

College Uncertain On Registration For Military Draft

What arrangements the College will make to handle registration of students affected by the draft passed by Congress on Saturday remained uncertain last night.

Adrian O. Morse, assistant to the president in charge of resident instruction, indicated the College may be waiting for a system of absentee registration to be established by either the state or federal government. Otherwise provision will be made to permit the approximately 1,800 students affected to go home to register, he said. Indications from Washington are that President Roosevelt will order a five-day registration period within the next two weeks.

As the draft law was finally passed, college students between 21 and 36 will be required to register but—on request—can be deferred from the draft until the end of the academic year.

The draft bill also provides exemption from registration for "cadets of the advanced course, senior division, Reserve Officers' Training Corps." (This was interpreted yesterday by Col. Ambrose R. Emery, in charge of the military department, to mean both junior and senior ROTC students) There are 90 seniors already in the corps here and 110 juniors will be inducted as soon as physical examinations are complete.)

Millinder Guilty Of Gates' Murder

Richard Millinder was found guilty of the first degree murder of Faye Gates and was sentenced to life imprisonment at the climax of his dramatic trial in the Bellefonte courthouse Friday.

Millinder's confessions, collaboration of evidence by the testimony of witnesses, and scientific evidence were District Attorney Musser W. Gettig's main points in his summation to the jury asking them to find Millinder guilty of first degree murder.

Pointing out that the state's evidence was largely circumstantial, defense attorney Lewis O. Harvey asked the jury to acquit the defendant in an address which lasted one hour and 50 minutes.

Millinder's confessions were corroborated by the testimony of several state witnesses. Dr. Pauline Beery Mack, director of Home Economics Research at the College and a noted textile expert, testified that fibers from Millinder's sweater were found under the victim's fingernails and that strands of Faye Gates' dress were identified on his sweater.

Millinder appeared calm throughout the trial, and took the jury's verdict "like a man." Local newspapermen labeled him "impassive."

'44 Customs Exemptions To Be Granted Tomorrow

Exemptions from freshmen customs will be granted in 305 Old Main at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, chairman of Tribunal, W. Lewis Corbin '41, announced today. The only freshmen to be exempted are those over 21 years of age before next Wednesday and those who have taken customs previously.

A representative from each hat society will sit in on Tribunal meetings but will have no vote. The voting members of the Tribunal are W. Lewis Corbin '41, Thomas M. Carr '41, Jacob Hay '41, Oscar Kranich, Jr. '41, George L. Parish '41, Raymond K. Leffler '42, and Robert Robinson '41.

Upperclassmen Register Today And Tomorrow

Upperclassmen must register between 8:30 a. m. and 12 n. and 1:30 p. m. and 5 p. m. today or tomorrow, regardless of their place in the alphabet, or pay $5 late registration fee.

The alphabetical breakdown is used only at second semester registration.

Registration will be completed with the payment of fees at the Armory. Freshmen will pay their fees on Friday, September 20, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and upperclassmen will pay theirs on Thursday and Friday, September 26 and 27.

Hetzel Cautions Incoming Class

"In spite of these distressing times, try to proceed as normally as possible," President Ralph D. Hetzel told the class of 1944 at the freshman convocation in Schwab Auditorium at 8 a.m. Thursday.

He cited President Franklin D. Roosevelt's letter to American college students (Daily Collegian, September 5) as an incentive for those within the age limits set for the draft to stay in college.

Turning to local campus problems, Dr. Hetzel said that democracy should begin as early as possible and told the freshmen that they have an unusual opportunity to practice democracy in a powerful student self-government.

He warned that the College expects students to conduct themselves as ladies and gentlemen. Penn State is not a "country club" but an educational institution, Dr. Hetzel said.

He ended his talk with a discussion of college spirit. College spirit, he said, is "unqualified devotion to the highest objectives and ideals of the College."

