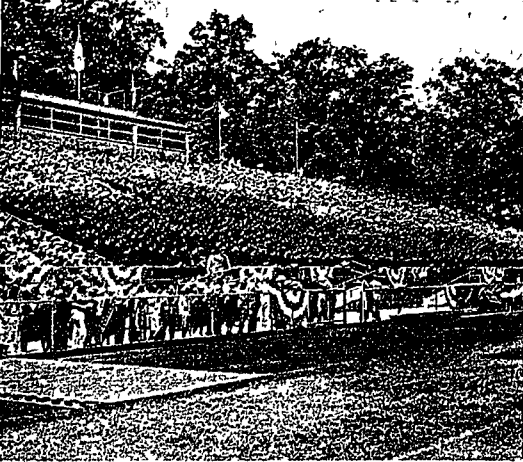

Dean Ray Offers Anti-Theft Plan

A four-point program was outlined by Dean Charlotte E. Ray yesterday in an effort to curb the recent outbreak of petty thievery in the women's dormitories and societies.

Fate Of New ROTC Unit In Hands Of Trustees

The fate of the proposed ROTC anti-aircraft coast artillery unit is in the hands of the Board of Trustees, Col. Ambrose R. Emery, head of the department of military science and tactics, said yesterday.

Preview Of Commencement

Pictured above is New Beaver Field as it looked last year when the first outdoor commencement exercises were held.

50 Fraternities Elect Next Year's Presidents

Approximately 50 men's fraternities have elected presidents for the year 1940-41. Those who will head fraternities next year are: Acacia, Jack W. Strong '41, Alpha Chi Rho, Stanley C. Wyglendowski '41, Alpha Chi Sigma, Vincent N. Hurd '41.

Dean Ray Offers Anti-Theft Plan

A four-point program was outlined by Dean Charlotte E. Ray yesterday in an effort to curb the recent outbreak of petty thievery in the women's dormitories and societies.

Fate Of New ROTC Unit In Hands Of Trustees

The fate of the proposed ROTC anti-aircraft coast artillery unit is in the hands of the Board of Trustees, Col. Ambrose R. Emery, head of the department of military science and tactics, said yesterday.

1,076 Will Receive Degrees In 80th Commencement

Dr. Buttrick Will Give Baccalaureate Sermon In Rec Hall On June 9

Approximately 1076 seniors, the largest graduating class in the history of the College, will receive degrees from President Ralph D. Helzel at the 80th annual commencement exercises on New Beaver Field at 10:30 a. m. Monday, June 10.

This year's graduating class will exceed by 22 last year's total. The number of June graduates has been steadily increasing from year to year. In 1930, 620 were graduated and five years ago 812 received degrees.

Form By Schools

Matin V. Rockwell will deliver the valedictory address and B. Paul Blasingame has been chosen salutatorian.

Dean Ray Offers Anti-Theft Plan

A four-point program was outlined by Dean Charlotte E. Ray yesterday in an effort to curb the recent outbreak of petty thievery in the women's dormitories and societies.

Fate Of New ROTC Unit In Hands Of Trustees

The fate of the proposed ROTC anti-aircraft coast artillery unit is in the hands of the Board of Trustees, Col. Ambrose R. Emery, head of the department of military science and tactics, said yesterday.

Dean Ray Offers Anti-Theft Plan

A four-point program was outlined by Dean Charlotte E. Ray yesterday in an effort to curb the recent outbreak of petty thievery in the women's dormitories and societies.

Fate Of New ROTC Unit In Hands Of Trustees

The fate of the proposed ROTC anti-aircraft coast artillery unit is in the hands of the Board of Trustees, Col. Ambrose R. Emery, head of the department of military science and tactics, said yesterday.