Other highlights of Freshman Week have been the mass meetings Thursday and Friday, and the Freshman Dance on Saturday night. The meeting Thursday was devoted to campus activities with the class presidents, student editors, and other student leaders addressing the freshmen.

At the Friday night meeting State College pastors spoke, welcoming the new students and extending invitations to visit the town churches.

Robertson Robinson '41 Appointed To Tribunal

The appointment of Robert Robinson '41 to succeed Edgar V. Hall '41, who has left the College, as a member of Student Tribunal was announced yesterday by Arnold C. Laich '41, All-College president.

Robinson's appointment is temporary pending confirmation by Cabinet, Laich said. However, he added, Robinson will sit with Tribunal at its first meeting tomorrow. Laich said that appointment of a Tribunal secretary must be made by W. Lewis Corbin '41, head of Tribunal.

Laich also announced that the joint Cabinet-Alumni Council meeting scheduled at Harry's Valley Camp next Friday has been postponed.

Inability of many members of both groups to attend the meeting was given by Laich as the reason for the postponement.

"However, the meeting will definitely be held sometime this fall," Laich said. "There is a possibility that it may be scheduled during the weekend of October 12, Alumni Homecoming."

256 Men Pledge Fraternities In 4 Days; Alpha Zeta, D. G. Lead In Scholarship

Group Averages Show General Increase

For Complete Scholarship Standings, See Page Four

Alpha Zeta, second in the fraternity scholarship standings for the first semester last year, moved into first place the second semester, according to averages released yesterday by Registrar William S. Hoffman.

Among the sororities, Delta Gamma took first place. Fairmount Hall was the highest housing group.

Averages generally improved over the first semester with the All-College average jumping from 1.33 to 1.43 and other groups showing similar increases.

As in the past sororities ranked much higher than fraternities, the lowest being on a par with the upper third of fraternity houses.

Changes in All-College ratings from the first to the second semester are shown in the following table:

	1939-40	1st semester	2nd semester
All-College	1.33	1.43
All-College men	1.26	1.37
Fraternity men	1.20	1.30
Non-fraternity men	1.22	1.42
All-College women	1.56	1.62
Fraternity women	1.70	1.71
Non-fraternity women	1.52	1.56
All fraternity	1.29	1.39
All non-fraternity	1.34	1.45

Music Tryouts Schedule Given

Tryout schedules for the College Choir, Penn State Glee Club, Blue Band marching and concert units, College Symphony orchestra, and the Infantry and Engineer R.O.T.C. bands were released by the department of music today.

Regardless of class, all students musically inclined are eligible for places in the College music organizations.

Only one trial will be given in either the vocal or instrumental division. Thus a student trying out for vocal organizations will be auditioned for both the College Choir and Penn State Glee Club simultaneously. Students will state which organization they are interested in before their trial. All vocal tryouts will be held in Schwab Auditorium, instrumental in 401 Old Main.

Vocal auditions will be held as follows:

College Choir, girls' voices only, 7 p. m. Thursday, September 19.
College Choir and Glee Club, first and second tenors only, Room 411 Old Main, 7 p. m. Tuesday, September 24.

College Choir and Glee Club, baritones and basses only, 7 p. m. Wednesday, September 25.

Wednesday, September 18: Trombones, baritone horns, 4 p. m. to 6; cornets, trumpets, 7 p. m., horns, tubas, 9 p. m.

Thursday, September 19: Flutes, piccolos, double reeds, 4 p. m.; clarinets, 7 p. m., saxophones, 9 p. m.

Friday, September 20: Percussion, 4 p. m.

Monday, September 23: Drum majors, 4 p. m. Strings, 7 p. m.

Girls may compete in the tryouts for positions on the College Choir and College Symphony. Men may compete for all musical organizations.

Limited Daily Delivery Begins With This Issue

Delivery of The Daily Collegian begins with this issue but fraternity and sorority room delivery will not be started until October 1. Delivery to rooms in girls dormitories has already started.

Because of insufficient address, the following subscribers will not be reached today and are urged to contact the Collegian at their earliest convenience: Jack Banbury, Elmer Brown, Kathryn Clark, Helen Dodd, Jack Dolly, James Measday, Arnold Rosenblatt, E. Snyder (Sub. No. 2096), M. J. Stevenson, and Dick Warner.

Subscribers who fail to receive their copies should phone or call at the Collegian office, 313 Old Main, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Queen Sought Among Sororities

Sororities began seeking their candidates for sorority queen yesterday and took some the spotlight which previously had centered on the freshman competition in the 1940 Collegian Queen selections.

Balloting will get underway at Student Union this morning with every Collegian subscriber entitled to cast one vote for a Sorority, Dorm, or Freshman Queen. Collegian dance stubs—received with each subscription—must be presented as identification.

Meanwhile, posters boosting the queen contest and showing the 12 sponsored freshman candidates were being made ready to go on display tomorrow. They will be shown at the Corner Room, Student Union, Recreation Hall, and the Penn State Photo Shop.

The Freshman Queen candidates were introduced with their senior sponsors at the activities mass meeting last Thursday. They are:

Opera Course Offered Again This Semester

A non-credit course in opera appreciation will be offered again this semester by Leslie Hetenyi, who announced it yesterday. Arrangements can be made by contacting him at the music office in 417 Old Main.

The course will meet one hour a week, probably at 4 p. m. Tuesdays. It will trace history of opera development and study the most famous singers and singing technique.

Rushing Total Likely To Pass Last Year's

The number of fraternity pledges threatened to pass the 400 mark for the first time since 1936 as 256 pledges were reported to Student Union by 6 p.m. yesterday.

It seemed certain that last year's mark of 359 would be surpassed. The official rushing season closes at noon Wednesday, giving rushees two and a half more days in which to pledge.

Beta Sigma Rho led the 47 fraternities with 16 pledges. Phi Sigma Delta was second with 14 and Phi Epsilon Pi and Phi Gamma Delta were deadlocked for third with 13 each.

The complete list of pledges, including all classes, reported to Student Union as follows:

Acacia (5): Robert E. Dierken, John D. Henneberger, Daniel G. Keeney, Robert L. Meyer, Edward F. Price.

Alpha Chi Rho (4): Edward F. Joslyn, Philip Mitzkevich, Harley R. Stiger, Christian Zimmerman.
Alpha Chi Sigma (3): Miron L. Briggs, William H. Voris, G. Baird Kirkwood.

Alpha Gamma Rho (2): Gilbert Anthony, William J. Hasley.

Alpha Phi Delta (6): Constantine Benedetto, Frank Garafalo, Silvio Garafalo, James Giombetti, Nick Mastandrea, Edward Sebastianelli.

Alpha Sigma Phi (3): Richard Gibbs, Murray Martin, John Savidge.

Alpha Tau Omega (7): Ellis S. Bergey, Richard Crockett, Walter Diksa, John P. Kelly, Henry G. Mohr, Robert Sperl, Charles H. Taylor.

Thespians To Entertain Frosh Tuesday Evening

The Penn State Thespians will present an hour musical entertainment in Schwab Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Thursday, in order to acquaint the Class of 1944 with the Thespian Club and encourage those who are interested to come out for this activity.

The show will feature Jimmy Leyden's new orchestra, "The Penn State Collegians" with vocalist Jackie Reese. A new quartet, "Three Beats and a Pick-up," will make their debut with the band. The Three Stooges, Ned Startzel, Roy Rogers and George Parrish, with their accompanist Mike Brotman will do several of their ditties. Andrew Szekely will render several selections on the piano, Marce Stringer will be on hand with a new song written for her by Bud Yanofsky '38, and Barbara Thiele and Dottie Reeves will tap dance to complete the show.

All freshmen will be admitted free of charge.
